

HUERTA'S CONTROL ON MEXICAN STATES ALREADY WEAKENING

UNDERCURRENT OF OPPOSITION
TO NEW REGIME IS PLAINLY DISCERNABLE.

INDIANS DISSATISFIED

Natives of Oaxaca Who Favor Felix
Diaz Believe A Provisional
President Is Necessary.

Mexico City, Feb. 22.—Acceptance of the new administration in Mexico is not so general as was at first thought. To the states of Coahuila, Yucatan and Sonora, which at the moment of the overthrow of Francisco Madero declared they were not in accord with the new conditions, must now be added part of the state of Oaxaca, where the Serrano Indians have refused to recognize the government of President Huerta. The governor of Oaxaca is so alarmed by the disturbed conditions in the state capital that he has asked for reinforcements from Mexico City.

Between the federal capital and the port of Vera Cruz also conditions are very uncertain. Bodies of federal troops have been sent to the cities of Jalapa and Orizaba in the state of Vera Cruz to maintain the balance of power.

American residents of the Mexican capital recovered from the anxiety of the bombardment and fighting in the streets today and joined in the celebration of the birthday of George Washington.

Indians in the state of Oaxaca have gone on the war path from personal motives. Felix Diaz is a native of that state and the Indians declare that in as much as he has not been made head of the republic if it is necessary to appoint a provisional president, Fidencio Hernandez a native of Oaxaca who has had a distinguished army career should be nominated. In no case say the Indians will they recognize General Huerta as provisional president.

The disturbances which have broken out in the state of Vera Cruz are supposed to indicate that the support the new administration has gained in that state is questionable. A small group of sympathizers with Francisco Madero stopped trains on which he was believed to be fleeing from the federal capital to the coast with the object of rescuing the deposed president.

Taft A President OF ALL THE PEOPLE

University of Wisconsin Professor Pays Tribute to Retiring President at Madison Banquet.

Madison, Feb. 22.—The republican has stood primarily for efficiency and the progressive party has emphasized the initiative and referendum, the recall of judges and other issues calculated to appeal to popular feeling. Taft has been a president of no particular party or class, but of all the people, and has made an advance in the solution of the problem of industrial and social justice," was the statement made by Arnold B. Hall of the political economy department of the state university today at the Saturday Luncheon Club.

City Attorney Hoan of Milwaukee claimed the high cost of living to be the tariff. He said that in the seven years in which Theodore Roosevelt was president he had never even thought about settling the tariff question. He also attacked the Wisconsin railroad commission for failing to give Milwaukee better car service.

John Ahyard said that Roosevelt as a selfish man had wrecked the republican party at Chicago while Bryan as an unselfish man had aided the democratic party at Baltimore.

CASTRO SUDDENLY LEAVES FOR CUBA

Former Venezuelan President Leaves
New York On A Pleasure Trip.

New York, Feb. 22.—General Castro, former president of Venezuela, left New York today for Cuba, on the Ward liner Saratoga. He said there was nothing secret about his trip that it was merely for pleasure, and that he would return to New York some time in March.

PITTSVILLE YOUNG WOMAN WINS PRELIMINARY CONTEST

Stevens Point, Feb. 22.—The Stevens Point normal preliminary contest was held Friday evening when Willis Clarke of Pittsville won first honors and Norman Knutson second.

The state contest will be held in Stevens Point March 28th, on which date will also be played a game of basketball between the winners of the northern and southern series.

RELATIVES OF TITANIC VICTIMS MAY SUE

Washington, Feb. 22.—The United States circuit court of appeals today handed down a decision which permits relatives of Titanic victims to commence suits immediately against the steamship company for full damages. The decision is a victory for the lawyers representing the death claimants who were opposed by the steamship company's attorneys in the hearings a few days ago.

TO VOTE ON LABOR DEPARTMENT BILL

Measure Designed to Create Another Cabinet Office on Senate Calendar for Tuesday.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The senate today agreed to vote next Tuesday on the bill to create a department of labor which would provide another cabinet officer. The measure passed through last summer and has been pending on the senate calendar for months.

Oppose Naval Bill.
Opposition to the naval bill carrying $146,618,864 was active when consideration of the measure was resumed in the house today and the indications were that it would be impossible to reach a vote before Monday.

Mac Veagh Explains.
Washington, Feb. 22.—Secretary MacVeagh today informed the senate that under the executive and progressive law of March 4, 1907, he had the authority to issue "treasury order No. 5," requiring customs receipts to be deposited in national banks. The secretary's statement was in answer to Senator Poindexter's resolution questioning his authority for issuance of such an order.

"Why the law was not taken advantage of before, I don't know," wrote the secretary. He transmitted a long explanation to refute the charges that the operation of the order will unduly concentrate government funds in national banks.

PROTEST AT ACTION
ASSEMBLYMAN HOOD

La Crosse Trades Council Object To His Move to Abolish the Industrial Commission.

La Crosse, Feb. 22.—The executive committee of the trade and labor council of La Crosse at the instigation of Frank Webber, state organizer, will hold a mass meeting next Wednesday night to protest against the action of Assemblyman C. L. Hood in introducing a bill, which it is contended, aims to practically wipe out the industrial commission, thereby relieving employers of the necessity of providing safety devices and sanitary conditions for employees. A protest will be sent to Assemblyman Hood by members of organized labor here.

CHILEAN SCIENTISTS WILL PROMOTE HOME INDUSTRIES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Santiago, Chile, Feb. 22.—Farming and mining in Chile will receive a great impetus, it is believed as a result of the promise made by 425 of the nation's most prominent scientists to devote three hours each week in an active personal effort to the extension and development of scientific methods in the agricultural and mining industries. The promise is the outcome of a resolution unanimously adopted by the National Scientific Congress at its eighth convention, which concluded its deliberations at Temuco today after having been in session nearly two weeks. Agriculture and mining are the two backbone industries of Chile, but their full development has heretofore been hampered by the primitive methods of operation.

GRANT LEGION OF HONOR TO LEADING DRESSMAKER

Paris, Feb. 22.—The French government, upon the recommendation of the Minister of Commerce, has decorated with the Legion of Honor one of the leading women dressmakers of Paris. It appears that 4 1/2 per cent. of the population of France is employed in garment making, and this industry is recognized as a great source of national wealth. The woman in question comes under the class of "captains of industry," and it is in recognition of her creative work in organizing her business that the government has thus honored her.

The creative dressmaker in France is now protected legally if her ideas are stolen. She must, however, prove that her general idea, and not alone details of design, have been appropriated by a rival. To insure such protection a copy of all dress models, together with adequate descriptions, must be deposited in the French patent office. When this has been done she may bring suit for infringement of her "patented" dress.

DOGS FIGHT WITH WOLVES ON MANITOWOC STEETS

Manitowoc, Feb. 22.—Last evening Comrade Meyer, North Eleventh street, was surprised to see two of his dogs fighting furiously with several wolves. The wolves in this vicinity have become more numerous and bold during the past few months. After a fight the wolves made their escape into the woods and are now in the swamps.

RYAN PRESIDING OFFICER FOR IRON WORKER'S UNION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 22.—Many delegates are arriving in Indianapolis for the opening on Monday of the annual convention of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union. The convention was to have been held in Milwaukee last fall, but was postponed because of the trial of many of its officers and members in the dynamite conspiracy case. At the convention questions arising out of the conviction of the leaders will be considered. The sessions will be presided over by President Frank M. Ryan, who has been released on bonds pending an appeal of his case.

STREET CONGESTION IN PARIS GREATEST

Municipal Authorities Have Found No Way to Effect Permanent Improvement in Conditions.

Paris, Feb. 22.—The vehicular congestion on the streets of Paris is greater than in any other city of the world, and in spite of the efforts of the municipal authorities, no way has yet been found to effect any permanent improvement in street conditions. The problem is an ever-present one, and it grows worse every year, for Paris, strangled by the stone belt of the now useless fortifications, cannot expand, but must grow upward. No such congestion of traffic exists in New York, London, Chicago, Berlin or Philadelphia. The municipality has sent agents to all these cities to study traffic conditions, and to count the number of vehicles passing a given point on an important street in each city, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. This comparison shows that 33,323 vehicles passed down the Rue de Rivoli in Paris, 16,208 were counted on the Strand in London, 14,321 on the Potsdamer Platz, Berlin, 8,665 at Fifth avenue and Fifty-eighth street, New York; 6,176 on Broad street, Philadelphia, and 5,736 on Sheridan road, Chicago.

Add to the large number for Paris the fact that this city has some hilly and many tortuous streets, it would appear that the regulation of traffic in Paris presents difficulties unknown elsewhere. Eventually the congestion will become so great that new streets will have to be cut to relieve it; this seems to be the only solution.

FIGHT ON CUSTOMS OFFICE AT DULUTH

Superior and Duluth Each Want Head Office Located at Their Port.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Duluth, Feb. 22.—Those who have been active in trying to have Superior made either the head of a customs district or else a part of the Milwaukee district will continue their fight to that end according to statements made today, despite the proposition which has been made at Washington for a combination of Superior and Duluth under one collector who is to divide his time between the Twin Cities. They insist that as Superior has the largest port business of the two cities that if the two are to be combined the port headquarters should be in Superior with a sub-port in Duluth. Duluth objects. The plan has been proposed by secretary Franklin MacVeagh to President Taft, and it approved will go into effect on June 1. Collector C. J. Byrne of Marquette, head of the district under present arrangements recently pointed out the objections to the plan proposed by Secretary MacVeagh saying that between two cities, where the rivalry is so keen there will be a lack of harmony.

LONDON BARRICADED AS READY FOR RIOT

Shop Windows Boarded up For Protection From Militant Suffragettes—Others Closely Guarded.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Feb. 22.—London bears the appearance of a city barricaded for riots, since the militant suffragettes have stationed guards outside their establishments to pull down their shutters at the first sign of a determined looking woman taking aim with a brick and women carrying heavy handbags or packages, are looked upon with particular suspicion when they appear on the shopping streets.

One of the big shipping offices on Cockspar which neglected to board up its windows after being warned that the suffragettes were bent on window wrecking, lost two windows valued at $500 each. Other firms, however, protected by the warning and sent burly orders to carpenters for board protection to exposed windows. In the shopping districts many of the merchants have hired special guards who lurk about in secluded spots ready to pounce upon any suspicious-looking woman who may stop to gaze into the windows.

At nightfall business London becomes desolate with every blind down and dark and forbidding shutters of heavy boards have taken the place of bright windows filled with displays of retail merchandise.

WILSON WILL SPEND WEEK AT PRINCETON

President-Elect Will Remain at Home Until Time for His Inauguration.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 22.—Woodrow Wilson went back to Princeton today for his last week at home before he goes to Washington to become president of the United States. The next president expects to remain pretty close to the White House for several months after his inauguration. He has announced his desire to devote all his time to his work and for this reason has accepted no formal invitation for a period of six months after March 4. The trip to the Panama Canal is the only plan definitely arranged thus far for President-elect. The selection of a summer home has not yet been made.

BLIZZARD SWEEPS ENTIRE NORTHWEST
TYING UP TRAFFIC

Million Dollars Worth of Damage Reported in Chicago Where Sleet Carries Down Wires—
Storm at Duluth.

Milwaukee, Feb. 22.—Practically the whole of Wisconsin is affected by a blizzard which has raged about 24 hours. Wires of all kinds are prostrated and street railway traffic especially interurban lines in various parts of the state are in a bad way. Steam roads do not appear to have experienced much trouble.

Michigan in Grasp.
Detroit, Feb. 22.—One of the most severe storms of the winter is raging today over practically all of northern and western Michigan. At Petoskey the worst blizzard of the winter is prevailing and fears are expressed for the safety of the fishermen who left yesterday for the fishing grounds on Little Traverse Bay. They have not returned and it is thought they are either lost on the ice or have perished. Railroad traffic is seriously delayed by the deep snow.

Effects Whole State.
Chicago, Feb. 22.—Damage caused by the sleet storm which gripped this city for thirty hours was today estimated at one million dollars. Although the full of rain and sleet stopped early today the city still is practically isolated from the outside world as nearly all telegraph wires are down and it will be twenty-four hours before repairs can be made and normal conditions restored.

The storm compelled one interurban electric line between Chicago, Elgin and Aurora to shut down for several hours. Traffic on the surface, and elevated lines in the city was again interrupted, although conditions were improved. Suburban and through trains were late in arriving. Mail schedules were demoralized.

Elizavet at Duluth.
Duluth, Minn., Feb. 22.—A wind and snow storm which developed into a swirling blizzard struck Duluth, Superior and Iron Range early last evening, and continued throughout the night. Snow was piled high in drifts. The wind reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour during the night and continued today.

The Soo trains from the Twin Cities, the Great Northern and Pacific were seriously laid out by the storm. All trains coming covered with snow. Train crews told of rough trips north out of St. Paul. The Soo and Omaha were over an hour late. Snow plows were sent out today by several of the railroads. Telegraphic service is reported as being impeded for five hundred miles in all directions.

Green Bay Suffers.
Green Bay, Feb. 22.—A blizzard which started at about 4:30 yesterday afternoon is still raging. Telegraph lines are down and train service tied up. A Northwestern train bound for Milwaukee was held up for four hours on the road. Interurban traffic has not been affected as yet, but looks fair to be if the storm does not abate. About two feet of snow has fallen.

While walking home in the storm last night, Edward Lefevre a leading furniture dealer here was nearly killed by an interurban car.

Interurban Laid Up.
Oshkosh, Feb. 22.—Last night's storm has completely tied up the interurban lines which have Oshkosh as a center with the exception of Fond du Lac.

The Omro lines are completely out of commission. Cars occasionally pass from Oshkosh to Neenah. It is expected that the tracks will be pretty well cleared shortly.

At Appleton.
Appleton, Feb. 22.—The Wisconsin Traction, Light, Heat and Fire Company is the only interurban line running today in this vicinity. Supt. Ellis had snow plows running all night and had cars on scheduled time early this morning.

TURKS SHOOT DOWN
BULGAR AEROPLANE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Constantinople, Feb. 22.—A Bulgarian military aeroplane while reconnoitering over the fortress of Adrianople today, was hit by a Turkish shell and fell inside the lines. It was piloted by a Russian officer, Lieutenant Nikolaus, who was made a prisoner by the Turks. The wireless report from the Turkish commander does not state whether he was injured.

STATE FAIR REMOVAL
NO JOKE SAYS SENATOR

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Oshkosh, Feb. 22.—State Senator White in an interview, said the proposition of removing the state fair from Milwaukee ceases to be a joke. He is pushing a bill to have it held in Oshkosh.

MARINETTE PAPER MILL THREATENED BY FIRE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Marinette, Feb. 22.—Rapid and efficient work by the fire department was successful in extinguishing the flames which nearly destroyed the products mill of the Marinette and Menominee Paper Mill Company.

CHARGED WITH EVADING OLEOMARGARINE TAX

Chicago, Feb. 22.—John F. Jelke, must go to trial on the government charge that he evaded taxes on illegally colored oleomargarine. This was ordered by Judge Anderson in the United States district court today when he overruled Jelke's demurrer alleging that the indictment was faulty.

SHIPPING MEN FEAR TEST OF IMMIGRANT

Passage of Education Test Measure Would Mean Falling Off in Number of Immigrants.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Feb. 22.—Shipping men and immigration experts here predict that the passage of the education test for immigrants into the United States will mean a falling off of over 100,000 annually in the number of foreigners entering American ports.

This means a serious loss to the steamship lines, not only because of the diminution in numbers, but also on account of the fact that they will have to return at their expense all those who fail to pass the test. Realizing this, some of the companies are already making arrangements to subject applicants for passage to a test which will be as rigid as the examination conducted by the American officials at the port of debarkation. It is estimated here that lines carrying steerage traffic from Russia, Portugal and Italy will be the heaviest sufferers.

Australia also is making the way of the immigrant hard, and the new Australian health certificates will bar many who would have no difficulty in getting in under the present regulations. Even now, if the country is subject to the test during his first year of residence. It is no secret here that Australia feels herself aggrieved by the class of immigrant which the British Isles is supplying, and it will cause no surprise if she discourages assisted immigration in the future. Some of the resident Australian government officials have discovered that the best type of emigrant, who neither desires nor requires assistance, is going to the United States, and as Australia needs this kind of settler rather than the manual laborer, desperate efforts will be made to divert him to the Antipodes.

SMOKING OF OPIUM BECOMING POPULAR

Several Dens in Whitechapel District
Of London Said to Be Catering
To Aristocratic Patrons.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Feb. 22.—Opium smoking is becoming so popular in London that several of the dens in the Whitechapel district are said to be catering exclusively to aristocratic patrons of the pipe. Two of these were visited lately by an investigator, who found them furnished in the most luxurious manner. The victims of the habit can indulge their dreams in surroundings which should appeal to the most fastidious devotees of the drug.

Shortly after dark the patrons began to arrive, stealing in furtively after leaving their motor cars and carrying some distance away. A tradesman declares that in the daytime no one approaches the places, which do not encourage visits at such times because of the danger of police interference.

Both of these palatial dens are run by Chinese. Low divans stand on carpets so thick and soft that no sounds of footsteps can be heard; soft silken cushions are placed for headrests, and rich curtains hang over the doorways. No smoker need move from his couch, as numerous attendants, moving at the motion of a hand, cook the opium and prepare the pipe for each customer.

According to the investigation, the patrons of the place are business men, young men about town, and even members of noble families. Some of the visitors are merely looking for a new sensation, but most of them are hopeless victims of the habit. It is said that the dens are enormously profitable, for each smoker pays from $7 to $25 nightly for his entertainment.

SHIPMENT OF CURRENCY ON ITS WAY TO CHINA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
San Francisco, Feb. 22.—Sixty millions of potential wealth stowed in 140 wooden chests sailed for Hong Kong yesterday on the liner Nippon Maru. The consignment is listed as paper and travels at the federal rate of $7 a ton. It will not become currency until notes have been signed in China. They were printed in New York. The shipment was said to be the first set of bank notes printed for China since the establishment of the republic.

BREAK WORLD'S RECORDS IN WESTERN TRACK MEET

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
San Francisco, Feb. 22.—In the annual open track meet last night of the San Francisco Olympic Club two world's records were broken. Ralph Rose gained his own record for the fifteen pound shot put to forty-five feet five and three-quarters inches. The former mark was forty-four feet one and one-eighth inches.

Pat Donovan of this city threw the fifty-five pound weight a distance of 16 feet 7 inches, half an inch better than his former record.

BAND OF SUFFRAGETTES CONTINUE ON THE MARCH

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Havre de Grace, Md., Feb. 22.—After a good night's rest here the little band of suffragettes marched out of Havre de Grace with full ranks today for Belair, Md., fourteen miles distant, where it was planned to stay the night.

DELAWARE SUMMER RESORT TOWN IS BURNING TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Wilmington, Dela., Feb. 22.—Fire raged today at Rehoboth, Dela., a summer resort town on the Atlantic coast about 100 miles below this city. By eleven o'clock a hotel and twelve cottages had been destroyed.

MALTHUS WAS WRONG SAYS FRENCH SAVANT

Guests at Life's Banquet Contributing Their Share—Analyzes Problem Of Depopulation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, Feb. 22.—In an interesting and lucid lecture before the Society of Friends of the University of Paris, which M. Raymond Poincare is president, Doctor Jacques Bertillon has analyzed at length the problem of the depopulation of France, its causes and remedies.

In 1815, said the doctor, the French amounted to 38 per cent. of the civilized people of the world. They now represent only 10 per cent., and against 50 million people who speak French there are today 120 million who speak German, and 150 million becoming more accentuated, since in 1911 the number of births in France, while in other countries the excess of births over deaths kept at an average of about 12 per thousand. Some people see a remedy in efforts to decrease mortality, but the doctor declared this method to be of little or no value.

What was wanted, he said, was an extra 450,000 births every year; the present deficit involved economical consequences of the most dangerous character. Malthus was quite wrong when he attempted to show that at life's banquet there was room only for a limited number of guests, the guests, explained Dr. Bertillon, were also cooks, contributing their share of the banquet. That is why a high birth-rate shows a much more rapid economic advance than does France. The consequences of depopulation are even graver in the realm of intelligence and culture. Technical and scientific works, whose readers are limited in number, but which, nevertheless, mark the essential condition of progress, are necessarily published in languages spoken by the greater number.

There are many factors responsible for the voluntary and dangerous limitation of families in France. The growth of individualism among others, plays a considerable part. The Civil Code, which prohibits the free testamentary disposition of property, also favors small families. This is clearly demonstrated by a little village in the outskirts of Dunkirk. According to the terms of a foundation dating from the seventeenth century, every family living within the village boundaries is entitled to 24 acres (about three-fifths of an acre) of land; the result is that births exceed deaths by 41 per cent.

Instigated by judicious legislation are numerous, notably in Bavaria and Roumania, where by the suppression of some of the vexatious formalities attending marriage thousands of births were gained every year.

The doctor would like to see the public taught to honor and favor large families instead of subjecting to mockery, as is so often the case nowadays, he recalled that M. Poubelle, when Prefect of the Seine, would not employ any office-holder unless he has at least three children. He also thought that every mother who had four children living should be entitled to a grant of $100. This would, no doubt, involve a large sum of money, but must not be considered as money expended, but rather as a displacement of capital, the beneficial result of which would soon make itself felt.

GREEN BAY WILL VOTE ON CITY WATER PLANT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Green Bay, Feb. 22.—The purchase of the Green Bay Water Company will be put to a vote of the people at the election on May 6th. The railroad rate commission recently placed a valuation of $671,000 on the proposal. It is one of the best water works in the state.

CHICAGO AUTO THIEVES GET QUARTER BILLION YEARLY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Feb. 22.—Chicago automobile owners pay a toll of more than two million six hundred thousand dollars yearly to organized bands of automobile thieves who, after stealing the vehicles, repaint them and change their appearance so as to make their identification impossible.

COAL COMPANY EMPLOYEES STRIKE AT MANITOWOC

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Manitowoc, Feb. 22.—Employees of the C. Reiss Coal Company quit work yesterday and were later joined by the lake front dock crew. The strike was called without notice of grievance to the employers although the strikers now assert that they struck because of the employment of a hoist-er at the river dock.

SLIDES IN CULEBRA CUT CAUSE ADDITIONAL WORK

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Panama, Feb. 22.—It is estimated that recent slides in the Culebra cut of the Panama canal will cause an additional excavation of five and one-half million cubic yards of earth. The total excavation of the canal is now estimated at 218,000,000 cubic yards of which 190,000,000 have been completed.

MEMORIAL TO INDIAN IN NEW YORK HARBOR

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Feb. 22.—Interesting ceremonies were held this afternoon to mark the beginning of work on the memorial to the American Indian to be erected in New York harbor by Rodman Wana-maker of Philadelphia. Among those in attendance at the ceremonies was a large delegation of Indians from Minnesota and the North-western States who are on their way to attend the inauguration of President Wilson at Washington.

FOUR REGIMENTS ARE SENT TO GALVESTON

TAFT WILL HAVE TROOPS IN READINESS AT CONVENIENT POINTS NEAR THE BOR-DER.

READY FOR EMERGENCY

Positively Stated That No Invasion
Will Be Attempted For Present and Action Will Be Left to Wilson.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Feb. 22.—The fifth brigade second division of the reorganized army consisting of four infantry regiments commanded by Brigadier General F. A. Smith, has been ordered to Galveston, Texas, to be in readiness to embark for foreign service. The regiments affected by this order are the 7th at Fort Leavenworth, the 19th at Fort Leavenworth, the 28th at Fort Mead, South Dakota and Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and the 28th infantry at Fort Snelling.

These troops will be in movement within a few hours. As early as a week ago the division commander, Major General Carter, was instructed to have them placed in position for immediate foreign service.

All the railroad transportation facilities have been arranged. Wagons have been provided for the soldiers after they have received the order. It is calculated that some of the troops will begin to arrive in Galveston by tomorrow night or Monday morning and the entire brigade should be ready to embark if necessary on the army transports Kilpatrick, Sumner and McClelland upon the arrival of these vessels at Galveston.

Supplementing the infantry regiments there will be attached to the expeditionary force a company of engineers from either the second or third battalions in the discretion of General Carter, field hospital number 3 and ambulance company number 3 and D company signal corps all now stationed at Fort Leavenworth Kan. A sufficient artillery force already has been attached to the brigade and the fourth field artillery, mounted, stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming.

These orders should bring the fifth brigade assembled along the Galveston up to an effective strength of about 3,000 to 5,000 men. The men will be temporarily stationed at Fort Crockett, Galveston Island and the supply depot will be established at Texas City.

A summary execution of Madero, regarded as the constitutional president of Mexico and his constitutional advisors without due protest of law might possibly be interpreted as demonstrating the absence of proper government in Mexico and of the existence of a practical state of anarchy, according to some of the administration officials.

However, it was positively stated today that there was no present intention of utilizing the armed forces of the United States to back up the attitude of President Taft's administration, but it will be left to President Woodrow Wilson and his secretary of state to determine what shall be done. Meanwhile the outgoing administration regards it as a duty to assemble a sufficient military and naval force at the most convenient points of embarkment to be available if the next administration wishes to use it.

Consular reports today indicate a more general acceptance of the new order of things in Mexico. At Vera Cruz where serious resistance was threatened, Consul Cananda reports the military authorities have acquiesced and will work with the new administration.

The consul at Mazatlan reports recognition of the provisional government and General Huerta by the state of Simloca which also had shown signs of resistance. The same is true of the state of Nuevo Leon.

The most important of all is the reported declaration of Gov. Carranza that local opposition in Saltillo has been abandoned and that he will act in accordance with the provisional government. The only sign of discord reported today is in the outlying district of Acapulco. Government troops from the Acosta Grande regions, however, have been concentrated there.

On the strength of representation made in numerous telegrams received from the south, Senator Ashurst of Arizona today made urgent appeal to the state department to intervene in Mexico.

Texas Is Agitated.
Marlin, Tex., Feb. 22.—"I think the president is all right, but he does not seem to understand that if the federal government does not protect the border with troops by Monday the state of Texas will." This was the declaration of Gov. Codditt of Texas today discussing the situation along the Rio Grande. "I am keeping in close touch with the situation on the Texas-Mexican border," said Gov. Codditt.

Gonzales a Prisoner.
El Paso, Tex., Feb. 22.—Gov. Abraham Gonzales virtually is held a prisoner in the Chihuahua. It is reported today that Gonzales was prevented by regular troops at a town near the state capital and combining the various Madero factions of Chihuahua. Gonzales was a strong supporter of Madero's revolution and always remained loyal to him.

ENTERTAINS MINISTERS FROM LATIN AMERICA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, Feb. 22.—Myron T. Herrick, United States ambassador to France, had as his guests today at a luncheon in celebration of Washington's birthday the Latin American ministers to France thus continuing the pleasant custom established by preceding United States ambassadors here. Every country in central America was represented except Mexico.

See our advertisement in the Gazette Monday night, offering Dollar Day Specials.

D.J. LUBY

Save Your Money By Putting It Into a Diamond

They are still advancing in value and if you are thinking of buying one better get it now. I have a nice stock to select from. Come in and look it over.

Geo. E. Fatzinger
JEWELER

Stanley D. Tallman
LAWYER
and U. S. Court Commissioner.
13 W. Milwaukee St. Janesville.

THE CASH BASIS
can save you money. We buy for cash and sell for cash so you can feel confident of always getting the best values obtainable at the prices you pay us. New spring goods arriving now. Let us serve you.

HALL & HUEBEL

Buy Open Stock Dinner Ware

It's the most satisfactory in the end. You can choose your own assortment. You can get just the dishes you wish. You can always replace those broken.

We Carry Several Patterns

We have in stock a number of patterns; gold lined, gold striped and flowered; these we carry at all times and can always replace any cracked or broken pieces at once.

OUR STOCK IS VERY REASONABLY PRICED.

Hinterschied's

W. Milwaukee St.

COUPLE FIND CHINK THIEVES EFFICIENT

Mrs. C. A. Patten

Although Chinese Luggage may employ peculiar methods in the pursuit of their vocation the efficiency of these artists is not questioned by Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Patten, who arrived at San Francisco recently from Hongkong. During the 18 months the San Francisco dentist and his 12-year-old wife remained in the Orient they experienced two robberies which left them without a single one of the many valuable presents they received when they were married just before sailing for the Far East. After these experiences the Pattens concluded to let others enjoy the prosperity of the Orient and returned to America.

AFFIRMATIVE TEAMS WIN BOTH DEBATES

JANESVILLE CONTESTANTS WON AT HOME BUT LOST OUT AT BELOIT.

LOCALS WIN ON POINTS

Debaters Upholding Diminishing of Proportionate Naval Expenditures Convince Most of Judges.

Affirmative teams were victors in the fifth annual debate of the Beloit College League between the Beloit and Janesville high schools, the visiting and local teams being defeated by votes of two to one. Janesville however, was acknowledged the victor by five points on the judges' score. The affirmative side of the question—"Resolved, That in the interest of world peace the United States begin to diminish its proportional naval expenditures," was upheld in Janesville by a team consisting of Harold Mohr, Benjamin Kullow, and Stanley Judd; the negative by Lowry Moore, Spencer Castle and Harry Allan, of the Beloit high school. Allan, Dearborn, Russell Smiley and Charles Noyes of the Janesville high school spoke for the negative at Beloit, being opposed by Carleton Tower, Harry Garland and Henry Olson. Mayor James A. Fathers presided and the judges were Supt. H. G. Plumb of Shullsburg; Supt. R. E. Loveland of Mineral Point and Principal F. J. Lowth of the Rock County Training School. Principal Lowth was substituted for a representative who was delayed because of interrupted service on the interurban railway.

Harold Mohr opened the debate for the affirmative side of the question at the close of the first number on the program the Beethoven Minuet by the high school orchestra. He gave a clear exposition of the question, the points which the affirmative debaters would endeavor to prove, and a succinct statement illustrated by well chosen statistics of the oppression caused by militarism in European countries. Through a brief summary of American naval history and policy he endeavored to show that the Roosevelt administration inaugurated the policy of building two battleships a year and that this policy had spurred Japan to increase her navy. He argued that diplomacy and international arbitration were the only hopeful methods of bringing about world peace. Mohr's delivery was pleasing and his enunciation clear and distinct. "It is absurd to suggest a reduction of the navy in the face of a possible war," said Lowry Moore, who opened the debate for the negative. "The influence of the United States in world politics is directly proportional to her offensive and defensive strength. Before the United States obtained a powerful navy she was bullied and browbeaten by other nations. The same holds true of Japan. Now Japan possesses a strong fleet, commands universal respect, and France whose aggressions she once feared, has consented to become her financial backer. A big navy is an insurance against war, and not a provocative of wars. Countries possessed of powerful navies can compel arbitration." Moore contended that the yellow peril was a real one, that every growing nation passes through a period of conquest, and China would some day become aggressive. Arbitration, he said, was in its infancy and would never become effective without being backed up by an executive force.

Benjamin Kullow contended in support of the affirmative that of all the great nations of the world the United States was the best fitted to begin a policy of retrenchment in naval expenditures. The possibility of its ever having war with any of the great powers is remote. Possible conflicts with Mexico or any of the South American or Central American countries are hardly to be considered as serious naval policy for those countries are weak. Asiatic powers are so remote that attack from that quarter is improbable. Japan has always maintained an even course of friendship and good will. The United States was her best customer and Japan cannot afford to go to war with her. Kullow referred to the fifty years' peace between England and the United States, rehearsed the history of the peace movement, and predicted the formation of an inter-parliamentary union as the next step toward universal peace.

Spencer Castle speaking for the negative, attempted to prove that the United States can continue her present foreign policy only through the possession of a powerful navy. Her sea-coast, one of the longest in the world, is vulnerable to attack from many quarters. Japan he said has its eye fixed on the Philippines and was ready to take possession of them as soon as her navy became more powerful than the United States. The Hawaiian Islands are overrun with Japanese and desired by Japan. The completion of the Panama Canal makes an increase in the size of the navy more essential than ever before for the United States must insure against its blockade. Enforcement of the Monroe doctrine is possible only as long as the United States remains the supreme power in the western hemisphere, and this supremacy depends upon the possession of a powerful navy.

The beneficent results that would follow the diversion of half the present annual naval expenditures, estimated at $60,000, to development of natural resources, the reclamation of arid lands by irrigation, the reduction of taxes on tariffs, the building of great national highways, and to the support of education, were among the arguments advanced by Stanley Judd, the leader and closing speaker for the affirmative. He summarized the arguments put forth by his associates and presented others that were very effective.

A chart showing the respective rank, present tonnage, tonnage by 1916 percent of increase, ratio of increase of the United States to other countries, the present per cent of difference, and per cent of difference in 1916 of the United States, France and Japan, was presented.

submitted by Harry Balaban, who closed the debate for the negative. He showed that the United States was already fallen to third rank, that if the United States built but one battleship a year, it would be passed by France in from three to four years, and by Japan in four to five years. He quoted statistics to show that the war debt of the United States was the smallest per capita of any of the great powers and that a generous naval policy would impose no hardship on its people. Balaban also gave an excellent summary of the arguments of his helpers.

New arguments brought out by the affirmative in the rebuttals were that no navy or army could make a prolonged attack on the coast of the United States because of a distance from the base of supplies, and that a one battleship a year program was sufficient to maintain a condition of equilibrium. Points brought out by the negative were disarmament could only logically follow a binding international agreement, and that the cost of insurance against war was but one third of that paid for fire insurance. Janesville's team will meet Racine high school to decide the championship of Wisconsin in consequence of last night's contest. The winners of this debate will meet the winner in the Illinois branch of the league.

The debate at Beloit was a spirited one and was heard by a fair-sized and enthusiastic audience. The decision was two to one in favor of the Beloit team, arguing on the affirmative, but on a percentage basis the Janesville team, composed of Dearborn, Smiley and Noyes, lost by only one point. Tower, who lead the Beloit team, was a strong man and won the decision for his school by his rebuttal argument. Olson and Garland were the other Beloit speakers.

Come to the Big Annual February Clearing Sale, expecting to save money. You won't be disappointed. T. P. Burns.

LINK AND PIN

HEAVY SNOW STORM HOLDS UP TRAFFIC

Northwestern Sends Ninety Men From Chicago and Snow Plow From Fond du Lac to Clear Local Tracks.

Extra gangs of men were employed in the local railroad yards today by both the Northwestern and St. Paul companies in an effort to clear away the heavy coating of snow and sleet which hindered traffic throughout the night. All trains were delayed and many were from forty minutes to an hour behind schedule.

Ninety men were brought from Chicago last night to aid in the work of clearing the local yards, and a snow plow used on the Wisconsin division was brought from Fond du Lac. The plow was used to clear a path for train 319, a freight which leaves early in the morning. The St. Paul has a large force of men employed sweeping the station platform. Up to a late hour the snow plow had not made its appearance. All trains that arrived were badly coated with ice and snow, this and the slippery conditions of the rails made traffic very slow.

Chicago & Northwestern. SAFETY COMMITTEE GOES TO CHICAGO ON MONDAY

Local members of the Northwestern safety committee leave for Chicago on Monday morning, where they will confer with the officials at the company's office. Their reports and suggestions have already been sent to headquarters and the division committee meets to consider with the officers the matters reported for correction. The members of this body are compelled to serve on the committee and their reports are made monthly. The Northwestern has found this system to be successful in every respect and a great deal of enthusiasm is shown by the men in the crusade against accidents for they realize that this movement is for their benefit and they are the controlling factor.

Engineer Sterrett is taking passenger number 544 which leaves for Chicago at 11:45, in place of Engineer Walsh who is laying off.

The seven-thirty switch engine is working at the yards with Engineer Coen and Fireman Mathewson as engine men.

Fireman Smith is laying off and Cole is relieving him as night shop foreman.

Most of the employees of the yards are enjoying a day's rest and only a few men were working at engine house this morning.

The Bargains of a Lifetime may be secured now at T. P. Burns' Annual February Clearing Sale.

The Rockford bunch will return the Janesville visit at the rink tonight. Two car loads are expected. A special race will be put on. Regular price, 10c and 15c.

Simple. Gabe—"Why do they say that the ghost walks on pay-day?" Steve—"Because that's the day our spirits rise."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Parcel Post Maps Free with a year's subscription to the Daily Gazette. Value of the map, $1.00. They are on sale at Baker's Drug Store and Gazette office to Gazette patrons, also at 25c, or 35c by mail.

Parcels Post Maps at Baker's

Parcels Post Maps can be secured at the Gazette branch office, Baker's Drug Store, free, by paying back subscription and a year in advance or paying another year if already paid in advance. Map price is $1.00. Sold to Gazette patrons, 25c, or by mail, 35c.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Anna Banker.
Mrs. Anna Banker, residing at the corner of South Third street and Garfield avenue, died at five o'clock this morning at the age of twenty-five years. Mrs. Banker was born in Edgerton in 1887. She leaves a husband, George Banker and three little daughters, and four brothers and three sisters. Her mother, three brothers, Frank, Henry and Herman Greeler, and two sisters, Martha and Rosa, live at Edgerton. One brother, Albert, and one sister, Clara Greeler, reside in this city. Funeral services will be conducted at the home at 9 o'clock Monday morning by Rev. T. D. Williams. The remains will be removed to Edgerton for burial.

George H. Milligan.
Funeral services for George H. Milligan were conducted by the Rev. Joseph C. Hazen, pastor of the Baptist church, at the home of Harry Look, 323 North Pearl street, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The pall bearers were William and Herbert Milligan, Forest, Benjamin and Frank Robinson and Harry Look. Burial was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Alfred Peterson.
The funeral of Alfred Peterson will be held from the undertaking parlors of D. Ryan & Sons at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. The remains will be taken from that place to the Norwegian Lutheran church, where the Rev. W. A. Johnson will conduct the burial service. Interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Vail.
Last rites for Mrs. Henry Storm will be held at the home, 606 Cherry street, at two o'clock Sunday afternoon and at St. John's German Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Vail.
The funeral of Mrs. Mary Vail, who passed away at her home in the town of Plymouth Thursday, was held at ten o'clock this morning from the Footville Catholic church. The Rev. Father McDermott celebrated high mass. The pall bearers were Edward McGuire, Patrick Knight, Edward Ward, Rupert Keegan, Frank Vail and William McGee. The body was brought to Mt. Olivet cemetery for burial.

William W. Maltby.
William W. Maltby died at his home, 409 South Bluff street, this city at one o'clock this morning. Mr. Maltby was born in Pulaski, Oswego county, New York, December 23, 1834. He moved to Beloit in 1857, later to Marathon, Iowa, and Grand Rapids, Wisconsin, coming to Janesville in 1903. Surviving him are a wife and two sons—Charles of Janesville, and Edwin of Sheridan, Wyoming. A daughter, Mrs. M. Colman, died May 26, 1909, at Ames, Iowa. Funeral services will be held at the home at ten o'clock next Monday, February 24, the Rev. T. D. Williams officiating. The remains will be taken to Beloit for burial.

Heart to Heart Talks

By JAMES A. EDGERTON

DON'T BE A BORE.
Mrs. George W. Wickersham, wife of the attorney general, recently laid down a rule for conversation.

It was to avoid the four D's: DISEASES, DESCENDANTS, DOMESTICS, DRESS.

It is a good rule for people elsewhere than in Washington.

Talk of our ailments does not interest other people.

They have ills of their own.

Tell it to the doctor.

Prattle about our children or our ancestors is usually a bore.

Tell it to the schoolteacher or the men who make ancestral trees.

Gossip about servants is a weariness.

Tell it to the employment bureau.

Pattering about clothes is lame and has other faults.

Tell it to the dressmaker.

The weather is a conversational topic is also slightly frayed, although the sunshine is a more exhilarating theme than the condition of our rivers.

Don't be a bore.

There are many friends averse to the world whom their friends avoid because their talk is so deadly dull.

Don't be a bore. Do you know what a bore is? Well, he is the chap who drives the commonplace into a corner and makes it squeal for freedom.

Everything he says has been said a million times before.

He is trite and banal and his long conversational suit is to say obvious things in an uninteresting way.

Conversation to be worth anything should have some snap, sparkle and originality.

As for topics, the world is full of them.

Talk about the latest book, something good you have seen in the papers, church, high prices, the trusts, woman suffrage, new thought, the crops, the way to boom your town or neighborhood, evolution, the pranks you played in your childhood, the latest big news event in your neck of the woods—anything except the four deadly D's and the weather.

Speed Records.

"Try as we may," says the man with the ridgescent whiskers, "we cannot produce runners who can equal the records made by those foreign contrivances. Why, here's an account of a man who made a thousand meters in—"

"Made what?"

"Made a thousand meters. You know over there they measure a race by meters, while here—"

"If I had my gas meter against all the whole foreign sporting fraternity,"—Chicago Post.

CHILD IS MYSTERY TO PSYCHOLOGISTS

Corinne Alberta Mayfield.

Denver, Colo. — Psychologists in Denver have discovered in the five-year-old daughter of A. U. Mayfield, a newspaper writer, one of the most determined subjects of the psychic mystery.

The little girl, a recognized precocious child, who delights to have her whole name pronounced—Corinne Alberta Mayfield—is all unconscious of her powers, or gift, or whatever the unnatural intuition might be termed. She has curly locks of rich Titian hair; blue eyes and fair complexion, but tells those who ask her the color of her hair that it is "Roman gold," an invention of her own in the color scheme.

When Corinne Alberta was one year old she could walk and talk. She never, like other children, prattled in "baby talk." The words as she learned them were remarkably distinct and clear-cut. This was not considered strange, as there were no other children in the family, and the parents were well past middle age when the baby came.

But the power of the child, even at the age of one year, to summon to her side the soul or spirit of a girl which Corinne Alberta always called by the name of "Maggie," was the most perplexing problem that attracted the attention of the parents.

If baby was alone and fretted, "Maggie" would come to her.

If baby was taken out in her carriage, "Maggie" would go along.

If baby was playing on the floor, or on the lawn, "Maggie" was with her.

She is not afraid in the darkest room, because she says "Maggie" is with her.

"Maggie" was the ever-companion of Corinne Alberta for nearly one year before the parents began to wonder who, or what this "Maggie" was and meant.

For a long time the parents thought the child had named one of her dolls "Maggie," and paid but little attention to the frequent reference to the name.

One day the child's father took her for a walk in one of the city parks. They were romping on the lawn, when, all at once Corinne clapped her hands and exclaimed:

"O, don't you know Maggie, my little playmate? Don't you see her there? Isn't she dear?"

"Where is she?" asked her papa.

"Why, right here by my side, hold of my hand," replied Corinne, and then as if prompted by someone, she said:

"O, daddy, of course you can't see Maggie—she says you can't 'cause she just came here to play with me."

"Where does Maggie live?" he asked.

"Why, in heaven, of course—don't you know that?" she replied, apparently very much surprised that her papa should not know about "Maggie" and her place of abode.

Asked to describe "Maggie," Corinne Alberta always talks of her as a "little baby that can talk and walk," and says that "Maggie" doesn't grow much. The mysterious little playmate is not, in the mind of the child, as large as she is, but she has golden hair and blue eyes, and "lives in heaven above the clouds."

Only once that her parents have any knowledge of, from the information of Corinne, did "Maggie" bring other spirits with her. One day Corinne was playing on the floor when "Maggie" appeared.

"O, Maggie," she exclaimed, "Who are these children you have brought with you?" Corinne then said that three other little girls had come to visit her; but so far as her parents know they never came again.

The parents do not believe in spiritualism in any way, nor in any occult mysteries known to the psychic students. They give but "little thought to the strange little visitor from 'above the clouds,' and treat the matter as being a very ordinary occurrence.

Some dependence, however, is placed in the stories told of "Maggie" by Corinne Alberta, even by the parents who have come to look upon the "little playmate" as an everyday function about the Mayfield home, at 1655 Josephine street.

The child is a natural-born artist in pencil and free-hand drawing. When she was three years old she had made dozens of sketches of human life—always tending toward the comic. She will draw a caricature of someone about the house, and then laugh as heartily as anyone over her ludicrous creation.

In her sketches Corinne Alberta always says that "Maggie" helped her. One year ago Corinne fell sick and was near death. The family physician was called and said the baby could not live. She had leakage of the heart, and the physician gave out the discouraging statement that cases are very rare where a child with this ailment ever reaches the age of maturity. Baby called her mamma to her bedside and said:

"Don't worry about me, mamma, I'm going to get well—Maggie told me so. Maggie was just here, and she's gone back to her home above the clouds gone back where God is."

And baby Corinne did get well and is fast overcoming her heart affliction. In this much the parents have faith in the assurance of "Maggie."

Leisurely.

"The hired man fell off the fence down in the meadow lot just now!"

"Had he hit the ground when you left?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CHILDREN'S EYES

Children's eyes are most delicate organs. To fit them properly with glasses takes skill and experience with the use of the Phorometer and Retinoscope you take no chances when you have me examine your children's eyes. Positively no drugs used.

JOSEPH H. SCHOLLER, Optometrist.
Office with Olin & Olson, Jewelers.

I'm going to get well—Maggie told me so. Maggie was just here, and she's gone back to her home above the clouds gone back where God is."

And baby Corinne did get well and is fast overcoming her heart affliction. In this much the parents have faith in the assurance of "Maggie."

Leisurely.

"The hired man fell off the fence down in the meadow lot just now!"

"Had he hit the ground when you left?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Read the want ads to the latest

HEALTH BETTER THAN WEALTH

Take a course of Janesville Baths and Massage to relieve almost any physical ailment. Correspondence solicited.

JANESVILLE BATHS
109 S. Main Street

When Your Watch or Clock Fails to Keep Time

bring it to me. I will put it in good order and guarantee you satisfaction.

J. J. SMITH
Master Watch Maker.
313 W. Milw. St.

The Hit of the Season

You've noticed how many more NORFOLK SUITS

You see than ever before. Better have one and keep in line. Those smartest ones you see around town are from this shop.

FORD

The OPTICAL SHOP
EVERYTHING OPTICAL
NEXT TO THE LIBRARY
Janesville, Wis.

THE FOCAL POINT
SOUTH 60 MAIN ST.

SESSING GLASSES
MAGNIFIERS
LORGNETTES
FIELD GLASSES
OPERATING GLASSES
EYE GLASSES
SPECTACLES
SUNGLASSES

Your GLASSES Are SAFE AND HANDY

When Attached to an Automatic Eye-Glass Holder.

The Holder has a chain easily drawn out and which, with a slight twitch, automatically returns to its place.

We have some 60 different styles of these holders in black enamel, white enamel, gun metal, silver and gold filled.

THE OPTICAL SHOP
EVERYTHING OPTICAL
60 SOUTH MAIN ST.
NEXT TO THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY
JANESVILLE, WIS.

MRS. WORRY.

BY C. A. VOIGHT

Sport Snap Shots

By Dad McCoy

Fight promoters and fans agree that Gunboat Smith is the man to give Bombardier Wells the English heavy-weight champ, his first tryout in this country on his present visit here. If Wells can administer a decisive beating to Smith then he will be a great drawing card in a battle with McCarty. Though regarded as a second-rater, Smith is a pretty tough proposition. He is more than ordinarily clever, is game, and can hit a pretty tough poke.

Willie Hoppe is still the king of billiards. His work during the billiard tournament and since proves that he has lost none of his cunning and that he is in a class by himself. Hoppe broke into the limelight when a boy in short trousers, and captured the championship when 17 years old. He is still young and his present position seems secure for years to come.

Phil Brock, the Cleveland lightweight, has an offer to engage in a bout at Windsor, Ont., but his prospective opponent has not been named. Phil says he is ready to take on any lightweight in the country, the weight to be 133 to 135 pounds.

Battling Nelson is the marvel of the ring. Though he has been in the fight game seventeen years, during which time he has amassed a big fortune, he still keeps coming back, and of late has been fighting at least once a week. He has not been meeting topnotchers, but he has been going up against tough local boys, in almost every instance cleaning up a nice little war for himself. Nelson's friends have repeatedly urged him to quit and go into business, but he only grins. Neither does he listen to the pleadings of his wife, who'd like to have him say goodbye to the arena.

A Paris club has offered Jack Dillon three fights in the French capital, one with the winner of the Papke-King on March 5. Dillon will accept the offer if furnished two round trip tickets.

Jeff Tesreau, one of the pitchers of the New York Giants, may be expected to work like a fiend this summer. He has the promise of Miss Clara Young of Perryville, Mo., to become his bride if he maintains his standard of last season.

Miss Young is the daughter of a one-time sheriff of Iron County, Mo., and is a telephone operator at Perryville. She is an enthusiastic follower of baseball.

Norman Selby, whom we know in the old days as "Kid McCoy," is to become an evangelist. He will preach the gospel of health from public forums. The "kid" has a wonderful flow of language, as is shown by the following utterance, which fell recently from his lips:

"Just as streams and rivulets flow finally down to mother ocean so I believe that the spirits of mankind flow ultimately to the father spirit and gather about him."

If the salary one gets is a true proof of worth, then President Taft will be just a little more valuable to Yale University when he gets to teaching there than Coach Jones. Taft is to receive $5,000 a year; Jones, $4,000. Coach Jones has been five years out of college, while Professor Taft has a thirty-six year record as a distinguished alumnus and master of law.

JANESVILLE EASILY DEFEATS FORT TEAM

Machine-Like Playing of Local High School Five is Invincible to Fort Atkinson Boys.

Playing a superior game in every respect the Janesville high school basketball team vanquished their rivals from Fort Atkinson by the score of 54 to 6 last night at the high school gym. The local high school played rings around their opponents and at no time in the game did the Fort team even approach the locals in any department of playing. Janesville's team work was excellent and floor work flawless. The Fort Atkinson players made a willing team but lacked ability to stem the rush of the Janesville team. The victory by such a one-sided score brings added satisfaction to the high school fans because of the Fort's great football ability and in the past the red and white team has always won at this game.

Captain Falter played spectacular ball for his close guarding and passing kept the Fort boys from scoring. Stewart was played in Edler's place the first half demonstrating that the high school is well equipped with efficient subs. Edler played the last half but he with the rest did not exert themselves. The only defect in the high school playing was the missing of easy baskets.

Fort Atkinson showed very little good basketball ability and were greatly inclined to hold and play the man instead of the ball a practice which made certain their defeat. Their playing was rugged and their basket shooting was so far behind the Janesville team that it was one novelty of the game when the Fort scored a basket.

The game was more interesting than the score indicates because of Janesville's fine work and the Fort's willingness to fight their hardest in spite of the fact that they were hopelessly outclassed. Owens and Hoard were the best that the Fort had. Owens was the only man that bothered the locals to hold him from shooting. Hoard made the only exciting play for his team when he scored a field basket from the center of the floor.

Summary.

Janesville	F.G.	F.T.	F.C.
Atwood, R. F.	2	0	0
Dillon, L. F.	10	0	1
Hemming, C.	5	0	1
Edler, L. G.	2	0	0
Stewart, L. G.	0	0	0
Capt. Falter, R. G.	3	0	0
Totals	26	2	2

Fort Atkinson	F.G.	F.T.	F.C.
Owens, L. F.	1	0	1
Holgren, R. F.	6	0	0
Beech, C.	0	0	2
Snider, R. G.	1	0	0
Hoard, L. G.	1	0	0
Grafer, C.	0	0	0
Totals	9	0	3

Referee—Minstrell of Jefferson.

TENNIS CHAMP IN DAVIS CUP MATCHES

Maurice E. McLaughlin and Thomas C. Bundy, the California lawn tennis players, holders of national singles and doubles titles, have been asked to prepare for the next Davis cup single and double matches. These contests probably will be held during July in England, as that country now holds possession of the trophy. McLaughlin probably will be able to make the trip, but Bundy is not so sure about his ability to spare the time required. I case they compete they will meet the most famous players in the world.

FRICITION MAY KILL TIGERS' CHANCES; PLAYERS TO SULK IN COBB GETS RAISE

Baseball conditions in Detroit just now are not such as to cause pangs of joy and thanksgiving to bubble to the lips of Owner Navin and Manager Jennings of the Tigers. Whatever chances the Detroit club might have otherwise are likely to be killed by friction within the ranks. Navin has intimated that if Cobb gets his desired raise, the other salaries will remain stationary. Such a policy, it followed, would make some players sore. Among those who will sulk if they get the raise he wants are Oscar Stange, George Moriarty, Edgar Willets and Sam Crawford.

"JASPER" PLEASES TAFT; SCIENTISTS ALSO INTERESTED AND WILL INVESTIGATE

On President Taft's recent return from his Panama canal trip, one of the few visitors he received was "Jasper," a wonderful dog that has puzzled many of the great scientists of the world. Jasper can do anything but talk. At the command of his master he gave Mr. Taft the mason's grip and did many other strange things that greatly amused the president. His performance was also witnessed by Justice Day of the supreme court and John Hays Hammond. Previous to his visit to the white house, Jasper visited Cardinal Gibbons at his home in Baltimore and astonished that dignified prelate by his intelligence. Smithsonian Institution scientists are to investigate Jasper's wonderful doings.

CENTRAL BASEBALL

LEAGUE WILL MEET

President Heilbroner and Nearly All Club Owners at Indianapolis To Adopt Schedule.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 22.—President Heilbroner and nearly all of the club owners of the Central League are on hand in anticipation of the league meeting here tomorrow. The meeting will adopt a playing schedule and dispose of other business preliminary to the beginning of the training season. The rearrangement of the circuit consequent upon the breaking up of the twelve-club organization of last season has imposed a difficult task upon the managers. It is their unanimous opinion, however, that good financial results will follow the shortening of the circuit by letting the cities of the eastern end go to the new Interstate League and retaining the others so as to form a compact circuit with comparatively short jumps. Unless South Bend is successful in its efforts to get back into the league the circuit will consist of six clubs. With the exception of Evansville, which has been given the South Bend franchise, all of the clubs are practically ready to start the season. The managers in charge are Jimmy Burke, Fort Wayne; Johnny New, Dayton; Ed Smith, Grand Rapids; J. E. Anderson, Terre Haute; and Joe Stanley, Springfield. The tentative schedule provides for a season of 140 games, opening April 23 and closing September 7.

WISCONSIN CINCHES BASKETBALL TITLE

Defeat of Illinois in Friday's Game Gives Badgers Undisputed Supremacy.

Madison, Feb. 22.—The Badgers clinched their claim to the big basketball title when they defeated Illinois their only rival for the honors in a fast contest before five thousand rooters last night. The score was 18 to 13. The game marked twenty-six straight victories for Wisconsin.

The score at the end of the first half was 12 to 5 in favor of Wisconsin. The summaries:

Wisconsin—Berger, r. f.; Johnson, l. f.; Van Gent center; Harper, r. g.; Van Riper, l. g.

Illinois—Kircher, r. f.; Whitford, l. f.; Dahrenger, center; White, r. g.; Hoffman, l. g.

Substitutes: Illinois—Comstock, for Kircher. Field goals—Wisconsin, Johnson, 1; Berger, 1; Van Gent, 2; Harper, 3; Illinois, White 2; Whitford 1. Free throws—Wisconsin, Johnson 2; Illinois, Dahrenger, 7. Referee—

CARDINALS WIN OUT

IN ONE-SIDED GAME

Defeat Milwaukee Team by Score of 29 to 11 in Listless Contest Friday Night.

Janesville Cardinals defeated the champions of Milwaukee by the score of 29 to 11, at the rink last night. The game was decidedly uninteresting and if this team is the best that the Cream City can produce, Janesville could defeat them all without undue exertion. The game was poorly attended because of the disagreeable weather and drew the smallest crowd ever present at any basketball game at the rink.

The Janesville team did not play with any vim because of the weak opposition. Greene and Cunningham starred for the locals, Greene scoring eight baskets and holding his man basketless. The first half the Milwaukee team did show a little ability and the score at the end of this period was 15 to 7. The second half was nothing but a slaughter, for the Lakotas scored basket after basket while their opponents only scored four points. The game was tiresome as the visitors were far outclassed and the locals were tired of shooting baskets they dribbled and passed the ball in circles around their rivals.

Summary.

Janesville Cardinals—Cunningham, r. f.; Green, l. f.; Wilkinson, c.; Langdon, r. g.; Brown and Booth, l. g.

Milwaukee Hawks—Grote, r. f.; Gribbner, l. f.; Wilson, c.; Hubernal, r. g.; O'Connor, l. g.

Field Baskets—Green, 6; Wilkinson, 3; Langdon, 1; Cunningham, 3; Grote, 2; Wilson, 1; Hubernal, 2.

Foul Goals—Grote, Wilkinson, Cunningham and Green, 1.

Referee—Koch.

The Rockford bunch will return the Janesville visit at the rink tonight. Two car loads are expected. A special race will be put on. Regular price, 10c and 15c.

Race at the Rink tonight. Two car loads from Rockford expected. Come and enjoy the fun. Admission, 10c and 15c.

Unappreciated Ardo. "Darling!" he cried, passionately, throwing himself upon his knees before her and rolling up his eyes toward the chandelier, "darling, can you not see, can you not guess that I love you?" "Well," she replied, coolly, gazing at the disheveled youth on the rug, "I'd hate to think that this was just your natural way of behaving in company."

Read the ads and find out what bargain and save a month's rent.

THIS ADVERTISEMENT IS ADDRESSED TO Prospective Motor Car Buyers

You, the man who is going to buy a motor car this spring, want the best your money will buy; that's natural. Furthermore, you have a good many ideas on what horsepower, cylinder, stroke, type of body, etc., that you want. We've arranged our line of cars for 1913 so that any idea of a motor car that you may have can be filled here. We are agents for this fine line of cars:

- OVERLAND AT $985 AND HIGHER
- LITTLE "4" AT $698
- LITTLE "6" AT $1285
- NATIONAL AT $3150
- STANLEY STEAMER AT $1660
- RAMBLER AT $1875
- BORLAND ELECTRIC AT $2250 TO $2500
- HERRESHOFF AT $1250 TO $1850
- STURDY STUTZ AT AT $2000 AND HIGHER
- SERVICE MOTOR TRUCKS AT $1250 AND HIGHER
- INTERNATIONAL TRUCKS AT $950

In addition to these cars, we carry the largest line of tires in Southern Wisconsin. Get our prices. More and better accessories here at reasonable prices than anywhere else.

JANESVILLE MOTOR CO.

27-29 So. Main St.

THE BIG GARAGE.

Both Phones.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-204 E. Milwaukee St.
 ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE,
 WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.
 MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATUR-DAY EVENING.

WEATHER FORECAST.
 North winds and colder tonight;
 Sunday fair.

Daily Edition by Carrier. $ .50
 One Month. . . . . $ 5.00
 One Year, cash in advance. . . . . $ 50.00
 Six Months, cash in advance. . . . . $ 25.00
 Daily Edition by Mail.
 CASH IN ADVANCE.
 One Year. . . . . $4.00
 Six Months. . . . . $2.00
 One Year, Rural Delivery in Rock Co. $5.00
 Six Months, Rural Delivery in Rock Co. $2.50
 WEEKLY EDITION—One Year. . . . . $1.50
 TELEPHONE RATES.
 Editorial Rooms, Rock Co. . . . . 62
 Editorial Rooms, Bell. . . . . 76
 Business Office, Rock Co. . . . . 77-2
 Business Office, Bell. . . . . 77-2
 Printing Department, Bell. . . . . 77-4
 Printing Department, Rock Co. . . . . 77-4
 Rock County files can be interchanged for all departments.
 GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For the general information of the public, a charge is made for insertion of the following items in The Gazette: Cards of Thanks. Resolutions. Obituaries. Line rate 12c—six words to the line. There is no charge for death notices and the facts regarding the life of the deceased. Obituary notices sent in days or weeks afterward are charged for at line rates. There is no charge for one insertion of lodge, church, society or other organization meeting notices. Additional insertions will be charged at line rates. To avoid mistakes, etc., these notices must be written out and mailed or handed into the editorial rooms not later than the morning of day for publication.

Letters mailed to the Gazette should bear 2c postage stamps. 10 stamp is not sufficient and the letter will be held for postage by the post office unless 2c in stamps are attached.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

The following story was a prize-winner, in the American Magazine. It is well worth reading.

"I have always wished that I might have the opportunity to tell of this wonderful man, the noblest man I ever knew."

"My first remembrance of him was seeing him come from the newspaper office where he worked and pat a tow-headed newsboy on the head as this gamin of the street smiled up at him. The two trudged away together, and, my curiosity urging me on, I followed."

"They presently came to a shabby little cottage on a side street, where, waiting at the gate, was a crippled boy of thirteen; one boy, with an arm gone, pored over a book, on the tiny porch, one hoed potatoes in the side yard, while another cut wood briskly in the back."

"Queer calls and whistles greeted the arrival of the newcomers, and the lame one was shouldered and carried in."

"Two years before this man, only a short while out of college, with a remarkable record behind him and ahead of him ambitious plans to be carried out, was told by a world's authority on the subject that he had an incurable cancer."

"Knowing that he probably had six to eight years ahead of him, and that life could never again be for him very gay, he determined that he would put as much joy in other lives as possible. From that day he became famous for his gaiety and good humor."

"Coming home from some late affair one night, he found sleeping in a doorway a lame newsboy that was homeless. After that he shared his rooms with this little chap."

"This was the beginning of the happy little home I found by chance that afternoon. One by one he found it necessary to take them in, for, as he said, 'there was nothing else to do.'"

"By day he worked in the hot, close office. By night he trained his boys. He had to start at the beginning, patiently teaching them to apply themselves and learn their A-B-C's, instilling into their lives some of his youthful ambitions, molding their characters, and yet never pushing them, for this he knew would be fatal. He was their pal, never their critic."

"It took much planning to keep so big a family on so small a salary, much tact and kindness to keep them from letting the harder job of education go and enjoying only the more pleasant one of being housed and fed, but he kept at it cheerfully, and all stayed on but one, who 'flew the coop,' as the others put it."

"Thus he struggled on till each boy was prepared for college or the business world; then his tired body relaxed, and the boys knew for the first time that a horrible disease had been the enemy of their jolly comrades for many years, and that most of this time he had been in great pain."

"He had, before he died, the reward of seeing one of his boys enter Johns Hopkins, another studying law at a noted university, and the other two trusted bank clerks."

"He was neither rich nor famous, but in his quiet way he was a noble man—the noblest I ever knew."

"He gave to the world four clean, good men that he had rescued from the streets where they were exposed to every temptation, and he desired no other reward than that they should succeed."

Nothing spectacular about that kind of a hero. No great deed of daring, calling for a Carnegie medal; but just one of God's patient saints, crowned this side the pearly gates.

The statement is often made that if we could read our future, and know to a certainty what it held in store for us, in the way of suffering and sorrow, and especially if this knowledge included the final tragedy which comes to every life, that the number of suicides would be multiplied many fold, while insanity would be a common heritage.

This is doubtless true, and for this reason, if for no other, it is well for us that the curtain which hides the future is so impenetrable that no eye can fathom it.

There comes a time, of course, to the people who live out on the margin of time, when it is natural to forecast events, and anticipate the end of the journey, and yet the old man at eighty, possessed of all his faculties, is as eager for prolonged existence as the man at forty.

Out in a western city, one bright day in December, the little plaza in the heart of the town was thronged with people of all ages, and from all parts of the country. They were victims of the white plague in every stage of the disease, strangers, away from home and friends, the most forlorn little company that ever assembled, and yet, every last one of them was inspired with hope, and firm in the belief that the wonderful climate would soon restore them to health.

This marvelous faculty called hope, the soul's sheet anchor, holds humanity steady, and rescues many victims from impending danger. It is the great motive power which fires the will to action, and in many cases, the last straw which determines destiny.

An old physician, returning from a vacation, met a man on the street whom he had given up to die, just before leaving home. He said, in his surprise, "You haven't any business to be on earth. I supposed you had been walking the golden streets for a month or more." His old patient laughed and said, "I just thought I'd fool you and get well, and I did." He breathes vitality, at every pore, and when backed by the will, often accomplishes results which border on the supernatural.

But the man of the story was deprived of hope. He was in the flush of vigorous manhood, with a time limit placed on his career, which would have caused many a heart to die in despair. The struggle which brought him out of the fiery ordeal, when his fate first dawned upon him, is not a matter of record. It was a heart to heart conflict in a realm too sacred to be invaded.

He fought the great fight with himself and won, and with the dying of hope, and the blotting out of cherished ambitions, and all that he held dear, dawned the birth of a new purpose, and out of the white heart of supreme sacrifice came a soul in sympathy with suffering humanity, equipped for the highest order of service.

This is a world of contrasts, and many of us would like to change positions with people whom we imagine are better off. These desires sometimes ripen into envy, and the same sort of covetousness which troubled the family of the old patriarch, Jacob, often develops.

Much of the unrest which disturbs the nation today is due to this spirit of envy, engendered by contrast. Many of us want the prizes of life, without paying the price.

It is a popular heresy, made popular by familiar and oft-repeated quotation, that "all men are born free and equal." The freedom part of the proposition may justify itself, in this land of universal liberty, but the problem of equality is as far from solution today as ever.

The theory is popular, with some writers, that genius is simply another name for hard, persistent work, and that what one man has accomplished, in any given field of toil, any other man may accomplish, if he will.

That's a more crazy notion than the freedom and equality business and the teaching of either does more harm than good. There are some things which come to us, in the way of talents, by the right of inheritance, and they can not be successfully ignored.

"Back of the trained voice, which holds us entranced, is the child's lullaby, which the mother and teacher recognized, long before the training commenced. To say that every voice can be trained to duplicate it, in richness and melody, is too absurd a proposition for discussion."

What is true of the voice, is true in many other realms, where a few people excel because of native talent usually called genius. The great orators, the great inventors and discoverers, the great financiers, and in fact the great leaders in all channels of the world's activities, wear the birthmark of genius.

The boy who aspires to be president, because his mother told him that his chances were good, draws a blank in the lottery of life.

But the field of contrast has a wider range than the high peaks, which are so far beyond the grasp of the average mortal, that no time is wasted in lofty aspirations.

The most of us live out existence in the narrow environment shut in by the horizon within the range of natural vision. The envies and petty jealousies of life which annoy us, are shared by the people we know.

The prejudices we entertain against the Morgans and Rockefellers, are difficult to define, because we have no personal grievance. It's the neighbor across the street, or in the next block, who runs an automobile, and lives in better style, who annoys us. We would like to have his income and enjoy the luxuries which he enjoys.

There is one class of people in every community who are never objects of envy. They are the sufferers, doomed to go through life deprived of many of its pleasures, and bearing burdens which tax endurance to the limit. Many of them are patient victims, as heroic in spirit as the hero of the story.

found that we never attempt to solve them. Many of us garner rewards, in rich abundance, by the way, while others find their only comfort in the hope of immortality, and reward in the life beyond.

ON A SPUR OF THE MOMENT

The Food Curfew. Abijah Blinks was noted for his great array of wealth;

In fact he had most everything except perfect health. Long years ago the doctors said that he was doomed to die.

And nothing seemed to do him good, no matter what he'd try. He left off eating anything excepting breakfast food.

He never tackled corn beef hash or anything so rude. A pancake made him turn away in horror and disgust.

To starve himself to death to live, it seemed Abijah must.

His liver was all out of whack, his nerves were all askew. Dyspepsia racked his feeble frame, no matter what he'd do.

He tried mud baths and went abroad to take a famous cure. But still he kept on fading in a manner slow but sure.

He licked up patent medicines for twenty years or more. Until he felt just like he was a corner druggist's store.

He ate so much digested food, he often used to say. He somehow felt that he was just a walking bale of hay.

With all his wealth, life held but naught for this old man forlorn; He often wished that he was dead or never had been born.

One melancholy day he thought his own life he would take; His suicide should come about by eating sirloin steak.

He ate a nice big juicy one and laid him down to die. But got up feeling quite refreshed and then he tackled pie.

The pie refused to take him off and in a frenzied mood. He ate a can of pork and beans and quit his breakfast food.

For seven weeks, he tried and tried to kill himself that way; He kept on growing heavier and each succeeding day.

He took a dose of hardy food that was a little worse; But e'en sauerkraut and pickled tripe refused to call the hearse.

At last he gave up in despair for he was growing fat. He kept on eating fendish things and then decided that.

If he must live, he'd do it right and eat whatever he liked. And seven doctors gave him up and packed their kits and hiked.

This happened many years ago, and Big is eighty-one. And feels just like a kid whose life has just begun.

From the Hickoryville Clarion. Lem Higgins says as how he hopes the new Democratic administration will make the postal cards bigger and give the public their money's worth.

A feller can't write more'n half what he wants to on the kind we git now. It beats all how much sleep a five-month-old kid can go without. Late Purdy's youngest has yelled twenty-four hours a day ever since he was born and has got both his parents tuckered out.

By the time a new congressman gets next to the crooks and turns of the job a grateful consistency sends somebody to take his place. They have got every sort of stunt in vaudeville now except a one-armed man hookin' his wife up the back.

A feller has got to go a long ways to find a mere filin' and cheaper food than buckwheat pancakes. After eating about eighteen or twenty of 'em a feller kin worry along until noon, anyhow.

It seems as though a feller never gets enough money to take a vacation until he is too old to enjoy it, and would rather stick around home. A woman kin wear thin hie stockings and low summer shoes all winter and still be very comfortable if she has got a $200 set of furs.

A good baseball player kin make more money than a college professor and have a lot more fun while he is doin' it.

One way to git ahead is to drink a lot of champagne before retiring. The trouble with most brands of soup is that they don't match a feller's shirtfront.

Uncle Bushrod Peeler, aged ninety-six, is over to our town from West Hickoryville, visiting his grandfather, who is not in a very robust state of health just at present, having been knocked insensible by a large log which he was putting on top of a pile the other day. The old man is always glad to see Bushrod as the latter is his favorite grandchild, although he often says he don't know as he is bringin' Bushrod up right. Bushrod has got seventeen grandchildren of his own. The old man never found out that Bushrod smoked until one day last summer and he was so sore about it that he knocked Bushrod down three times with a neck yoke.

The old man said kids like Bushrod are mighty ornamental these days. No member of the Peeler family has died a natural death in fifteen generations and the old man is afraid Bushrod will learn to smoke cigarettes. It must be force to have so much longevity as the old man has got when the cost of livin' is so high.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I sit still and keep right cool; I know my business and I'm no fool. My wife's got a good job teaching school. So I don't care.

Let other folks to their labors go. I don't care. Out in the cold and the sleet and snow.

I don't care. Let others all get out and bustle. And sweat and sweat and toil and tussle.

I never exercise a muscle. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I shake Dull Care with a snappy jerk. I greet hard times with a happy snirk. I love to see my dear wife work. So I don't care.

Mothers Can Safely Buy Dr. King's New Discovery and give it to the little ones when ailing and suffering with colds, coughs, throat or lung troubles, tastes nice, harmless, once used, always used. Mrs. Bruce Crawford, Niagara, Mo., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery changed our boy from a pale weak sick boy to the picture of health." Always helps. Buy it at People's Drug Co.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Let others satisfy ambition. I'm satisfied with my ambition, I don't care. I would not elevate my station; I do not seek emancipation. All I want's my daily ration. And I don't care.

CHORUS. I don't care, I don't care. I don't care. I don't care.

Janesville Typewriter Emporium
 Bell phone 13
 413 Jackson Bldg.

Dictaphone Display at Janesville Electric Co.'s Office,
 One week only beginning

FEB. 24th.
 Office managers and stenographers should not fail to see the Dictaphone in operation.

Dictate to the Dictaphone.

MYERS THEATRE

March 5th

ONE NIGHT OF MUSIC

Original Company

of 100

now playing at the Colonial, Chicago.

Seat sale Saturday, March 3, 9 A. M. Mail orders now filled when accompanied by check or money order.

PRICES—First 8 rows orchestra, $2.00; balance orchestra, $1.50; First 2 rows balcony, $1.50; next 4 rows balcony, $1.00; last 4 rows balcony, 75c; gallery, 50c; box seats $2.

THE ROSE MAID

With Dainty MIZZI HAJOS AL SHEAN and that Wonderful Chorus.

Myers Theatre

THREE (3) DAYS BEGINNING

Monday, Feb. 24th

MATINEE DAILY AT 2:30.

THE JUNGLE FILM CO., PRESENTS THE

Paul J. Rainey

African Hunt

The Most Marvelous Motion Pictures Ever Taken.

A $250,000 PRODUCTION

Graphically Described by an Interesting Lecture.

6 Months at the LYCEUM THEATRE, New York City.

PRICES: Matinee, 15c, 25c; Evening, 25c, 35c, 50c. Seats now on sale.

DANIEL FROHMAN PRESENTS

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt

And Her All Star Company, in the Great Spectacular Photo-Play

"QUEEN ELIZABETH"

One of the Strongest Stories History has Ever Recorded

IN FOUR PARTS

"History repeats itself," but never has this aged truism been so convincingly sustained as in BERNHARDT'S interpretation of the Famous Virgin Queen, Elizabeth. Her marvelous intelligence and astounding dramatic powers make the historical incidents in the play as real as today, and her faithful delineation of the Lonely Queen makes the original live again. All the passion and pathos of Elizabeth's life and love, all her pride and vanity and the smiles and sorrows of her mingled fortunes throb and thrill in the compelling realism and magnetic mastery of Bernhardt's art. The flame of her genius has been breathed into the dust of Elizabeth, and the thrilling page of history that she wrote in blood and tears is enacted before us with all the characters as much alive as the reader.

SARAH BERNHARDT is all life and its struggles and yearnings concentrated in a marvelous representation of "Queen Elizabeth" in the silent but eloquent drama of that name. Science has made Sarah Bernhardt's genius truly immortal and assures posterity the perpetuation of her art.

Thursday, Feb. 27,
 At Majestic, 3 reels, 10c.

"The Peril of the Plains"

A stirring Western drama that has won praise from the most critical.

Saturday, March 1,
 At Majestic, 2 reels, 5c.

"The Mirage"

A Union Feature produced by Paris Belair, which guarantees its value.

Monday, March 3,
 At Majestic, 3 reels 10c.

Lyric Theatre, Tuesday, February 25

ALL SEATS 10c.

Founders' Day at Johns Hopkins. Baltimore, Md., Feb. 22.—The thirty seventh anniversary of the founding of Johns Hopkins University was celebrated at the university today with an interesting program of exercises. Dr. William H. Welch presided and Dr. Samuel C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina, delivered the principal address.

UNUSUAL PICTURES

The following special feature films are all well worth seeing, and bear our guarantee.

Monday, Feb. 24,
 At Lyric, 2 reels, 5c.

"The Reincarnation of Karma"

The fascinating story of a beautiful enchantress, and of a priest's curse lingering through reincarnation.

Tuesday, Feb. 25,
 At Lyric, 4 reels, 10c.

Sarah Bernhardt in "Queen Elizabeth"

When the Spanish Armada lay in the Thames threatening to destroy England body and soul, Elizabeth and her court anxiously awaited news of the impending battle at Plymouth. The long night of sorrow and suspense is past at last, and the news of the ruin of the Spanish fleet is followed by a wild gaiety and jubilation.

At the time of this scene in "Queen Elizabeth" Robert Devereaux, Earl of Essex, is the acknowledged favorite of the Queen and the pampered pet of her court. A new Lord Lieutenant is to be appointed to Ireland, and Essex

I Drill and Fill Your Teeth Absolutely Without Pain.

And prove to you that this thing can be done, before I ask you to pay me a cent.

I use this very latest method now being demonstrated to the Profession all over the United States.

It will entirely revolutionize Dentistry.

Should I fail to do as above stated, you do not owe me a dollar.

Ask me for the Painless Work.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS
PAINLESS DENTIST.
Office Over Hall & Sayles.

ECONOMIZE

By laying aside a small sum from your wages each pay day.

Have a bank account where you can get in the habit of depositing regularly.

This bank accepts deposits of any amount from one dollar up in its Savings Department. We pay 3% interest.

The First National Bank.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

Woman's History Club meet at two o'clock Saturday at Library Hall.

Paid advertisement: written and authorized by Charles L. Fifield, Janesville, Wis.; amount paid, 50c each insertion.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCK CO.
I respectfully ask your support for the office of believing that my judicial experience for the past 14 years, qualifies me to fill that position.

COUNTY JUDGE

CHARLES L. FIFIELD.

WALL PAPERS

We have a special paper for every room in the house from the bath room to the parlor.

We will be pleased to have you come in and see our new patterns.

BLOEDEL & RICE
The Main Street Painters.

W. H. BLAIR, ARCHITECT

424 Hayes Block

WOMAN'S HISTORY CLUB
HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Woman's History Club met this afternoon in Library hall at 2:30 o'clock. The program opened with Current Events, given by Prof. Vey, of Beloit College. The topic of the day was "Occupation of the Plains from Arizona to Montana." The first paper was read by Mrs. J. M. Laughlin on the real significance of the civil war in Kansas, followed by a paper on Colorado. The Plateau and Interior Basin given by Mrs. Leavitt.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Rose Maid Coming: Campbell Casad advance manager for the Rose Maid, arrived in the city today and closed a contract with Manager Myers of the Myers Theatre for the production of the musical comedy now playing at the Colonial theatre, Chicago, for the evening of March 8th. The company carries one hundred persons and their own orchestra with them.

Improve Tool: The firemen at the west side station have added to their own construction which may prove very useful in the future. It consists of a curved section of iron pipe about seven feet long to one end of which is attached a standard brass nozzle. This can be put down underneath a floor and direct water against a fire which the firemen would not be able to approach in any other way.

Rent New Hall: The W. C. T. U. has rented the West Side Odd Fellows hall where their meetings will be held the first and third Wednesday afternoon of each month. These are always open to the public and women interested in temperance and child culture, the betterment of our homes and city, are invited. The next meeting will be a mothers' meeting, March 5.

Associated Charities: There will be a meeting of the Associated Charities Monday afternoon at three o'clock at the city hall.

Service Pipe: A service pipe leading into the Wright block facing North Jackson street, burst some time late yesterday and city workmen were obliged to clean out the gutters in haste to prevent the escaping water from overflowing the walks.

Want Ads are money savers.

Buy it in Janesville.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR A MID-WINTER FAIR

JANESVILLE MERCHANTS LIBERAL IN THEIR ASSIGNMENT OF PRIZES.

CLASSES DESIGNATED

Exhibit Opens on Morning of March 4th and Continues Until March 8th.

In years gone by the Janesville mid-winter fair attracted the attention of the whole of Southern Wisconsin. Last year the exhibits were so excellent and attracted so much attention, hundreds visiting the exhibit during the days it was in operation, that it will be repeated again this year.

Secretary F. E. Lane of the Commercial club which has the event in charge, announces the prizes to be awarded in the various classes. The conditions as to the entries and also an entry blank are furnished with the article.

Janesville Machine Company will hold open house all during mid-winter fair week and all visitors are cordially invited to visit and inspect their plant. They will also exhibit and demonstrate a cultivator at the Auditorium.

The Rules.
The Janesville mid-winter fair will be held at the Janesville Auditorium, South River street, March 4 to 8 inclusive.

There are many more prizes and better prizes this year than last. Competition will be restricted to farmers and members of farmers' families. Citizens of Janesville are barred from competition.

Entries must be made on or before Monday, March 3, and all articles must be in place at the Auditorium before Tuesday noon, March 4, and cannot be removed before Saturday noon, March 8th.

All grains and tobacco must be of the 1912 crop and shall not be artificially bleached, clipped, polished or otherwise manipulated.

Entries will be free. All goods exhibited will be scored by experts in each department.

Culinary exhibits should be accompanied by price tickets if sale is desired. Special daily program will be announced in daily papers.

Entries should be made by mail as soon as possible to Frank E. Lane, Secretary Commercial Club, Room 411, Jackson building, Janesville, Wis.

GRAIN AND TOBACCO

Best Ten Ears Wisconsin No. 7 White Dent.

First—Plush robe. John C. Nichols Harness Mfg. Co.
Second—$5.00 in trade. Schaller & McKee.

Third—One gallon paint. S. Hutchins & Sons.
Fourth—One sack flour. F. L. Wilbur.

Best Ten Ears Any Variety White Dent.

First—$10 painting job. Janesville Carriage Works.
Second—One ton coal. Brittingham & Hixon.

Third—One Stetson hat. Amos Reiberg & Co.
Fourth—Set horse shoes. J. Gardner Blacksmith Shop.

Best Ten Ears Golden Glow.

First—Silver cup. Olin & Olson.
Second—One hat. T. J. Ziegler Clothing Company.

Third—500 letterheads or business cards. Journal office.
Fourth—Year's subscription Janesville Daily Recorder.

Best Ten Ears Wisconsin No. 8.

First—Pair woolen blankets. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
Second—$3 hat. T. J. Ziegler Clothing Company.

Third—$2.50 seeds. Janesville Floral Company.
Fourth—One framed picture. Carl W. Diehl.

Best Ten Ears Yellow, Any Variety.

First—One ton coal. Janesville Coal Company.
Second—$2.50 seeds. Janesville Floral Company.

Third—Tobacco jar. Badger Drug Co.
Fourth—$1.00 in trade. Wear-U-Well Shoe Co.

Best Single Ear, Any Variety.

First—One pair shoes. Golden Eagle.
Second—Two seats. Myers Opera House.

Third—Pair auto snow boots. Janesville Motor Co.
Fourth—One cap. S. D. Grubb.

Best Bushel, 50 Ears Yellow, Any Variety.

First—Fanning mill. Nitscher Implement Co.
Second—One-half ton buckwheat feed. Blodgett Milling Co.

Third—50 Exceptional cigars. J. Stern.
Fourth—Whip. Frank Sadler.

Best Bushel, 50 Ears White, Any Variety.

First—Silver cup. Gazette Printing Co.
Second—Pair shoes. Golden Eagle.

Third—Umbrella. Archie Reid & Co.
Fourth—One hat. Miesel Clothing Co.

Best Ten Ears Flint Corn.

First—Copper wash boiler. $4.50. H. L. McNamara.
Second—Pair shoes. Brown Bros.

Third—Roast beef. J. F. Schaefer.
Best Ten Ears Evergreen Sweet Corn.

First—Lisk roaster. F. Sheldon & Co.
Second—One pump. George & Clemens.

Third—Ham roast pork. A. G. Metzinger.
Best Bushel Wisconsin Pedigree Barley.

First—20 rods wire fencing. Frank Douglas.
Second—One-half bushel alfalfa seed. Olds Seed Co.

Third—Buggy tire setting. E. J. Howland.
Best Ten Ears Popcorn, Any Variety.
First—Pair shoes. D. J. Luby & Co.
Second—Silver spoon. Doane Bros.
Third—Sack flour. Janesville Tea Co.

(Continued on page 6.)

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. M. Bostwick Jr., Miss Kittie Shields and Miss Nellie Leahy, returned last evening after a two weeks' stay in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, 321 N. Jackson street, announce the arrival of a son born February 21, weighing seven pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawson spent the week end in Chicago.

Word received from Mrs. P. L. Munger, who is at a sanitarium at Kirksville, Mo., says that she is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Minnie Tucker, Cornelia street, is in a serious condition as the result of a stroke of paralysis suffered last night. Her mother, Mrs. John Stanton, is also seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. O. Baker is confined to her home on Cornelia street with an attack of the grippe.

M. S. Leavitt of Beloit had business here yesterday.

Miss Pearl Godfrey of Rockford was in the city last evening.

F. E. Andrews of Eau Claire was registered at the Myers hotel yesterday.

R. F. Thompson of Racine was in Janesville for a few hours on Friday.

Adam Node of Rochelle, Ill., was in the city yesterday.

J. E. Litz was here from Stoughton on a business trip Friday.

C. R. Youngblood of Anawa was a recent caller in Janesville.

H. C. Taylor of Orfordville was in Janesville, Friday.

L. E. Scott, a Stanley resident, spent a few hours in the city yesterday afternoon.

R. E. Loveland of Mineral Point called on friends here yesterday.

M. C. Douglas was among the Monroe people who were in Janesville on Friday.

H. G. Plumb was here from Shullsburg yesterday afternoon.

Donald Korst is spending the week end at his parents' home.

D. Dickson of Beloit College is spending the day with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rutter returned to Janesville last night after a two weeks' vacation in the southern states.

Frank Sutherland, student at Beloit College, is here for over Sunday at his home.

H. W. Gohannet of Monroe, who is grand regent of the Royal Arcanum, spent yesterday and last night in this city transacting business. Mr. Gohannet returned to his home this morning.

J. J. Cunningham was a passenger to Milwaukee this morning.

Phillips Lee is visiting in Edgerton today.

Miss Rose Morrissey is spending the week-end at her home in Edgerton.

The Beloit Comic Club basketball team was in the city today on their way home from Whitewater where they were defeated by the company team.

Dr. E. F. Woods was called to Albany this morning.

Mrs. Ed. Kohl of Monroe, who has spent this week with friends in this city, returned to her home this morning.

Aubrey Pember of Beloit College, returned to his home last Monday.

Russell Smiley and William Birmingham went to Beloit last evening and returned home this morning.

Miss Ruth Wilson has gone to her home in Evansville to remain a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lewis write home from Lincoln that they are enjoying the warm days there, the thermometer being above eighty.

Miss Minnie Meggott left yesterday for Evansville to care for her little niece, Eunice Meggott, who has just undergone an operation for appendicitis.

J. B. Dearborn returned last evening from a two weeks' trip in the northern part of the state.

E. V. Whiton has gone to Iowa for several days on a business trip.

E. E. Spaulding is in Illinois on business.

Sherwood Nelson of Milwaukee is visiting his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. S. Spoon, 419 North Washington street.

Francis Green of Chicago is a guest of friends in the city and participated in the basketball game, played at the rink last evening.

Mrs. Glen Burdick has returned home after a visit in Evansville.

Misses Grace and Martha Spoon have gone to Footville to attend the wedding of their cousin, Miss Dolly Strang, who is to marry Merton Fish of Footville.

Miss Bessie Buell left yesterday to spend a few days with relatives at Lake Geneva.

Mrs. A. H. Stickney entertained the First Ward Sewing Club Thursday afternoon at her home. The following ladies are members: Mesdames Henry Hanson, E. E. Loomis, George Breese, Charles Wesley, E. E. Buckingham, Lida Dixon, Fred W. Truitt, Wendell Phillips, C. C. Devoreaux, John Reynolds and A. H. Stickney.

Mrs. Louise Bowerman was surprised by a number of friends at her home, 204 South Academy street, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. King have returned from an extended eastern and southern trip.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, 321 N. Jackson St., a son.

ORFORDVILLE PASTOR TO SPEAK AT BANQUET
Rev. Kvale One of Speakers at Meeting of Luther College Club at Madison on Monday.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 22.—The Luther College club of Southern Wisconsin will hold its annual banquet at the New York hotel in this city next Monday evening. This college is a Norwegian institution at Decorah, Iowa, devoted especially to preparing students for the ministry. Attorney John Ollis of Madison, a member of the first class, which organized in 1871, will be toastmaster, and Rev. J. A. Stubb of Stoughton, president of the club, will give the welcoming address. Other speakers will be Rev. C. K. Preus, president of the college; Rev. R. Brandt of McFarland; Rev. Theo. Ringstad of Albion college, Dane county; Rev. O. J. Kvale of Orfordville; and Herman L. Ekorn of Madison, the only speaker not a former resident of Decorah.

This sale is the biggest we ever attempted. Prices have been cut deeper, more goods have been sold and more patrons satisfied. T. P. Burns.

WITNESSES REVEAL SYSTEMS EMPLOYED BY "ARSON TRUST"

Methods of Working in Chicago Incendiary Cases Explained on Witness Stand to State's Attorney.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Systematized efforts employed by members of the alleged "arson trust" were disclosed today by the witnesses examined by First Assistant State's Attorney Johnston, who explained to him that in arson circles incendiary fires are placed in two classes, "blow-outs" and "fashes."

A "blow-out" is a fire which destroys both the building and its contents. A "flash" only burns the contents.

The witnesses asserted that the fire bugs could regulate fires by means of the distribution of gasoline. When a "blow-out" was desired gasoline in large cans was placed throughout the building and set fire to in order to cause an explosion.

When a request to burn the contents of the building was made gasoline would be sprinkled over the stock. "In some cases the insured did not want their buildings burned because they did not have them heavily insured," Prosecutor Johnston said in explaining the evidence given him by the witnesses.

"At these times the insured would tell the fire bugs to burn only the stock, because that was insured for more than its real value."

A public fire insurance adjuster who was among those questioned, declared he could tell by the results of a fire the identity of the fire bugs who were responsible for it. Some fire bugs, it was explained, were more efficient than others.

HEALTH INSURANCE COMING INTO FAVOR

Change of Attitude Toward Act Due To Payment of Maternity Benefits—Censor Hymn Books.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

London, Feb. 22.—Disarm and open hostility to the Health Insurance Act, which has been something like joyful incredulity in the typical working class districts of London. This change of attitude has been mainly due to the payment of the maternity benefits, for the operation of the sick benefits will be more gradual and not so conspicuous as the thirty shillings which is paid without question for every baby born in a working class family.

Hitherto it has been the practice of working men's wives to save 25 cents weekly from the food money to provide for the newcomer, and this has meant privation for the whole family. This uneconomic plan has been succeeded by the maternity benefit of the insurance act, and many families, always on the verge of hunger, find themselves relieved at a time when money is most needed.

A censorship of the hymn book has been proposed by Councillor Hopkins, of the Nottingham County Council. The proposal came as the result of complaints against certain hymns in the book used by the schools of the County Council, and in voicing the objections the Councillor declared that the words of the songs expressed neither good religion nor good politics.

His chief objection was directed against the following lines: The rich man in his castle, The poor man at his gate, God made them high and lowly And ordered their estate.

Hopkins asserted that the Almighty did nothing of the sort, and he declared the following verse to be equally offensive: May we to our betters bow, Subject to thy parents thou.

Several church dignitaries agree with Hopkins, but they maintain that the censorship should not be left to laymen.

Rev. Arthur J. Waldron, vicar of Brinxton, has expressed himself as being in favor of a censorship of all hymns, many of which he deems absolutely baldheaded, which people rush through without the slightest appreciation of the meaning of the words.

The vicar said recently, "I am with the man who objects to the verses quoted. I do not think God made men either rich or poor; men have done that themselves. Many of these hymns are bad theology, bad economics and bad everything."

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Janesville Lodge No. 55, F. & A. M., will meet in regular communication Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p. m., at Masonic Temple. Work in the M. M. D. Refreshments. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

Circle No. 2 of M. E. church, will hold their meeting with Mrs. Brownell, Milton avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. All please come. Important business. Mrs. Frank Lawson, Sec.

WANTED—Two women for pressing. Six girls for stitching and general work. Steady employment. Good wages. Lewis Knitting Co.

Janesville Lodge No. 55 F. & A. M. meets Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p. m., at Masonic Temple. Work in the M. M. D. Refreshments. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

Circle No. 2 of M. E. church, will hold their meeting with Mrs. Brownell, Milton avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. All please come. Important business. Mrs. Frank Lawson, Sec.

WANTED—Two women for pressing. Six girls for stitching and general work. Steady employment. Good wages. Lewis Knitting Co.

Janesville Lodge No. 55 F. & A. M. meets Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p. m., at Masonic Temple. Work in the M. M. D. Refreshments. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

Circle No. 2 of M. E. church, will hold their meeting with Mrs. Brownell, Milton avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. All please come. Important business. Mrs. Frank Lawson, Sec.

WANTED—Two women for pressing. Six girls for stitching and general work. Steady employment. Good wages. Lewis Knitting Co.

Janesville Lodge No. 55 F. & A. M. meets Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p. m., at Masonic Temple. Work in the M. M. D. Refreshments. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

Circle No. 2 of M. E. church, will hold their meeting with Mrs. Brownell, Milton avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. All please come. Important business. Mrs. Frank Lawson, Sec.

WANTED—Two women for pressing. Six girls for stitching and general work. Steady employment. Good wages. Lewis Knitting Co.

ORDERS A DIVISION MADE IN PENALTIES ON THE INCOME TAX

County Treasurer Livermore Receives Minute Instructions From Tax Commission Regarding Income Tax Settlement.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

County Treasurer F. F. Livermore has received from A. J. Myland, secretary of the state tax commission, a circular letter sent out to all the county treasurers in the state in which is given elaborate and minute instructions or directions on the settlement of income taxes.

In these instructions the tax commission lays down a new rule in regard to the disposal of penalties, which has been remarked by Mr. Livermore and County Clerk Lee. The letter says: "The percentage division between the state, county and town, city or village is on the basis of total collections including penalties and fees."

According to this the tax district retains only seventy percent of the delinquent fees, the same percentage of income tax collected, while the county treasurer is instructed to collect the remaining thirty percent of the penalties as well as the tax. "The county retains twenty percent and the state gets ten."

It is pointed out that the practice and rule heretofore has been that all fines and penalties for the collection of delinquent taxes shall remain in the treasury of the taxing district or the custom until this year when the new law went into effect, the fees went to the town, city or village treasurer as his remuneration. In any case there was never any claim on the part of the county or the state.

Such delinquent fees, as the taxing districts made their settlements with the state and county regardless of delinquents.

The amount collected in penalties on income taxes will doubtless be very small so that the small percentage which goes to the county and state will hardly pay for the trouble of division.

The instructions are explicit in indicating to the treasurers how to check out the personal property of sets. Attention to detail is shown in the two following paragraphs:

"Having checked out all items of offset the county treasurer should check the footings to satisfy himself that the sum of cash and offset collections plus the amount carried out in the delinquent roll column of the tax roll equals the total of all amounts assessed as income tax plus all penalties and fees collected."

"After the completion of the above check, the county treasurer will fill out the receipts sent him for this purpose by the tax commission. One copy of these receipts should be delivered to the local treasurer, one copy should be forwarded to the state treasurer, one should be transmitted to the tax commission and one should be retained in the book as the treasurer's copy. It will be noted that these four receipts are secured as a paper trail by the use of carbon paper. The carbon furnished with these forms is a special carbon which should show a plain copy if the original receipt is written with a stub pen requiring reasonably hard pressure."

The county clerk has received the blanks and carbons but failed to receive the stub pens. A requisition will doubtless be made of the tax commission.

CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY OF MOVING INTO NEW BUILDING

Four years ago today, February 22d, the Gazette Printing company moved from the old location on North Main street, which it had occupied for many years, to its present home at the corner of East Milwaukee and North Bluff streets. The moving started on Saturday night preceding, but the first paper was published on Washington's birthday in the new home. There was not a loss of an issue and everything ran as smoothly as though in the old structure. When it is considered that the presses, the linotype machines, and entire composing room outfit, had to be moved within twenty-four hours, necessitating a complete change, without interruption, it was remarkable.

Mystic Workers.
The funeral services of the late Alfred Peterson, one of our members, will be held from the Norwegian Lutheran church, Monday at 1:30 p. m. All those who can please attend. O. S. MORSE, Secretary.

Race at the Rink tonight. Two carloads from Rockford expected. Come and enjoy the fun. Admission, 10c and 15c.

SCHOOL TEACHERS HOSTESS AT A LUNCHEON
The teachers at the Washington school entertained at a three course luncheon on Friday in honor of Miss Wilma Jones who leaves shortly for a trip to New York. Miss Jones has been engaged in kindergarten work and the luncheon was a complete surprise to her.

T. P. Burns' Annual February Clearing Sale continues to draw large crowds of eager shoppers.

Parcel Post Maps Free with a year's subscription to the Daily Gazette. Value of the map, $1.00. They are on sale at Baker's Drug Store and Gazette office to Gazette patrons, also at 25c. or 35c. by mail.

For Two Days Each Week
for a few weeks, I shall be in Janesville.

Any of my former Janesville patrons who desire my services for their pianos may leave word at W. T. Sherer's Drug Store.

S. E. EGTVEDT

ANNUAL DOLLAR DAY INSTITUT

Today's Edgerton News

EDGERTON DEFEATS FAST MADISON FIVE

Spring Surprise on Confident Capital City Players and Win by 33 to 24 Score.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Edgerton, Feb. 22.—The Edgerton basketball five defeated the Madison five in the local gym last evening by a score of 33 to 24. This was one of the strongest games ever played in the local gym. Madison stated a few days ago that they were going to play a practice game with Edgerton to get into trim for their game with Baraboo, but they found that the Edgerton team was a little too fast for them. The game was clean all the way through and the basket shooting was the greatest part of the game, some of the boys being able to locate the basket three-quarters of the way down the field. Madison after this game will be in good trim for Baraboo. Edgerton also defeated Baraboo.

Mrs. Theo. Johnson returned from Bloomer yesterday where she attended the funeral of her sister.

Rev. F. W. Shoenfeld will fill the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday morning and evening. The morning theme will be, "How God's Election Works." In the evening he will preach a sermon for the K. P. lodge in honor of their 49th anniversary. The theme will be, "Friendship, Love and Charity."

The Cardinal basketball five of this city will go to Madison to play the Baptist church five of that city. Following is the line-up of the Cardinals: Lawrence Whitford, guard; Frank Cokey, forward; Charles Sweeney, center; Morris Hitchcock, forward; Fred Kellogg, guard; Alfred Tiesburg, substitute. Referee—Sutton.

The Tiger basketball team will play in Stoughton today.

Miss Shirlee Shumway, who is attending the Whitewater normal, is here on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bardeen entertained the Bridge club at their home Thursday evening. The evening was spent in playing bridge, after which light refreshments were served. Mrs. William McIntosh carried off the honors of the evening.

Today's Evansville News

Evansville, Feb. 22.—About thirty friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Miles surprised them and took complete possession of their country home Thursday evening. However, they literally "rose" to the occasion (as some of the family had retired) and proved themselves model hosts and hostesses, even when this unexpected party was given. The evening was spent in visiting, games and a musical program, followed by a dainty three course luncheon.

All agreed that Friday morning came too soon. The guests departed to their respective homes, declaring one and all that they would know when to go when they were in for a general good time.

Miss Elsie Jane Miles is the new student in the seventh grade work at the seminary.

Smith Brothers in Brooklyn township held a sale of general farmstock and machinery. Everything sold satisfactorily to the owners, cows selling as high as $100.

Miss Doris Copeland very pleasantly entertained twenty-four friends last night at a George Washington party. The evening was spent in music and games, refreshments were served and a delightful time ensued for those present.

Mrs. George Hynes entertained a company of ladies at a merry-go-round Friday afternoon.

Dan Finnane was a business caller in Attica yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Dumphy are visiting relatives in Janesville.

Miss Charles Nelson recently returned to Rockford, after visiting Mrs. Arthur Fryer.

A. M. Van Wormer was a Brooklyn visitor yesterday.

Edward Thompson has returned to Capron, Ill., after a visit at the A. Fryer home.

Mrs. Glen Burdick returned yesterday to Janesville after a visit at the J. Murray home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Milligan and family spent yesterday in Janesville where they were called by the death of Mr. Milligan's brother, George.

Mrs. S. T. Blash is spending a few days with Janesville friends.

Miss Metta Gifford of Edgerton is visiting Mrs. C. A. Fuller.

Misses Gertrude Tierney and Mary Fineran are visiting Janesville relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowley and Miss Nettie Frazee were Janesville callers yesterday.

Messdames Claude and Mont Rogers are visiting Mrs. P. L. Myers in Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller entertained Sunday in honor of Misses Metta Gifford and Bertha Kellar of Edgerton.

Col. D. Finnane, recently returned from Augusta, Wis., where he had charge of a sale.

Mrs. Bert Silverthorn and children are visiting Footville relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Williams announce the birth of a son.

Arthur Dennison has returned from a visit in Onondavoille.

Miss Olga Knudsen was a Janesville visitor Thursday.

Joe Eastman was an Oregon visitor on the latter part of the week.

Lytle Blakely and John Schuble attended "The Girl at the Gate" in Janesville.

Miss Ethel Wolcott of Magnolia is visiting her sister, Mrs. Claude Harrison.

H. H. Marvin has returned to Oregon after a brief visit here.

W. D. Brown spends Sunday with relatives in Caledonia.

Ben Griffith is erecting a new two story barn, 13x24, on his lot between Albert Apple's and Mrs. E. D. Barnard's. He expects to move into it the first of the next week until plans are made for a new home.

Charles Benson was a recent Janesville visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tupper are moving into a portion of Mrs. Jane Montgomery's house on Montgomery Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pullen of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. Walter Twining of Monroe and Mrs. and Mrs. Will Ames of Des Moines, Ia., were present at the funeral of the late Mrs. L. T. Pullen.

Mrs. D. H. Glidden, who has been very ill for several days, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Emma Bishop is on the sick list.

Send Gifts to Soldiers' Home at Waupaca.

The members of the Woman's Relief Corps have completed a beautiful quilt and have had several pretty rugs woven, all of which will be sent to the Soldiers' Home at Waupaca, in order to help defray the expense connected with the above gifts the members of the Corps are selling numbers on two rugs and the drawing of the tickets will take place at a supper and social to be held in the G. A. R. hall on the 24th.

Through the kindness of the proprietors of the Economy store, the rugs are now on exhibition in of their windows.

Washington memorial services will be held at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 10:30. Rev. T. T. Phelps will deliver the sermon.

The members of the T. L. Sutphen Post, No. 41, G. A. R. have extended an invitation to all veterans whether members of the Post or not, also to the Woman's Relief Corps and to the Sons of Veterans to join them at the G. A. R. hall over Clarke's store, at 10:00 o'clock and go in a body to the church.

Evansville readers can secure parcel post maps from Lloyd Rowley, carrier.

HARNESS OILING AND REPAIRING. Prices reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. Agents for the Master Brand Harness, E. J. Reckford, Evansville, Wis., opposite Grange store.

22-1-17

MILTON

Milton, Feb. 21.—The presidents of the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies of Milton, and Milton Junction held a meeting Monday evening and formed a local union. They are now planning an interesting program which is expected will be given on Sunday evening, March 9, at 7:20 in the Milton Congregational church. Everyone should keep this in mind and plan to attend. Also spread it among your friends and urge everybody, especially young people, to be present and enjoy this union meeting.

Beginning next Friday, February 28, union religious meetings will be held in Milton. On each night the Iowa Ladies' Quartet, well known to Milton people, will assist by rendering sacred music. Three of the quartet are old Milton college graduates, and it is expected that the meetings will be enthusiastically taken up by all in the community. Below is given the program and dates.

Friday evening, February 28, in the Methodist church—Speaker, Rev. W. A. Leighton.

Saturday evening, March 1, in the Methodist church—Speaker, Rev. M. A. Drew.

Sunday evening, March 2, in the Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. L. C. Randolph.

Friday evening, March 7, in the S. D. B. church—Speaker, Rev. M. A. Drew.

Saturday evening, March 8, in the S. D. B. church—Speaker, Rev. L. C. Randolph.

Sunday evening, March 9, in the S. D. B. church—Speaker, Rev. W. A. Leighton.

Dr. Randolph will be welcomed by all on his return after these weeks' absence, and it is hoped that all denominations will join in making a success of the meetings. We feel that more can be accomplished for Christian betterment and permanent results, by the efforts of our own ministers than by the introduction of evangelists who are unacquainted with the needs and the temperament of the people, and whose firecracker methods do not appeal to all.

The King's Daughters of Milton have not called upon the public for money in any way for about three years. The funds in the treasury are getting very low and it is necessary to raise money in order to carry on the work therefore they ask your patronage on March 17 at the Town hall where they will serve a cafeteria supper at reasonable prices.

Hon. Arthur A. Miller of Crookston, Minn., a former Milton boy and a graduate of Milton college, class of '14, now a prominent lawyer of his city, has recently purchased the Scandia-American bank of Crookston one of the largest banking institutions of northern Minnesota, with deposits of nearly one million dollars. Together with his partner he is interested in a number of other banks, has large land holdings and city property and is rated at a half million dollars.

D. B. Coon attended a farmers' convention at Sterling, Ill., this week.

Mrs. C. M. Bliss is visiting in Janesville.

E. F. Wiegel returned from his trip to Minnesota and North Dakota, Friday.

E. F. Davis, Jr., has gone to Chicago.

Hon. P. M. Green and Mrs. H. B. Crandall were in Milwaukee this week.

W. V. I. club meets with Mrs. A. E. Whitford, Tuesday.

Charles E. Dunn has gone to Battle Creek, Mich.

MILTON JUNCTION

Milton Junction, Feb. 22.—The Fortnightly Club held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Elbert Marsh yesterday afternoon. The following program was given:

Parliamentary Practice.

Angie Langworthy.

Excitement and Terrors of the New Land.

Edna Davis.

Other Important Cities.

Mattie Frank.

Roll Call.

Current Events.

Music.

The Meddames Bert and John Collins of Lima, Helen Kerns, J. S. Allen, C. Chamberlain, R. Rueben and Riley Call very pleasantly surprised.

Miss Andrew Mervel Thursday in honor of her birthday.

Miss Lois Morris entertained the B. C. Club at the home of Mrs. Helen Kerns Friday evening. A dainty luncheon was served.

Miss Hazel Chaffield is entertaining her cousin, Miss Ruby McCarty of Albion.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Roberts spent Thursday in Madison.

Miss Dora Sykes came from Madison Thursday evening and left last night for Boise, Idaho, where she is to teach school.

Will Carr of Menasha spent yesterday with his father, S. C. Carr.

What natural disaster?

Mrs. S. S. Van Buren St., Kingston, N. Y., (full name furnished on application) had such decided benefit from using Foley's Honey & Tar Compound that she shares her good fortune with others. She writes: "Foley's Honey & Tar Compound brought my voice back to me during a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis. Oh, how many people I have recommended it to." Remember the name Foley's Honey & Tar Compound, and refuse substitutes. Contains no opiates. Badger Drug Co.

Evansville readers can secure parcel post maps from Lloyd Rowley, carrier.

HARNESS OILING AND REPAIRING. Prices reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. Agents for the Master Brand Harness, E. J. Reckford, Evansville, Wis., opposite Grange store.

22-1-17

PRIZES OFFERED FOR MID-WINTER FAIR

(Continued from page 5.)

Best Bushel Any Variety Barley.
First—John Deere 16-inch steel beam plow. Nitscher Implement Co.
Second—One hat. Golden Eagle.
Third—One umbrella. Mahoney & Newman.

Best Bushel Pedigree Oats.
First—One bushel clover seed. L. L. Olds Seed Co.
Second—Box 50. Reliance cigars. D. Markovitz.
Third—One sack flour. J. R. Sheldon.

Best Bushel Oats, Any Variety.
First—One Owens corn grader. Phil Doherty.
Second—500 lb. cob meal. Levi Case.
Third—Case beer, quarts. Cronk Brewing Co.

Best Bushel Rye.
First—One-half ton rye feed. Blodgett Milling Co.
Second—One umbrella. Golden Eagle.
Third—Comb and brush. Baker Drug Co.

Best Bushel Winter Wheat.
First—$10 painting job. Wisconsin Carriage Co.
Second—Box cigars. Moyers Cigar Store.
Third—One can Chase & Sanborns coffee. Skelly Grocery Co.

Best Bushel Spring Wheat.
First—$4.00 fountain pen. Williamson Pen Co.
Second—One keg ale. Hemming's Ale Brewery.
Third—One whip. T. R. Costigan.

Best One-Half Bushel Clover Seed.
First—10 rods wire fence. Janesville Wire Co.
Second—Box 50 Saturday Evening Post cigars. Miller & Schubert.
Third—$2.00 in trade. Doty Mill.
Fourth—Box candy. Allie Razook.

Best One-Half Bushel Timothy Seed.
First—100 lbs. Salvat or $5.00 in trade. P. H. Green & Son.
Second—One hat. T. J. Ziegler Clothing Co.
Third—One punch knife. Premo Bros.

Best Four Hands Tobacco, 1912 Crop.
First—$10.00 in trade. Pfaff Lumber Co.
Second—One hat. R. M. Bostwick & Sons.
Third—One framed picture. Sutherland & Sons.
Fourth—Suit steam cleaned and pressed. Carl F. Brockhaus.

VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT.

Best One-Half Bush Navy Beans.
First—$5.00 rocker. W. H. Ashcraft.
Second—White enameled sink. Snyder Bros.
Third—10 lbs. roast beef. George Yahn.

Best Peck Early Potatoes.
First—$5.00 in trade. Schaller & McKee.
Second—Ten tickets. Apollo Theatre.
Third—One sack flour. Tarrant & Osmond.

Best Peck Late Potatoes.
First—$5.00 rug. T. R. Burns.
Second—Comb and brush. McCon & Huss.
Third—One sack flour. F. L. Wilbur.

Best Peck White Onions.
First—One hat. J. L. Ford.
Second—One pump. F. E. Green.
Third—Recorder, one year. Janesville Daily Recorder.

Best Peck Red Onions.
First—One pair quilted sole shoes. Lay Watson Shoe Co.
Second—Pair khaki pants. Janesville Shirt & Overalls Co.
Third—$1.00 sausage. Peoples Market.

Best Three Heads Cabbage.
First—White enameled sink. McKee Bros.
Second—One case beer. Val Blatz Brewing Co.
Third—Pipe and tobacco. S. A. Warner.

DAIRY DEPARTMENT.
Best Package Dairy Butter.
First—50 bars Galvanic soap. W. I. Rothert.
Second—Pair khaki pants. Janesville Shirt & Overalls Co.
Third—Umbrella. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
Fourth—$1.00 mds. J. C. Nichols.

Best Cottage Cheese.
First—$4.00 palm. Janesville Floral Co.
Second—One statue. Hall & Huebel.
Third—One dozen cans corn. Dedrick Bros.
Fourth—Cottage bouquet. $1.00. Mrs. Walker of Simpson's store.

Handsome Patchwork Quilt Made By Exhibitor.
First—Dining room table. C. S. Putnam.
Second—Pair shoes. Amos Reber & Co.
Third—Pair silk stockings. Simpson's store.
Fourth—$1.00 savings deposit, to remain on deposit six months. Rock County Savings and Trust Co.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.
Handsome Handkerchief, Hemstitched or Drawn Work.
First—One-half dozen pair hose. Pond & Bailey.
Second—Bed spread. E. L. Howard.
Third—Recorder for 1 year. Janesville Daily Recorder.
Fourth—$1.00 savings deposit, to remain on deposit six months. Rock County Savings and Trust Co.

Handsome Silk, Satin or Velvet Sofa Pillow.
First—Cut glass. $3.00. W. J. Skelly.
Second—$2.00 in trade. F. W. Woolworth & Co.
Third—Sack flour. W. F. Carle.
Fourth—$1.00 savings deposit, to remain on deposit six months. Rock County Savings and Trust Co.

Handsome Cotton or Linen Sofa Pillow.
First—Ladle's hand bag. $5.00. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
Second—Corset. $1.25. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
Third—Two tickets. Myers Opera House.
Fourth—Two pair 50c hose. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Handsome Dressed Doll.
First—Brownie Camera. Smith Drug Co.
Second—Pair kid gloves. $1.00. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
Third—Box candy. Frank George.
Fourth—$1.00 savings deposit, to remain on deposit six months. Rock County Savings and Trust Co.

The World's Best Medicines!

Who Discovered Them, The People?

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D.
Columbus, Ohio.

I am manufacturing five different remedies, which are supplied to the regular drug trade, for use in the home. In my writings I rarely speak of but one of these remedies, Peruna, but there are four others which I am continually prescribing.

There is, first, Manalin, which is an up-to-date laxative. Pleasant to take. If the children do not cry for it, at least they do not object to it. As a matter of fact, I know one child that actually cries for it, every time he sees the bottle. Manalin is, of course, useful in all cases where a laxative is needed. Biliousness or constipation. Always at the beginning of an acute disease a full dose of Manalin is to be advised. It can be given to the youngest baby and is perfectly effective for older people. It is not drastic. Produces very nearly a natural movement of the bowels.

Then I also have the Manalin Tablets, which are similar in composition to the fluid Manalin. In tablet form they are more convenient for some people. I believe them to be the best laxative tablet in the market. They are certainly made of the very best material, and constitute a safe, convenient and effective laxative.

Then there is the Laciopia, a blood remedy. This remedy I regard as no alternative of first-class quality in every particular. It is strictly vegetable, free from the usual mineral poisons that are used in alternative remedies. It is specifically a blood medicine. Sore of all sorts, blood contaminations of every kind, are treated with Laciopia. If you have a running sore, external or internal, your blood is contaminated, by infection or otherwise, Laciopia, taken according to the directions on the bottle, is sure to produce beneficial results. In most cases it can be relied upon to entirely eradicate the trouble. In any case where it seems to fail a letter to me will be given prompt attention and I will endeavor to discover why a complete cure has not been experienced.

The Peruna I am speaking of so frequently I need not describe at length. It is my old-time catarrh remedy with a laxative element added. As it stands today it is without a rival as a tonic laxative. Applicable to all cases of catarrh, whether the catarrh is located in the head, nose, throat, or whether in the stomach, bowels or lower organs, or in the larynx, bronchial tubes, or lungs, or whether in the kidneys or other pelvic organs. In all cases of catarrh Peruna is my remedy.

Besides the Peruna I am manufacturing Peruna Tablets. The Peruna Tablets contain essentially the same ingredients as the fluid Peruna. In some cases it is more convenient for a patient to be able to carry tablets in the pocket. They have been manufactured on purpose to meet such cases. I manufacture the Peruna Tablet in my own laboratory, the same as the Manalin Tablets, and I can guarantee them to be perfectly pure, free from all objectionable materials and in a condition to be readily absorbed by the stomach.

Yes, I have five remedies. First, the Peruna and the Peruna Tablets. Second, the Manalin and the Manalin Tablets. Third, the Laciopia. These are manufactured in my own laboratory and I can personally vouch for their purity and effectiveness.

It seems to me that any household provided with Peruna, Manalin and Laciopia would be ready to meet most of the ailments to which the human family is subject. Surely there are no better remedies to be obtained for the purposes for which I recommend them. There are no remedies that can excel them in composition or pharmaceutical skill. The material used in them all is the best and purest. N. 52. Advertisement.

The Theatre

ABOUT PAUL J. RAINEY

There is no more famous big game sportsman in America today than Paul J. Rainey, a young man of wealth, who conquered the animals of the Far North before venturing into the African jungle. Mr. Rainey equipped the costly expedition, and with J. C. Hemment, an expert photographer, who had previously accompanied him on a trip to the Arctic, and two big hunters, penetrated the heart of the North country—the wildest in all Africa—for the purpose of photographing the wild beasts in their native haunts.

are solid, and a glance into his cool, gray eye, shows that his nerves are steady and ever under control. Pre-eminently he is a man to be depended upon in a crisis and on many occasions when the life of the photographer was in danger, his coolness and nerve proved invaluable.

"Next to lion hunting," said Mr. Rainey, in speaking of the results of his expedition, "bagging the cheetah, or hunting leopard, was the best sport, for here our Mississippi hounds were given their full chance. In one morning the pack brought down three

Picture of Baby Rhino, Captured by Paul J. Rainey on His African Expedition. Shown at Myers Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 24, 25 and 26.

The thrilling and educational pictures taken on the trip will be seen at the Myers theatre on February 24-25-26, matinee daily. Prof. Edmund Heller of the Smithsonian Institute, accompanied the expedition to preserve specimens, and to direct the trap-setting when it was found desirable to capture the wild animals alive, and Dr. M. E. Johnstone, of Lexington, Ky., was also of the party.

In physique, Paul Rainey is the ideal hunter. Lithe and agile, he stands six feet, without a superfluous ounce of flesh upon him. His muscles of these splendid creatures, and were prevented from tearing them so that their skins were perfect for the specimen case.

"We got quite a number of these leopards, and in every instance we let the dogs finish the job. They never failed, and the fighters of the pack would have torn the beasts to pieces had we let them. The leopard puts up a game fight for a time, and cuts and tears with tooth and nail, but our dogs went into them without hesitation, and never failed to come out victorious."

Brothead, Feb. 22.—George W. Fowler held his auction sale today on the old Condon homestead. They are preparing to move to Beloit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Merritt went to Beloit Friday for a short stay with relatives and friends.

A. J. Wagner left on Friday for a visit at his old home in Tomah. He will be absent some weeks.

B. L. Rolfe spent Friday in Monroe.

J. J. Adams, (who has been here for some weeks the guest of his brother,

Miss Rennemo was a passenger to Stoughton Friday for a short stay.

Miss Myrtle Hill, who has been spending the past week in Rockford with relatives, returned to Brothead Friday evening.

George Fowler was a visitor in Beloit Friday.

On account of the inclement weather of last evening the attendance at the social given in the parlors of the M. E. church, was not well attended. However, those who were present had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. D. E. Hooker entertained a party of boys and girls last evening for their son, Hobart. Various games took up the time and with a tempting luncheon.

A storm of sleet and snow on Friday has replaced the sleighing which disappeared a few days since.

He Doesn't Help Much.

The man who has no faith in anything is about as effective as an empty boiler.

Mail to FRANK E. LANE,

Secretary Janesville Commercial Club, Janesville, Wis.

Why Not You?

The large number of persons who have savings accounts with us receive 4% interest, compounded every six months. Does your savings account pay you 4%? If not, you are wasting a part of your income.

THE BANK OF EVANSVILLE

Evansville, Wis.
Founded 1870.
Geo. L. Pullen, Pres.

Proceedings of The Rock County Board of Supervisors

Supervisor F. W. Wilford presented the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved:—By the County Board of Supervisors of Rock County, That the salary of Superintendent of Poor Geo. Seegmiller be $500.00 for ensuing year.

Adopted by the following vote:
Barker, Rossow, Denning, Gleason, Hansen, Harper, Heddies, McGee, Marquart, Maxson, Morton, McEvoy, Newhouse, Overton, Tullar, Porter, Rathenham, Rehfeld, Richardson, Roach, Ross, Sherman, Simon Smith, Steele, Swingle, Treadway, Wilford, Gray, Ayes 28; Clemenson, Crall, Ebbott, Gettle, Hopkins, Bennett, Moseley, Stoney, Tollefson, Naves, 9; absent 2.

Supervisor L. E. Gettle presented the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved:—By the County Board of Supervisors of Rock County, That the committee on pensions for blind persons be and is hereby authorized and directed to investigate and report as to whether any of the persons now on the list of blind pensioners have since admission to such list acquired an income in excess of $250.00 exclusive of said pension.

Adopted.
Supervisor Tullar presented the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved:—By the County Board of Supervisors of Rock County, That the clerk be and is hereby instructed to allow mileage to members for all meetings of this Board, other than the regular meeting in November. This is understood to mean only one mileage for each meeting.

Adopted.
Supervisor Gleason presented the following:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Rock County:

Gentlemen:—
Your Committee No. 12 to whom was referred the petition of the supervisors of the Town of Union for County aid in building two bridges in said town begs leave to report as follows:

We have examined said petition and find it in proper form and according to law. Therefore, we recommend that the sum set forth in said petition be appropriated viz. $600.00.

N. M. GLEASON,
ELI CRALL,
JOHN SHERMAN,
Committee.

Adopted by the following vote by towns:

Crall, Gleason, Hansen, Harper, McGee, Marquart, Bennett, Morton, Moseley, Newhouse, Overton, Rehfeld, Roach, Ross, Sherman, Steele, Stoney, Swingle, Tollefson, Ayes, 20; naves, 0.

By whole Board:
Barker, Rossow, Clemenson, Crall, Denning, Ebbott, Gettle, Gleason, Hansen, Harper, Heddies, Hopkins, McGee, Marquart, Maxson, Bennett, Morton, Moseley, McEvoy, Newhouse, Overton, Tullar, Porter, Rathenham, Rehfeld, Richardson, Roach, Ross, Sherman, Simon Smith, Steele, Stoney, Tollefson, Treadway, Wilford, Gray, Ayes, 37; absent 2.

Supervisor Gleason presented the following:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Rock County:

Gentlemen:—

Your Committee No. 12 have since our report at the November meeting of the Board inspected the bridge built in the Town of Fulton, found it satisfactory to your committee, and therefore we accepted the bridge and requested the County Clerk to draw an order in favor of the Freeport Bridge Co., for $199.00, being the amount appropriated by the County Board for the construction of said bridge.

N. M. GLEASON,
ELI CRALL,
JOHN SHERMAN,
Committee.

Adopted.
Supervisor Ross moved to adjourn to 1:30 p. m.

Carried.

Afternoon Session.

Janesville, January 17, 1913.

Board met pursuant to adjournment at 1:30 o'clock, p. m.

Called to order by A. C. Gray, chairman.

At roll call all members present except Supervisors Bear and C. M. Smith.

Quorum present.

Supervisor Simon Smith from Committee on Claims presented report:

To the Board of Supervisors of Rock County:

Gentlemen:—

Your Committee No. 10 to whom was referred the following entitled bills, would respectfully report and recommend to allow as follows:

Bill Claimant's name Amt. Rec'd No. and what for Claimed to allow

223 S. S. Jones, Est. telephone acct. $42.00 $42.00

13 F. P. Livermore, trustee asylum 14.40 14.40

14 Janesville Motor Co. livery district attorney 16.50 16.50

21 F. L. Clemens, treasurer's bond 125.00 125.00

225 Nelson Bros., carryall for jurors 3.00 3.00

239 Janesville Carriage Co. court signs 1.00 1.00

10 S. G. Dunwiddie, expense acct. 23.92 23.92

240 Frank Gentie, board of jurors 71.75 71.75

22 Edward W. Lee, expenses, Madison 6.48 6.48

31 J. A. Paul, canvassing election returns 7.08 7.08

45 Janesville Floral Co., flowers 4.60 4.60

285 Bruce Townsend, auto's Superintendent of Highways 27.00 27.00

Same to be deducted from S. S. Jones's expense account.

Surveying Roads.

63 P. F. McGee, 14.75 14.75

66 H. T. Harper, 8.50 8.50

67 H. M. Roach, 17.91 17.91

68 F. B. Moseley, 8.40 8.40

69 Fred Rehfeld, 9.75 9.75

234 Clayton E. Stoney, S. S.

Jones est. expense account $13.42 $28.92

30 Clayton E. Stoney, S. S.

Jones est. freight and express 49.68 10.50

Balance of bill to be referred to C. E. Moore, Superintendent of Highways for adjustment.

Committee Work

59 W. A. Rossow, 4.80 4.80

57 B. C. Hansen, 5.52 5.52

58 Jos. Ross, 7.00 7.00

27 C. M. Smith, 30.22 30.22

29 S. E. Heddies, 17.43 17.43

36 F. M. Roach, 55.98 55.98

38 E. C. Hopkins, 12.84 12.84

39 E. C. Hopkins, 3.00 3.00

37 Eli Crall, 83.04 83.04

40 John Sherman, 98.76 98.76

42 A. C. Gray, 10.08 10.08

43 H. T. Harper, 4.30 4.30

53 B. D. Treadway, 54.98 54.98

48 K. K. Newhouse, 10.56 10.56

54 J. A. Denning, 9.24 9.24

51 C. Clemenson, 7.80 7.80

52 B. D. Treadway, 7.80 7.80

50 W. B. Maxson, 4.08 4.08

56 H. T. Harper, 7.20 7.20

48 J. C. McEvoy, 10.80 10.80

47 H. B. Moseley, 5.28 5.28

25 Henry Ebbott, 4.92 4.92

24 R. K. Overton, 7.92 7.92

233 H. T. Harper, 4.30 4.30

223 H. T. Harper, 4.30 4.30

20 Thos. A. Steele, 5.28 5.28

19 Thos. A. Steele, 5.28 5.28

18 F. W. Wilford, 15.60 15.60

17 Fred Rehfeld, 2.48 2.48

16 Fred Rehfeld, 2.48 2.48

60 N. M. Gleason, 4.68 4.68

61 Chas. E. Moore, 23.52 23.52

64 L. E. Gettle, 21.92 21.92

63 W. P. Marquart, 4.20 4.20

65 H. B. Moseley, 5.28 5.28

26 Simon Smith, 22.16 22.16

28 F. M. Roach, 25.66 25.66

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SIMON SMITH,
HENRY EBBOTT,
R. K. OVERTON.

Adopted by the following vote:

Barker, Rossow, Clemenson, Crall, Denning, Ebbott, Gettle, Gleason, Hansen, Harper, Heddies, Hopkins, McGee, Marquart, Maxson, Bennett, Morton, Moseley, McEvoy, Newhouse, Overton, Tullar, Porter, Rathenham, Rehfeld, Richardson, Roach, Ross, Sherman, Simon Smith, Steele, Stoney, Tollefson, Treadway, Wilford, Gray, Ayes, 36; absent 2.

Supervisor Henry Ebbott presented the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved:—By the County Board of Supervisors of Rock County, That the sum of ten dollars be paid out of the general fund to A. C. Gray, chairman of the County Board for counter-signing County orders.

Adopted by the following vote:

Barker, Rossow, Clemenson, Crall, Denning, Ebbott, Gettle, Gleason, Hansen, Harper, Heddies, Hopkins, McGee, Marquart, Maxson, Bennett, Morton, Moseley, McEvoy, Newhouse, Overton, Tullar, Porter, Rathenham, Rehfeld, Richardson, Roach, Ross, Sherman, Simon Smith, Steele, Stoney, Tollefson, Treadway, Wilford, Ayes, 35; absent 4.

Highway Commissioner C. E. Moore read his annual report as follows:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Rock County, I have the honor to submit to you the fifth annual report of the Highway Commissioner of Rock County as follows. The following towns have received aid for highway improvement for the year 1912 as follows:

Beloit voted by town $1,500.00

Beloit appropriated by county 1,500.00

Available from state 1,295.47

$4,205.47

Beloit voted for bridges, town $300.00

Beloit voted for bridges, county 300.00

Available from state 120.54

Bradford voted by town $1,000.00

Bradford appropriated by county 1,000.00

Bradford available from state 803.65

Center voted by town $2,803.65

Center appropriated by county 600.00

Center available from state 482.19

Clinton voted by town $1,000.00

Clinton appropriated by county 1,000.00

Clinton available from state 803.65

Fulton voted by town $1,000.00

Fulton appropriated by county 1,000.00

Fulton available from state 803.65

Harmony voted by town $600.46

Harmony appropriated by county 1,000.00

Harmony available from state 803.65

Janesville voted by town $300.00

Janesville appropriated by county 800.00

Janesville available from state 642.92

Johnston voted by town $800.00

Johnston appropriated by county 800.00

Johnston available from state 612.92

Johnstown, bridges voted by town $250.00

Johnstown, bridges voted by county 250.00

Johnstown, bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

Lima available from state 321.46

Lima bridges voted by town $250.00

Lima bridges available from state 100.46

Lima, voted by town $400.00

Lima appropriated by county 400.00

HOG MARKET TAKES TEN CENT ADVANCE

Demand for Hogs Holds Strong With Receipts Rather Light at 10,000.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago, Feb. 22.—An advance of five and ten cents for hogs was the feature of the livestock market this morning. Receipts estimated at 10,000 head was a light run and was quickly disposed of. Sheep receipts were unusually light with prices unchanged as a result. Quotations are as follows:

Cattle—Receipts 200; market steady; beefs 6.75@9.00; Texas steers 5.20@6.60; western steers 6.00@7.50; stockers and feeders 5.90@8.15; cows and heifers 3.15@7.40; calves 7.00@10.50.

Hogs—Receipts 10,000; market strong, 5c and 10c higher than Friday; light 5.20@8.50; mixed 8.15@8.45; heavy 7.95@8.40; rough 7.95@8.15; pigs 6.00@8.50; bulk of sales 8.20@8.40.

Sheep—Receipts 1,000; market steady; native 5.10@6.65; western 5.40@6.75; yearlings 6.70@8.00; lambs native 7.40@8.55; western 7.40@8.55.

JANESVILLE WHOLESALE MARKET

Janesville, Wis., Feb. 22, 1913.
Straw, Corn, Oats—Straw, $6 to $7; baled hay, $14 to $15—loose (small demand) $14; corn, $10@12; oats, 95c@1.25; barley, 45c@55c for 50 lbs.; rye, 55c for 50 lbs.
Poultry—Hens, 13c; springers, 12c@13c; geese live, 11c, dressed, 14c; turkeys, dressed, 21c@22c; live, 17c.
Steers and Cows—$1.50 @ $7.40.
Hogs—$7.75.
Sheep—$6; lambs, $8.
Feed—(Retail) Oil meal $1.75@1.80 per 100 lbs; bran $1.20@1.25; Standard middlings, $1.20; flour middlings, $1.20.

GREEN VEGETABLES FOUND

EVEN IN STORMY WEATHER
In spite of the blustering winds the Janesville housewives have the opportunity of buying many of the mid-summer vegetables. Tomatoes are on the market but in a limited amount and are bringing good prices. They are of a superior quality and compare in every degree to those homegrown. These "love apples" are shipped from the southern states, especially Texas where the warm sunshine and mild climate brings them to a size and quality which will rival the product of local growers many months from now. The tomatoes are selling at fifteen cents per pound. While the price is high the sensation of eating them in the cold month of February is worth the price and supply the wants of the luxury loving people. Cauliflower, cucumbers, radishes, lettuce and pea-pods are the most important summer delicacies that are being imported for people hungry for fresh vegetables, that a few years ago were not to be obtained during these months.

Janesville, Wis., Feb. 22, 1913.
Vegetables—Potatoes, 15c pk; 50c bu; cabbage, 5c@7c hd; lettuce, 5c bu; carrots 2c; beets, 2c lb; onions 4c lb; peppers-green 5c, red 5c; June 5c; celery, 10c stalk; red cabbage, 3c lb; squash (hubbard) 15c; round radishes, bunches 5c; flatplant, 10c lb; rutabagas, 2c lb; tomatoes, 15c lb.

Fruit—Oranges, 25@40 doz; bananas, 15c@20c; cranberries, 10c lb; apples (different kinds) peck and barrel, average $3.75 bbl; Baldwins, 40c pk; Spies, 50c pk; Swows, 35c pk; lemons, 40c dozen; grapefruit, 7c@10c, 3 for 25c; pineapples, 20c apiece.
Butter—Creamery, 40c; dairy, 35c; eggs 27c; cheese 22c@25c; oleomargarine, 20c lb; lard 15c@18c lb.

Nuts—English walnut, 20c lb; black walnuts, 25c pk; hickory nuts, 5c@6c lb; Brazil nuts, 15c; peanuts, 10c@15c lb; popcorn, 5c@6c.

Oysters—50c qt.
Fish—Trout, 15c; salmon, 15c@18c; halibut, 15c; pike, 10c; bullheads, 15c@16c; catfish, 15c.

WILSON'S BROTHER LONG A JOURNALIST

Joseph R. Wilson.

Joseph R. Wilson, a brother of President-elect Woodrow Wilson, has been in newspaper work for many years, and is now editor of a paper at Nashville, Tenn. Like Woodrow, Joseph takes a deep interest in politics. He is a native of Augusta, Ga., and is forty-six years old. His early education was at the Bingham Military School at Bingham, N. C., and later at the Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tenn., where his father was dean of the theological department. Joseph Wilson was recently nominated for the position of secretary of the U. S. senate, and it is expected that he will take up his residence at Washington.

Are You a Cold Sufferer?

Take Dr. King's New Discovery. The Best Cough, Cold, Throat and Lung medicine made. Money refunded if it fails to cure you. Do not hesitate—take it at our risk. First dose helps. J. R. Wells, Florida, Texas, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured my terrible cough and cold. I gained 15 pounds." Buy it at People's Drug Co.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO FEAR FOR LIVES AND PROPERTY; HAVE ALREADY SUFFERED

The Alexander family in Mexico; cane fields in distance.

The lives and property of thousands of Americans in Mexico are endangered by the present revolution. Several Americans have already been killed and considerable American property destroyed. The photograph shows Mr. Alexander, owner of the Dece Mill plantation at Tehuantepec, with members of his family and guests, and a view of his cane fields in the distance.

FORMER WIFE OF GROVER CLEVELAND AND HUBBY AT PALM BEACH ON HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Preston.

Probably the most notable of the society people gathered at Palm Beach, Fla., for the winter season are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr., who are spending their honeymoon at the southern resort. Mrs. Preston as the former Mrs. Cleveland, during the presidency of her late husband won a host of friends through the charm and grace of her role as the mistress of the White House.

"LAME DUCKS" EXERT BIG INFLUENCE IN THE CONGRESSIONAL CLUB ELECTION

Mrs. John E. Baker (top left), Mrs. Thomas P. Gore and Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher (right).

At the recent biennial election of the Congressional club at Washington, the membership of which is made up of the wives and daughters of the national legislators, Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, wife of the senator from Florida, was elected president. Although sixty of the Republicans who voted at this election will retire on March 4, they had considerable say in choosing officers, and elected a Republican first vice president, Mrs. Frank O. Briggs, daughter of the late Senator Frye of Maine. Two Democrats who won offices were Mrs. Thomas P. Gore, named as one of the vice presidents, and Mrs. John E. Baker, corresponding secretary.

Catherine Coleman and Carl Terrell.

Catherine Coleman, 13 and Carl Terrell, 16, two wide-awake girls of Memphis, Tenn., have started an exclusively girls' messenger service in their home town—positively the first of its kind anywhere. A dozen girls to be dressed in neat black suits with brass buttons and caps, each equipped with a bicycle, have been employed, and will be ready to deliver messages at a moment's notice any time during the day.

Electricity Healthful.
Auto factories are said to be healthful places for workmen because of electricity employed.

What Lincoln stood for?

Years of Suffering

Catarrah and Blood Disease—
Doctors Failed to Cure

Miss Mabel F. Watkins, 314 Lafayette St., Port Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrah and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrah."

Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

Parcels Post Maps Free

By paying your back subscription to the Daily Gazette and one year in advance, you can have one of the Parcels Post Maps free. If you are paid in advance, by paying another year the map is yours. Map is priced at $1.00, to Gazette patrons, 25c, or 35c by mail.

If you are out of a job, or would like to change your occupation, let a want ad do the soliciting for you.

DOLLAR DAY Wednesday February 26

The inaugurating of a Dollar Day is the result of a plan conceived by the Gazette Advertising Department and suggested by them to the merchants that they unite on one day of each year to offer the public an opportunity to buy the remnants of their winter stocks at prices as low as can be made.

No matter how careful a merchant may choose his stock, at the end of the season he will find a certain amount of LEFT OVERS, that for some reason have not been sold. In QUALITY, STYLE AND PRICE they are the equal of his BEST SELLERS. The only thing at fault with these goods is that THEY HAVE NOT BEEN SOLD.

But two courses are open. The price may be cut to a point where they will sell or they can be carried over until another season. No merchant wishes to carry over goods. Therefore at the end of each season one price reduction follows another until the stocks are clean.

Dollar Day Marks The Last Price Reduction

It is the grand finale of all the sales that have preceded it, and if the prices look so low that they seem hardly reliable, remember that they probably represent the last desperate effort of some merchant to sell you merchandise far below the cost to him rather than carry it into another season.

Gazette Special Dollar Day Editoin Mon- day Feb. 24

Both the daily and weekly of this date will carry a special edition of eight solid pages of Dollar Day advertising. Don't fail to secure a copy of this paper.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

SOME SAYINGS OF WASHINGTON.

ON LINCOLN'S birthday we always see a great many columns in the newspapers and magazines devoted to sayings of Lincoln. But did you ever see a column of sayings of Washington on the twenty-second of February?

I never did.

Undoubtedly this is because the genius of Washington is so totally different from that of Lincoln. The stately, aristocratic Virginian statesman could not, in the nature of things, be so shrewd, so human and so eminently quotable as the beloved sage of Illinois.

Nevertheless Washington really did say quite a few things. Below are some of them.

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace."

"To persevere in one's duty and be silent is the best answer to calumny."

"Labor to keep alive in your heart that little spark of celestial fire called Conscience."

"Let posterity cheer for us." (Said to have been spoken at the surrender of the sword of Cornwallis.)

"I hope I shall always possess firmness and virtue enough to maintain what I consider the most enviable of all titles, the character of an honest man."

"There is not a man living who wishes more sincerely than I do to see a plan adopted for the abolition of slavery." (Written to Robert Morris in 1786.)

"The aggregate happiness of society is, or ought to be, the end of all government."

"Associate with men of good quality if you esteem your reputation, for it is better to be alone than in bad company."

"I heard the bullets whistle, and believe me, there is something charming in the sound." (Written to his mother after first battle.)

"I need no guard but the affections of the people."

"Advance, sir, and deliver your word. I lie here to think and not to sleep." (Spoken to a sentry one night as he lay in his tent supposedly asleep.)

"Whether tonight or twenty years hence makes no difference. I know that I am in the hands of a good providence." (Said when he was seriously ill.)

THE KITCHEN CABINET

TALK happiness, the world is and enough.

Without your woes.

No path is wholly rough.

Look for places that are smooth and clear.

And speak to these, to rest the weary ear.

Of earth, to hurt by one continuous strain.

Of human discontent and grief and pain.

EVERY DAY LUNCHEONS.

A nice hot dish for a change is a pound or two of mutton, cut in pieces and browned in a little hot fat in the frying pan, then add a pint of sliced carrots and cook in a fireless cooker or on the extreme back of the stove, well covered, for two hours or more.

Just before serving, add a cup of canned peas. Season the meat after it is well browned, before the carrots are added, when water to cover is also added.

Another nice carrot dish is one cooked with peas, an onion and a bit of bacon. Cook the carrots, peas and onion until tender, add the bacon fried brown and cut in dice; add enough milk to make a sauce.

Liver With Onion Sauce.—Dredge thin slices of liver with seasoned flour and fry brown in pork fat. Put the liver on hot platter. Fry a cupful of chopped onions in the fat until a light brown. Add a tablespoonful of vinegar and pour over the liver.

Cabbage With Oysters.—Select a small heavy head of cabbage, cut a slice off the top and scoop out the interior carefully, leaving a thin shell. Shred the inner portion with an equal quantity of crisp celery or simply dress the salad with salt, vinegar and a few dashes of pepper. Fill the shell with fried oysters and serve with them the salad.

Bolled rice, cooked carefully so that every grain is distinct, and served with hot chocolate sauce, is a good dessert. Pig sauce is also very nice to serve as an accompaniment to bolled rice.

Nellie Maxwell.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE

THE MAIDEN'S DOUBT

In five minutes he would come for his answer.

In the garden of her magnificent mansion, where she had promised to receive him, the maiden pondered.

Should she or should she not? He was rather handsome, and his teeth, parted in the middle just the way she liked them. Still, one never can tell, one never can tell.

In three minutes he would come for his answer.

How time flies!

Should she or should she not? Rarely had she seen such well-mannered, cultured man as his. Still, one never can tell, one never can tell.

In one minute he would come for his answer.

Ah! here he is!

Silently, they met, and he gazed inquiringly into her eyes. She noticed how similar his eyebrows were.

"My answer is—yes," she said. "I will take you."

She continued, however, that if ever he was found quarreling with the other coachman he would be discharged on the spot.

Barbara Boyd.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Hearhound Candy.

This homemade candy is very good for a cold for children:

Two cups granulated sugar, one-fourth teaspoon cream tartar, three-fourths cup boiling water; flavor to suit taste with boardhead. Stir all together and let boil until it threads. Add piece of butter, size walnut, pour on buttered plate, let cool, pull until white, then pull into long string and cut with scissors.

For the Kiddies.

TO USE UP DISCARDED UNDERWEAR.—Cut out best parts and make children's underdrawers and mittens. Nice sweaters can be made for small children to wear under their coats. Make plain, and bind edges with some pretty color.

MITTENS FOR BABY.—Made from their little woolen stockings. Cut desired length from leg part, sew one end rounding. There is no seam at either side, nor any thumb; baby's hands keep warmer without. Can be made double, with any color inside; pretty made from white, pink and blue.

KEEP CHILDREN'S FEET DRY.—Before going out in wet weather or snow, rub mitten (allow well into the shoes) (melt it a little). Shoes will not become water-soaked, and will prevent many a cold. This also softens and preserves the leather.

Homemade Fire Extinguisher.

The nervous housewife who lives in constant dread of fire, may, with little trouble, make an extinguisher that will put out a blaze if used at once.

Put three pounds of salt in a gallon of water; to this add 1-2 pounds sal ammoniac.

This liquid should be bottled, and, when a fire is discovered, poured on immediately.

The Table.

EGGS AND CHEESE.—Allow one egg for each person and to every egg two teaspoons of grated cheese, half teaspoon butter, salt and pepper to taste. Butter pudding dish and sprinkle with half the cheese. Broil eggs in separate dish, one at a time and slip them on the cheese; sprinkle with salt and pepper; spread remainder of cheese over them and bake about 10 minutes, or until the whites of eggs are set.

CANNED STRAWBERRY PUDDING.—Drain juice from a quart can of strawberries and bring it to the boiling point. If there is one pint of juice, allow two heaping tablespoons cornstarch which has been wet with two tablespoons cold water and stir into the boiling syrup. Stir until smooth, then add juice of half a lemon, and set pudding where it will cook very slowly 20 minutes. Beat whites of two eggs stiff, then fold gently into hot mixture and turn all into buttered mold. Set away to become chilled. Serve with sweetened milk flavored with vanilla, and with each helping add a tablespoonful of the drained strawberries. This pudding is fit for a king and certainly cheap.

Barbara Boyd.

FEBRUARY 23

If Tomorrow is Your Birthday.

A pleasant journey or a fortunate turn in your affairs is foretold to you, but risks of money or games of chance will not favor you. A steady course is best.

Those born today will have energy and ambition and will persevere to

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—My hair is short and thin and there is quite a bit of dandruff in it. What can I do? (2)—How can I make my eyelashes grow? They are dark and thick but too short to suit me.

SIGNA.

(1)—Yellow vaseline rubbed well into the scalp is recommended. Castor oil is also good. Two or three times a week clean your brush (be sure it is clean) into oil and brush the hair well with it. Use an egg shampoo every two or three weeks. See that your general health is in good condition if you want a good head of hair. (2)—Put a tiny bit of vaseline along the edge of the eyelid, but be very careful; if any gets into the eyes they will become sore.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—I am a woman of 40 and weigh 250 pounds. I do lots of housework and walking but cannot reduce my fat. I eat most anything. What do you advise? (2)—I have swollen feet. What can I do for them? (3)—My sister's daughter weighs 205 pounds and cannot wear a corse. She is only 14. What can she do? (4)—I have four children. They get up at 8 a. m. and have breakfast about $3.00. This puts me back in my work. How can I make them get up early?

CONSTANT READER.

(1)—One good way to get thin is to eat just about half of the quantity you have been eating. Most people haven't the strength of will to do this. Take a dose of Epsom Salts before breakfast every morning, unless you find you can't stand it so often, then take them every other day. Take hot baths, dropping in two to two and a half pounds of Epsom Salts; sit in the bath for a little while. The water should cover your shoulders. Do not eat any sweets or fat-making foods. Don't lace your corse.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—We are two girls 14 years of age. Are we too young to go to chaperoned dances? (2)—Do you think dances given by the girls are proper? (3)—Are we too young to go to shows with the boys?

ROSEHEADS.

(1)—There is no harm in girls dancing in the proper surroundings and with the proper people. (2)—Answered in No. 1. (3)—I think so, my dears.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—We are two girls 16 and 17. We are deeply in love with a man of 47. He says he loves us both, although he is married. Our mother objects. We are still in (2)—Bathe them often in cold salt water. Does paint spoil the complexion? (3)—How can one remedy a pug nose?

ESTHER and ITZIE.

(1)—My dear girls, you are both old enough to know that a married man 47 years old is either teasing you when he says he loves you, or he is making fools of both of you. Your mother wants you to be good girls. I am sure, and you must be giving her a good deal of sorrow. (2)—Paint is a very bad taste. Nothing is so pretty as a young girl's fresh natural complexion. (3)—Can't do it.

Domestic Science DEPARTMENT

CONDUCTED BY Mrs. Alice Gitchell Kirk

seventh and eighth grades at school. Why not begin with them in the kindergarten? There is where they are ready to begin to use their hands. There are very first lessons which may be taught at home. Our little had six years old made most of the cookies today, even to standing on the step ladder chair and, with holder in hand, at least thought he was watching the oven. But I bear some one say "It is a bother" and "the must have been in the way." Well, may be that is true, but the appreciation of those cookies by him when done because he had a "hand in it," more than compensated for the trouble. Some one has said "Teach our girls first the care of the kitchen sink, garbage can, and broom, then so sure about that. Teach them order in their rooms, bureau drawers and closets, even when two or three years old or younger, in having a place for their toys, then that will quickly show itself in the kitchen when they have any work to be done there. They can begin with crumblers, or apple sauce, as they can core the apples, slice without peeling, cook and rub through a colander and sweeten. That is the best and easiest apple sauce made and I have had many a kindergarten or first grade child make it. So it can and should be done in the home in that beautiful close relationship of mother and daughter working together. Begin when young, and their hands and minds will grow and develop together, and not wait until they reach a certain age, when neither mentally nor physically are they interested in learning cooking.

There is no age when they are too young to begin nor too old to stop. There is a constant plea to broaden the work in the schools but this is a plea for creating every possible interest for our girls to learn to cook in the home.

Open to Question.

The head of a certain household is one of those Christians whose preaching always is in advance of his practice. One day he asked a beautiful grace before beginning a meal, then found fault with everything on the table. The meal concluded, he returned thanks with characteristicunction. The youngest daughter of the family pulled at her mother's sleeve. "Which does he believe, mamma, what he tells us or what he tells God?"

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS—"GASCARETS"

No Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Coated Tongue or Constipation.

Purred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which soon and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Here are some good books for country teachers: Gilman's "Country School Papers," Field—The Corn Lady; Kern—Among Country Schools; Carney—The Country Life and the Country School.

A fine old book for all country teachers to read with profit is Page's "The

UNCLE WALT

The Poet Philosopher

Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams

BY WALT MASON

The great men come and dance a white, and do their stunts and chortle; we watch their curves, admire their style, and say they are immortal. But when they're laid beneath the grass—our memories are rotten!—before a few brief seasons pass the great men are forgotten. The shining lights who died last year from human minds have flickered, and new immortals gambol where old ones toiled and flickered. That fame must like the rock be made if it has safely traveled down the length of a decade and is not ripened or raveled. 'Tis given to but few to forge a deathless reputation like that of our immortal George, the father of the nation. His shining virtues still engage the orator and writer; till time shall end each passing age will make the story brighter. In countless schools we teach the youth for helpful facts acquiring that "Washington" means honor, truth, and all that's worth admiring. In countless homes his pictured face is viewed with veneration; one man who never knew disgrace—the father of the nation: One man whose glory bears no stain—what conqueror's can match it? Beat at his white renown in vain. Time, with your little hatchet!

GEORGE'S BIRTHDAY

Discord influences you. Avoid the society of others unless you are sure you can refrain from disputes. Your best course is to give serious attention to your work, letting your recreation be outdoor activities, the reading of good books and cheerful meditation.

Those born today will be brilliant and talented, but impractical. This of course, can be remedied if understood in time. Their education should be broad and philosophic, with outdoor play and mechanical training.

Papa's Hopes.

Jack—"Your baby looks like its mother. It has her nose, eyes, mouth and ears." Pete—"Yes. I have hopes that it will look like me when it gets some teeth."

Rich Hair

Long, thick, heavy hair. Want this kind? Ayer's Hair Vigor promotes growth. Does not color the hair.

Ask Your Doctor.

The Manager

has to have a clear head to keep track of his hundred and one odd details. He and you and all persons who think must not let headache unfit you.

HICKS' CAPUDINE CURES HEADACHE

lets you think clearly—gets at the cause—heat, cold, nervousness or cramp.

Capudine is a liquid pleasant to take; quickly effective. It is not habit forming. When you can really cure it.

25c and 50c at druggists—trial size, 10c.

I CURE RUPTURE

of all varieties within a few days and prove to you that the cure is complete before I ask you to pay my fee. I do not use the knife, Paradin wax or add you false remedies or trusses. I employ the quickest, surest and sweetest cure known to Medical Science; no detention from business, besides should I fail to make the cure as agreed you do not owe me a single dollar. I have treated 17 years in this SPECIALTY and the hundreds of permanent cures are my references.

Write for particulars or call for FREE examination. Hours 9 to 5 daily (except Friday).

HAMLIN J. WALTERS, M. D. 116 N. Main St. Rockford, Ill.

PRACTICAL FROCK OF BLUE SERGE

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long sleeves are laid in box plaits along the outer side of the arm. Box plaits are laid in at the side of the waist, and these continue on the skirt simulating a tuning. Vest-sections of black satin finish the yoke of white point d'esprit, which is trimmed by a plaited jabot of white net. Cuff sections are of braid and satin.

Practical frock of dark blue serge trimmed with bands of black silk braid. The long

Side Lights On The Circus Business

By
D. W. WATT

(Copyrighted)

Years ago with both the Adam Forepaugh and the Barnum, shows there were many men known about the shows as "old timers." This meant that they had been there for years and it goes without saying that they were faithful servants or their places would have been filled long before by others. Many of these men bore fictitious names and one in particular was a Pennsylvania Dutchman, who was known by the name of "Front Door Ike."

It was like's business to put up and take down the main entrance to the show, to carry the ticket boxes back and forth to the ticket wagon and he was always there and faithful to his charge. I heard Mr. Forepaugh say one day, "Some of these old timers are like a mortgage on a farm. Hard to get rid of."

"Front Door Ike" heard him make this remark and he said, "Well Governor, I don't know much about mortgages, but I have been here long enough to see you make money enough to raise many a mortgage." Mr. Forepaugh said it only in a joking way for there was no man living that could take the place of "Front Door Ike."

It made no difference to Adam Forepaugh how old the men were. If they had been year drop them down if he thought their work was too hard and give them something easier, but their salaries always remained the same.

He was a thrifty German, always saved his money and had a few hundred dollars to put on interest every fall when the show closed. The Girard Hotel in Philadelphia was one of the first class hostilities in those days, and Ike always went there and worked as a porter during the winter.

It made no difference to the managers of the Girard Hotel how many men they had, when the show closed there was always room for "Front Door Ike."

On the workingmen's pay roll for both drivers and canvassers they not only had a name but a number and a few of them I still recollect, and when they would form in line every Saturday night to get their pay each man would call out his name and number. It was "Front Door Ike, Number 203."

A great many of these workingmen had nicknames which they went by around the show and also on the pay roll. There was one old timer around the show who went by the name of Bobby Burns. This name was given him because of his nationality. On the pay roll it was, "Bobby Burns, Number 1," and as Bobby was not a very thrifty saver he was usually the first one in line waiting for his week's salary, and I usually depended on hearing "Bobby Burns Number 1" when the pay roll was opened.

Some years after I quit the business, my wife and I were invited to Chicago, where Buffalo Bill's show was billed for a four week's engagement at the Coliseum. We were there as the guests of Joseph McAdden and his wife. Mr. McAdden being a brother of Mr. James A. Bailey, and manager of the Buffalo Bill show, of which Mr. McAdden owned half interest.

When the show was over we noticed an old stoop shouldered working man coming across the building with his soft hat under his arm and a smile on his face, and before he got very near to us he hollered out, "It's only Bobby Burns, Number 1."

After Bobby shook hands with us, and we had exchanged greetings, I asked him how old he was and how long he was going to stay in the business. Bobby said he would be 73 his next birthday, and that he should never quit the show business. There were always a few of these old characters around the show, and it would have been impossible for them to take up any other line of work, and in these days Adam Forepaugh and James A. Bailey were noted for looking after faithful servants of this kind who had spent the best part of their lives in their employ.

Many of these old men are given employment at the winter quarters, some of them as helpers to the repair men, and others as night watchmen, and various other jobs which they were competent to fill. Many of them had been there so long that although they were only workingmen they were valuable in the spring when it came to re-fitting the show for the road.

Another man who started out with Mr. Forepaugh in his career in the show business was Dan Taylor, who for over thirty years was boss canvasser. He had charge of putting up and taking down all the canvases, and after Mr. Forepaugh's death went to the Barnum show and later to the Ringlins.

Dan Taylor was here four years ago with the Barnum show and had charge of all the repair work of the wagons and canvases.

He was well posted on the price of everything in his department and anything that Dan Taylor O. K'd the price on, it went without saying that it was well bought.

He was then 78 years old and had been the show business practically all his life. His home was in Philadelphia, where he owned a nice home, and a wife and one daughter. In appearance he would readily pass for a much younger man.

Another character with the show for some years was a man by the name of Max. This was the only name that he was known by around the show. He was the man who took the part of the old farmer delivering his milk to the city condensed factory. Max had an old bony horse, a platform spring wagon well worn out, and a half a dozen milk cans.

It was his business to get mixed up in the parade and a disturbance would always call for some policeman to take care of the farmer and get him out of the way. If a policeman came near Max he would hit him over the head with his whip and say that he paid as many taxes as the average man, and he had a right to drive anywhere he pleased on the streets.

Max would always find the chief in the morning and tell him his stunt that he always pulled off and ask the chief if he had a new policeman or one on his staff that was always anxious to make arrests and if so to put him on a prominent corner where, when he put him under arrest the crowds would get it back on him. Many a time the policeman would drag Max off to jail and lock him up only to find out a little later that the joke was on him.

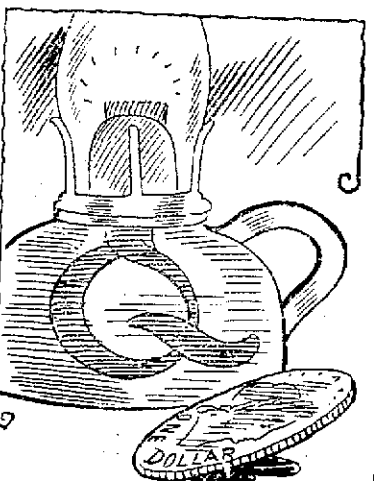

Max stayed with the show for several seasons during the summer and was always in demand with the museum in the winter. At different times Max had worked for several years for Cole and Middleton of Chicago, who owned several museums at that time, and I once heard Cole say to Max, "You never need to be without work. If you ever have an open day you can always drop in here and go to work."

Max was a nice gentleman, well educated and only 21 years old at the time, and was said to be one of the best in his peculiar line of work which in those days carried a good big salary with it. Max with the Forepaugh show never got less than $75 per week and all his expenses. I have not heard from him for some years and whether there is still a demand for his kind of work I cannot say, but whatever line he may be following it is safe to say that Max, the old milkman impersonator, does credit to it.

TAILOR MADE OF RED BROAD CLOTH.

A tailor-made suit of red broadcloth, with collar of crone satin and very fancy silver buttons.

What metal?

Want Ads are money savers.

GEORGE WASHINGTON NOT A PROGRESSIVE

DID NOT KNOW CONSTITUTION WAS DESTINED TO BECOME OBSOLETE SOON.

WANTED IN FORESIGHT

Dootrine Expounded in Farewell Address Applies to Mexican Situation—Random Comment.

(By Ellis B. Usher.)
Milwaukee, Feb. 22.—It is, possibly, a good thing, I suggest it with the humility of becoming "a back number," to remember that this is Washington's birthday. Of course Gen. Washington was president of the convention that formulated the constitution, which has until very recently, been considered by the world as Gladsstone expressed it—"The most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man." But neither Gladsstone nor Washington ever attended a state university, nor had they enjoyed the privilege of meeting Dr. Charlie McCarthy. Fortunately both died before the unhappy discovery that The Charter of Our Liberties was a pilable makeshift, and a damnable piece of the intellectual giants of the twentieth century. This too, notwithstanding the fact that Edmund Randolph's draft of a constitution, the first one presented to the convention, proposed the "recall" as to members of the house of representatives and Elbridge Gerry wanted it to apply to senators as well. The history of that convention comprehends some very "modern" discussion of democratic doctrines.

Perhaps too, with the week's developments in Mexico, and the fear in Democratic circles that Taft is preparing to "saw-off" the tariff question upon Woodrow Wilson, even more effectively than Roosevelt sawed it onto him, gives another advantage to the opportunity to consult history of Washington's time. The doctrine of the farewell address, which was largely homely advice to the American people to mind their own affairs, be just and fair, not be consulted, there might be some sentiments found applicable to Mexico. But as General MacArthur once said in my hearing, when the army was first repulsed on the Mexican border, it would take the entire army of the United States, years, to subdue Mexico and he likened the prospect to such a campaign as the handful of Apache Indians led our troops a quarter of a century back. But if Mr. Wilson comes into that sort of an inheritance it will postpone tariff reduction so that he, nor any other president who may succeed him, will be troubled with it for twenty years, at least. Instead of tariff reduction the country would require millions more to pay the cost of a new civil war, it was Gen. MacArthur's idea that, as in the Philippines, every inch of territory at the rear, would have to be garrisoned, as the army advanced into the mountain fastnesses of Mexico to deal with an enemy that would fight only a guerrilla war.

The week has developed anew the stair that the big leases of the Plankinton properties made last year. The question of the validity of these leases, came down on Wednesday, immediately the plans of the lessees were again gossip, and it is already predicted that the next two years will see millions of money put into the construction of modern business buildings. Last year the building figure exceeded $15,000,000, and it is already predicted that this year will be it. Some of this talk is mere gossip perhaps, but one thing is certain. When people from Cleveland came here and rented the Plankinton house property for 99 years, on a basis of ground value exceeding $7,000 a front foot, it made Milwaukee sit up, rub its eyes, pinch itself and realize that it is a great big city. If the average Milwaukeeer had been offered the lease on half that valuation he would have grinned and said: "Not for me."

But the fact is Milwaukee is a great manufacturing center, and growing tremendously. One third of the growth of the state, the last census decade, came here, and 1920 will see a city here of more than half a million.

This brings me back to a subject talked of in my last two letters. It is understood that the money behind the Plankinton deal, $4,000,000, is to be invested, it is said, in a new hotel, theater and office building, the Standard Oil money. Perhaps there's no more to that statement than the gossip incident to the fact that the lessee is a young man from Cleveland. But it is also significant that the Woolworth company recently leased a corner one block further up on Grand avenue, and a new department store is going into a new building across the street. The Standard Oil Corporation is looking for chances to build fine buildings in growing towns. "Big Business," as the term goes, is getting away from the regulated monopolies, and seeking to make the bread and the clothes, and do the washing for the public. I notice for instance, that the shipments of one clothing corporation, in another city, for the first week in February aggregated $629,777 and its shipments for January were over $1,200,000.

Even the farmer, who really needs little sympathy, except as his ready cry and large vote gets him attention, is beginning to drive money out of the public service business and in competition with himself. The leading editorial in the World's Work magazine this month says: "Now conditions are changing and the change will be permanent. Our population is fast gaining on the farm output. We need all we can grow; and farming is now and will remain a profitable business—that is to say, sufficiently remunerative to attract and to satisfy capable men. Under this new condition, which is a fundamental and revolutionary change, the land and will gradually go of its own accord because it will find such an investment profitable and it will become more and more profitable as population increases. And the danger here is of farming becoming so organized as to parallel the organization of 'Big Business.' We may have far too many absent proprietors such as already exist in Iowa, or a distinct tenant class as has already begun to appear in South Carolina."

It is just as certain that capital and brains can find reward in farming, if forced there, as anywhere else, and the farmers are inviting competition and are helping, beside, to pay the increasing burdens they clamor to have put upon all sorts of public service businesses.

Ohio is proposing to legislate to make easy the taking over by state or public utilities. Wisconsin cities are acquiring a number of properties of this sort. It is interesting in view of this plainly growing tendency to find a statement in a New York financial column, booming Canadian municipal utility bonds. But the boom overreaches, for he says that $300,000,000 of issues were "held over from last year" because they wouldn't sell at any satisfactory price. Speaking of placing them in New York or the states, it says:

"This is somewhat of a new departure, as heretofore all dominion loans have been taken by the Canadian or the London market. It will be known, however, that many Canadian municipalities have not well received the aid of the British melonolis, the most conspicuous instance being the Toronto $4,000,000 4% loan, only $600,000 of which was subscribed for and at a price that netted the city about 80. It is also significant that in selling bonds in London there are so many incidental brokerage levies and tax charges that the net prices are considerably diminished."

A player statement would be that London does not like the municipal ownership of public utilities as practiced in Canada. In the "tight little island," they have a good deal of municipal ownership, and they know that, even there, where parliament is the watching of everything, it is expensive. A lot of new cities in Canada have been going the limit in progressive ideas of public ownership, and they are beginning to pay the price.

An advertisement for Erie. Under this interesting head it is worth while to mention that this month's World's Work includes the pictures of our old Wisconsin friends, President F. D. Underwood of the Erie, President Daniel Willard of the B. & O. and President Albert Earling of the St. Paul, in an article on "The New Democracy of Business," in the United States. So Wisconsin has three representatives among this list. Mr. Underwood began life in the old elevator at Fort Howard. Mr. Willard was locomotive engineer on the "Soo" less than twenty years ago, and Mr. Earling began at a telegraph key on the St. Paul. All Wisconsin knows the men. They have been successful, but not by pulling other men down, and today, there's nothing in Mr. Underwood's job that gives him more pleasure than to work out plans to get Wisconsin business for the Erie, and take good care of it. I understand that the Erie Lake fleet is getting a great overhauling this winter, preparatory for next season's business. One thing Mr. Underwood is looking forward to, I suspect, is to be ready to handle the big business he is now preparing for, not only by improving the Erie on land and water, but by establishing offices all over the west and putting men in the field to make the Erie's facilities known everywhere. This isn't an "inspired" advertisement. The "Old Man," as the real railroad employees know him, would perhaps snarl me as bald-headed as he is himself if I should be within reach when it met his eye, but I'll not be. See?

Short Notes.
Needford, Mass. 3% has awarded an issue of $40,000 3% playground bonds to a Boston and Chicago bond house at $109.893 Wisconsin municipal bonds quoted by the same house, draw 4 1/2%, and were sold below par. "Mutt and Jeff," founded on "Bull" Fisher's inimitable character cartoons, will be at the Davidson all next week. Those who know say it's the funniest, musical nonsense on the boards.

Man's Superiority Early Shown.
Rude sculpture dating back, scientific authorities believe, at least 200,000 years, show that primitive man made representations of other creatures at a stage of human development when the conditions of existence were little in advance of those prevailing among the higher mammals of that period. But no other denizen of the earth manifested the slightest desire or ability to make images of anything.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE

THE CLUE
"You are a bartender," said the great detective, just as his visitor was opening his mouth to speak.
"How do I know?" interrupted the great detective, as indicated by the dash, "by the way you polished the arm of your chair when you sat down. Also by the bars on your shirt. Continue, or rather, begin, please."
"Every morning," said the bartender, biting his tongue nervously, "the very first thing I do upon arising is to look out the window and refresh myself with a glance of the magnificent oak tree that my great-grandfather planted more than two hundred years ago, when it was little more than an acorn. You cannot know, sir, what that tree has become to him. This morning, when I looked out of the window, it was not there. I rushed to you."

"How many windows are in your room?" asked the great detective, after regarding the third knuckle on his right hand steadfastly for a full half minute.
"Two."

"And which one did you look out of this morning?"
"With a glad shout the bartender tossed the great detective a season pass good on all schooners and burst from the room.

Being a Wallflower

"Were you ever a wallflower?" asked Mrs. Perkins of her neighbor, Mrs. Bottine. "But of course you never were," she added, generously. "I suppose it strikes you as funny. It isn't."

"I used to laugh myself about the poor forlorn things sitting in corners watching others dance," she continued. "I laugh no more. I, like you, thought that I should never be a wallflower, but being a wallflower is like lightning—one never knows where it will strike nor whom."

"Never mind when it happened. Perhaps my husband was to blame for not looking out for me. Still, I suppose the poor man thought the other men would swarm about me after he left me at the end of the first dance. The party being informal, there were no programs, so he had no chance to fill one out for me."

"Well, I sat cogitantly waiting to be asked for the second dance. Alas! I found I had arrived at the bargaining age, where one man makes a bargain with another like this: 'If you will dance the next dance with my wife I will dance with yours.' My husband had not known of my doleful lack of fascination for other men."

"Patiently and vainly I waited for a partner. Finally I saw a man I knew coming across the hall toward me. I half rose, smiling my most fascinating smile. He passed me unheeding, and asked another woman three seats away."

"Surely with the third number I would be asked to dance—hope dies hard! But the third and the fourth were like the second, and there I still sat. Dancing halls are beaten for dancers, not for wallflowers, so I began to feel chilly."

"While the fourth dance was in progress I still sat, every minute getting stiffer and stiffer from the cold, while I saw the other people dancing gayly by."

"One woman kindly asked: 'Aren't you dancing this evening?' To which I answered, 'Yes!'"

"But, oh joy! The fifth dance struck up, and lo, a partner! 'I did not mind if he was old and fat—and oh, how very fat he was! I did not mind if he could not dance. He, at least, would bring me on the floor with the others. I was so overjoyed at being chosen that I could hardly answer him. It was all I could do to refrain from clutching him wildly, so that he could not get away!'"

"I wish I could describe that mad waltz. Novelists have pictured waltzing as floating around the hall with heart and feet attuned to the pulsing, throbbing music. Our waltz wasn't like that. My partner began turning round and round, like a dervish, until my head spun like a top. Now he would step on my toes and then he would maddly bump me first into one couple and then into another. But the finest gold has its alloy. One must take the bitter with the sweet. I was, at least, getting warmed up."

"As for my partner, what was my suffering compared with his? His face was purple, his collar was limp and his breath was coming in quick, husky jerks. At last I became alarmed. What if he should have a fit?"

"Hadn't we better walk for a while?" I asked him.

"No," he answered. "No! I'm dancing for exercise. In summer I ride a wheel and in winter I dance to keep down my fat!"

"Oh, why are hope and faith so strong? Why didn't I then go to the dressing room, instead of being led to a seat again, to sit and watch and sit and watch the dancers?" "But I repeat that hope dies hard."

"Each time a man came my way I smiled, whether I knew the creature or not. It was no use. The revelry went on, and through it all I sat and sat and sat."

"Little by little I moved nearer to the radiator until I found a seat beside it. Oh, how good the heat felt to my stiff neck and my rheumatic knee! It was past my bedtime now and I began to feel sleepy."

"At last the warmth, the music, the laughter and the throbbing of the dancers' feet all mingled, and I saw nothing, heard nothing!"

"My goodness! Had I been asleep? Had anyone seen me? Oh, my stiff neck, how it hurt!"

"Suddenly I saw my husband coming across the hall. Should I tell him how I had passed the evening?" "No! No! I would not own up!"

"Smiling, I rose to my feet as he came near. He said: 'I have danced every dance this evening. I am dead tired, and I know you are. Don't you want to go home?'"

"Smiling still, I answered: 'Yes, home sounds very good to me, for I, too, am very tired.'"

"I tried not to limp as I crossed the floor, but my knee gave me ugly twinges."

"Why are you leaving so early?" our friends asked.
"Still heroically I smiled, even as I lied: 'We have danced so hard that we are tired out.'"

Optimism?

Tommy—Our Sunday school is to have a picnic next Saturday.
Dick—Good!

Tommy—Why do you say that? Are you going?
Dick—Nope. But that means there'll be a double header at the ball park next day!

Dr. King's New Discovery
Soothes irritated throat, and lungs stops chronic and hacking cough, relieves tickling throat, tastes nice. Take no other; once used, always used. Buy it at People's Drug Co.

Dinner Stories

A certain Knight of Spain—where the long names come from—arrived late one evening at a wayside inn in France and knocked for a long time on the door before he succeeded in rousing the landlord.

"Then?" "Who is there?" cried mine host, thrusting his head through a window.

"Don Juan Pedro," replied the traveler, "Fernandez Rodriguez de Villanova, onit de Malafia, Knight of Santiago and Alcantara."

"Sorry, but I haven't room for all of you!" exclaimed the landlord. "Better try ten miles further on!"

And he closed the window with a bang.

In a Kansas town where two brothers are engaged in the retail coal business a revival was recently held, and the elder of the brothers was converted. For weeks the brother who had "got religion" tried to persuade the other to join the church. One day he asked:

"Why can't you join the church, like I did?"

"It's a fine thing for you to belong to the church," replied the younger brother. "If I join the church who'll weigh the coal?"

"At last, Henry, the question of votes for women is to be submitted to the people."

"So I see."

"Henry, you will admit that women are as intelligent as the men."

"Freely I admit that."

"And that as women pay taxes, they ought to have a say as to how their money is to be spent."

"That seems reasonable. But let us discuss the suggestion. I earn the money we have, don't I?"

"Yes."

"But do I have any voice in how that money is to be spent?"

A few minutes later he put on his hat and coat and left the house, regretting that he had given that twist to the argument.

SOCIETY GIRLS WILL WEAR SIMPLE COSTUMES IN THE SUFFRAGE PAGEANT

Miss Katherine Hurst and Miss Edna Stahl in their suffrage pageant costumes.

Numerous society girls, all dressed in the "Women Farmers." At least fifty of these will make up one will be seen in the big suffrage page division. Miss Stahl is wearing the pant at Washington on March 2. The picture shows two of them. Miss Hurst (name of the fifty society girls pages, 11st is seen dressed in the brown uniform) both have caps to match.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF PRINCE BISMARCK PLANS EARLY VISIT TO THIS COUNTRY

Countess Hannah Bismarck, the charming granddaughter of the late great chancellor of Germany, Prince Bismarck, who cemented the German provinces into the empire. She is now on her first visit to England and it is believed will visit the United States.

Startling Sight.

Soon after the installation of the telegraph in Fredericksburg, Va., a little dandy saw a piece of newspaper that had blown up on one of the telegraph wires and caught there. Running to the house in a great state of excitement, he cried: "Miss Liza, come quick! Dem wires done buss and done let all the news out!"

As it is Talked in Boyville.
Two Fort Scout boys were quarreling. "I'll knock your block off if you bother me," one of them said. "No you won't," replied the other, "you can't do it. You ain't man enough."

"Well, maybe not," answered the first belligerent, "but I'm just tellin' you that I'm dern fool enough to try it if you give me any more of that talk."

Want Ads are money savers.

THE HIGH TIDE OF THE CONFEDERACY

That the battle of Gettysburg was one of the world's greatest conflicts is recorded by historians. It marked the high tide of the confederacy, an invasion of the northern country by the southern host, a battle fought by seasoned soldiers of three years' campaigning, with the ablest of the southern generals, the cream of the southern army in the ranks. The victory won by the northern army was a dearly bought victory and after three days of fighting Lee led his boys in grey to the southland again with his crippled foe, too weak to inflict serious damage.

The map which accompanies this article is one which was found among the papers of the late Major Andrew J. Ward, surgeon of the Second Wisconsin, which was engaged in this bloody battle. The late General Lucius Fairchild commanded the regiment in the fight and it was here he lost his arm. In the first day of the conflict, many Rock county men took part in the battle and the map will be of interest to them as well as others. The great fight took place fifty years ago, July 1st, 2d and 3d.

The map shows the line of battle on the morning of July 2d. It was prepared by Capt. William H. Wilcox on the staff of Major General Reynolds, one of Pennsylvania's brave citizen soldiers who lost his life in the fighting of the first day. The southern army had possession of the little village of Gettysburg and the heavy lines show their line of battle.

west of Gettysburg. Both sides were heavily reinforced and Ewell who eventually commanded the Confederates in person, succeeded in driving back the federals under Reynolds, Doubleday, Howard and Hancock.

On the second day Meade brought up his whole army into a stronger position along Cemetery hill, while the Confederate's occupied Seminary ridge in a long convex line. Longstreet was at the right, Hill in the center, and Ewell at the left. At four o'clock Longstreet made an attack on Sickles driving his troops back with a heavy loss. Ewell began an attack on the federal right at sunset and our vigorous and desperate fighting made an important advance. The Confederates failed to hold the ground made on the second day, however, and were driven back early the next morning.

On the 3rd Lee determined to break, if possible, the federal center and delegated the divisions commanded by Pickett, and Pettigrew, with Wilcox to cover Pickett's flank, to break into the middle of the federal entrenchments. About one o'clock a terrific cannonade began and a little later the federals ceased firing. Lee supposed this was a sign of weakening or that their guns were useless, when in reality General Hunt was disposed to save ammunition and to cool his guns. The three Confederate divisions then advanced and met unflinchingly the storm from the federal batteries. Pickett even succeeded in taking the ### Presbyterian Church.

Presbyterian Church—Corner Wall and Jackson streets. Rev. J. W. Laughlin, pastor.
Morning worship:—10:30.
Evening worship:—7:30.
Sabbath school: I. E. Wortendyke, superintendent.

Subject for the morning sermon: "The Good in Socialism."
"A Day in Thy Courts"..... Rogers
Chorus Choir.

Solo—"There is a Land"..... Crownsfield
Miss Lulu Severin.
Subject for the evening sermon: "Why I Am a Protestant." The evening sermon will deal with the fundamental difference between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism.

"When Power Divine"..... Faure
Chorus Choir.
Solo—"The Mountains Shall Depart"..... McDermid
Miss Margaret McCulloch.

Entertainment by Mrs. Chilton
Wednesday evening.
Mid-week meeting Thursday evening. Topic: "God's Covenant With Abraham."

To all these services the public is cordially invited.

United Brethren Church.

Church of the United Brethren in Christ—Corner Milton and Prospect avenues. Rev. C. J. Roberts, pastor.

Practical Service. Leader, Miss Bell Campbell. Music by the orchestra. Good program. Everyone invited.
Sacred concert and sermon:—7:30 p. m.

"Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me"..... Schnecker
Violin Duet—"Ave Verum"..... Mozart
Mrs. Nichols and Vernon..... Wilcox.

Solo—"Shadow Land So Beautiful"..... Bird
Mr. Doane.

Short personal talk to young people on "The Call of the Wild," by Jack London.

"To the Day of Rest Declined"..... Schnecker
Service closes on time. You are invited.

Teachers' training class Monday evening:—7:30. Lecture course:—8:30.
Prayer meeting Thursday evening.

Christian Science Church.
First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in its church edifice, corner Pleasant and South High Sts. Sunday morning at 10:30 and Wednesday evening at 7:45.

The subject of the lesson sermon Sunday morning will be, "Mind." Sunday school meets at 12:00 noon. Reading room, in rear of church, entrance on South High street, open daily, except Sunday and holidays, from 2 to 4 p. m.

St. Peter's English Lutheran.
St. Peter's English Lutheran Church—Corner Jackson and Center Sts. Rev. E. O. Hoffmeister, pastor.

Morning service:—11:00 a. m.
Sunday school:—9:15 a. m.
Evening service:—7:30 p. m.

A cordial welcome is extended to all to attend these services.

Christ Church—Episcopal.
Christ Church, Episcopal. The Rev. John McKinney, A. M., rector.
The third Sunday in Lent.
Holy Communion:—8:00 a. m.

Morning prayer, litany and sermon:—10:30 a. m.
Sunday school:—12:00 noon.
Evening prayer and sermon:—4:30 p. m.

Monday—Feast of St. Matthias.
Morning prayer:—10:00 a. m.
Lenten services daily at 4:15 p. m.

Meetings of parochial organizations as usual.

Cargill Methodist Church.
Cargill Methodist Church. Rev. T. D. Williams, minister. Miss Hattie Kissell, deaconess.

9:45—Class meeting. S. Richards, leader.
10:30—Sermon by pastor: "Abraham's Faith."
Music by chorus choir in charge of Miss Sewell.

Anthem—"God, Who, Madest Earth and Heaven"..... Schnecker

Quartet—"God So Loved the World"..... Stainer
Dr. F. T. Richards, Miss Sewell, Mrs. Doane, Dr. S. F. Richards.

7:30—Patriotic service: "The Pastor's Pilgrimage to Washington's Tomb." Patriotic anthems and hymns by Young Peoples' Chorus—"America," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "The American Flag"..... Keller
Sunday school:—11:45. T. E. Benison, sup.

Junior League:—3:00 p. m.
Epworth League:—8:30 p. m. Mrs. Collett, leader. Subject: "The Social Motive—Love." The pastor will give a ten minute address on "Missions."

Pentecostal service Tuesday:—4:00 p. m.
Prayer meeting Thursday:—7:30 p. m.

All invited to all services.

Trinity Episcopal Church.
Trinity Episcopal Church—Rev. Henry Willmann, rector.
Third Sunday in Lent.

Holy Communion:—7:30 a. m.
Sunday school:—9:30 a. m.
Litany, Holy Communion and sermon:—10:30 a. m.

Evening sermon:—7:30 p. m.
Monday—Festival of St. Matthias, the apostle. Holy Communion:—9:00 a. m. Evensong:—4:30 p. m.

Tuesday—Holy Communion:—9:00 a. m. Meeting of Woman's Auxiliary at home of Mrs. C. E. Ranous:—2:30 p. m.

Wednesday—Evensong and sermon:—7:30 p. m.
Thursday—Holy Communion:—7:30 a. m.

Friday—Evensong:—4:30 p. m.
Saturday—Holy Communion:—9:00 a. m.

St. John's German Lutheran.
St. John's German Evangelical Lutheran Church—Corner North Bluff and Peace Court. S. F. Fuchs, pastor.

Sunday school:—9:45 a. m.
Morning service:—10:30 a. m.
Funeral of Mrs. H. Storm:—2:30 p. m.

Lenten service:—7:30 p. m.
You are cordially invited to attend these services.

St. Mary's Catholic.
First Mass 8:00 a. m.; second Mass 10:30 a. m.
St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church—Rev. Wm. Goebel, pastor.

Vespers and benediction at 7:30 p. m.

St. Patrick's Catholic.
St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church. Corner of Cherry and Holmes Sts. Dean E. E. Reilly, pastor. Rev. Wm. Mahoney, assistant pastor. Residence 315 Cherry Street.

First Mass. 7:00 a. m.; second Mass 8:30 a. m.; third Mass 10:30 a. m.

Eye-glass Screws.
If the tiny screws that hold your eye-glass lenses in place will not stay tightened and you are far away from a jeweler, tighten them with a pen knife and drop a bit of glue on them. When this hardens the screws will not work loose for many weeks.

THE GAZETTE PARCEL POST MAPS READY FOR DELIVERY

THE GAZETTE PARCEL POST MAPS are now ready for distribution. These maps were engraved and printed by one of the largest map publishing concerns in the United States. The Gazette has had considerable difficulty in obtaining a map that would meet the approval of postal authorities and finally had a map printed according to special specifications.

THIS IS A GOOD MAP OF THE UNITED STATES IN ADDITION TO SHOWING ALL THE POSTAL UNITS AND ZONES. IT IS SPECIALLY PRINTED FOR ALL POST OFFICES AND THEIR RURAL ROUTES IN UNIT 2263. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST YET PUBLISHED FOR GENERAL USE. THE FIRST ZONE, ABOUT WHICH THERE HAS BEEN SO MUCH DISPUTE, IS INDICATED BY A QUADRANGLE, SO THAT THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT ABOUT WHAT CONSTITUTES THIS ZONE.

THE MAP CONTAINS A CLEAR AND CONCISE EXPOSITION OF THE PARCEL POST RULES AND REGULATIONS, RATES AND METHODS OF PACKING GOODS FOR SAFE SHIPMENT; IT ALSO GIVES A LIST OF ALL CITIES IN THE UNITED STATES OF OVER 3000 POPULATION AND THE PARCEL POST UNIT FOR EACH.

THE MAP IS GUARANTEED TO CHECK WITH THE GOVERNMENT PARCEL POST GUIDE, AND CAN BE USED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH AS EASILY AS THE GOVERNMENT MAP.

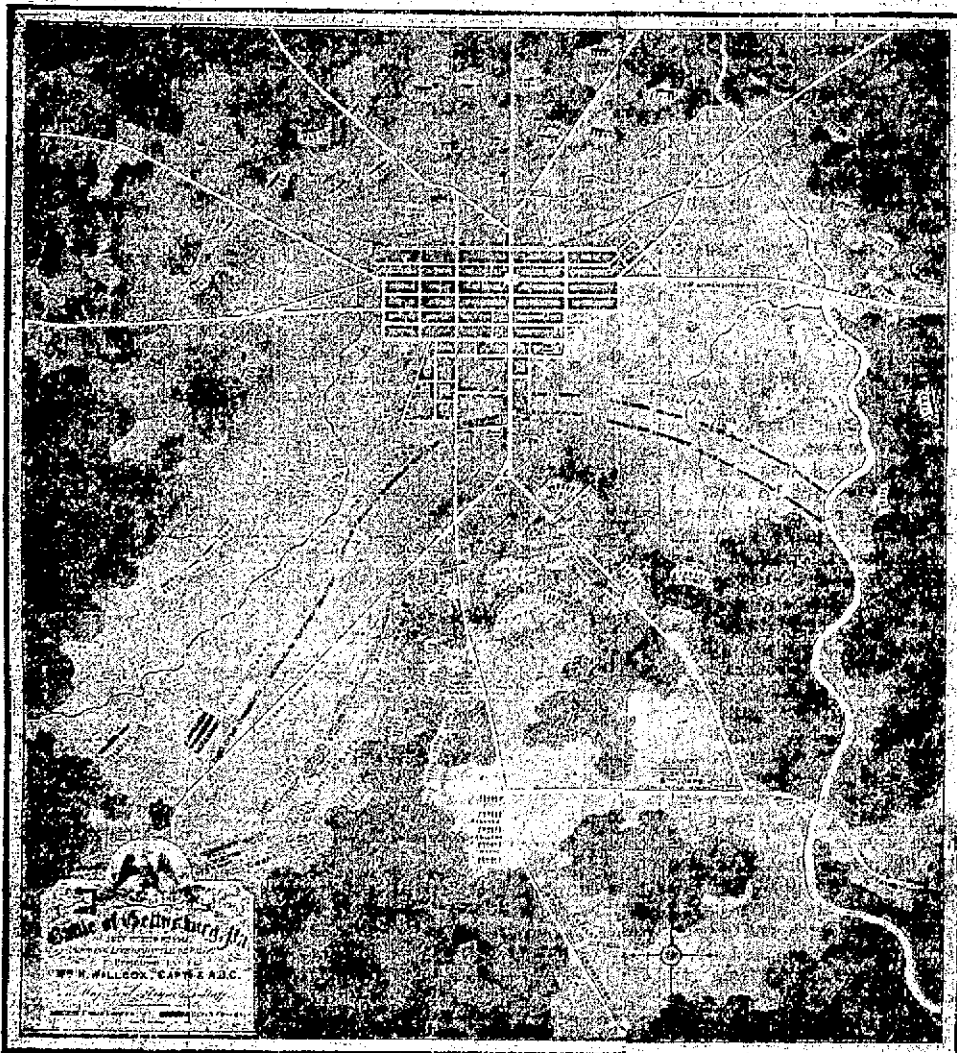

THE GAZETTE PARCEL POST MAP WILL BE SOLD AT A NOMINAL PRICE OF 25 CENTS WHEN CALLED FOR AT THE OFFICE, OR IT WILL BE MAILED FOR 35 CENTS.

IF YOU WISH TO PAY A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION IN ADVANCE, WE WILL SEND YOU PARCEL POST MAP

FREE

IF YOU ARE PAID IN ADVANCE NOW, PAY ANOTHER YEAR AND SECURE THE MAP.

GAZETTE PRINTING COMPANY

THE HEAVIER LINES SHOW THE POSITION OF LEE'S ARMY WHILE THE LIGHTER TRACINGS, IN THE CENTER, ARE THOSE OF THE UNION FORCES UNDER GENERAL MEADE.

The union forces are in the center of the picture, indicated by the lighter tracings.

Had Lee been successful, had he driven the army under Meade from the battlefield a defeated force, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and even New York, would have been at his mercy. In fact, home guards were hastily organized in all these cities to protect, if possible, the cities from a southern invasion. It was a strenuous three days and pivotal in the history of the war.

The significance of the defeat of the Confederate army at Gettysburg, lay in the fact that the hope and power of the South was broken. General Lee had marshaled his forces for the crucial campaign of the rebellion and defeat in the hardest battle of the war was a death-dealing blow to Southern aspirations.

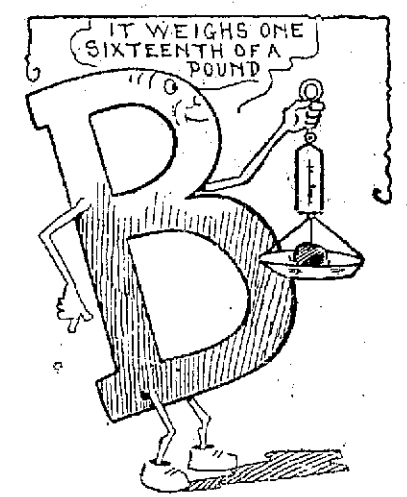

In the Gettysburg campaign, Lee had in mind the capture of Harrisburg, capital of one of the greatest northern states; he even foresaw the possibility of taking Philadelphia and by a swift movement to the north he might have New York at his mercy. Washington might not have been a hard city to take if he had crushed the Army of the Potomac under Meade and the Confederate cause would have been advanced an immeasurable distance.

England, already leaning toward the south in the struggle, might throw her influence entirely to the Confederacy and recognize it as an independent state if Lee had won. It was Lee's great move, and he knew it. He held his own in the preliminary campaigns and he felt ready to risk all in the most important battle of the war.

Lee's army of 70,000 was reorganized into three corps under Longstreet, Hill and Ewell. On June 15, 1863, the vanguard of the army crossed the Potomac and entered Pennsylvania, the Longstreet and Hill Corps following a week later. At this move Hooker hurried across the Rappahannock to follow Lee and the cover Washington. He crossed the Potomac but was very soon relieved of his command and General Meade was placed in charge of the federal army.

It was plain that one of the hardest battles of the war would follow. Meade with his 55,000 men was anxious to keep on the defensive, while Lee also did not care to take the initiative. It is a remarkable fact that the engagement was precipitated by a slight skirmish at a point which neither general would have chosen for a battle. On July 1st, a section of Meade's cavalry and a division of Lee's corps, along Willoughby run, 125, or 350 by mail.

first federal line but he and Pettigrew lost fully two thirds of their men and they were helpless. It was one of the greatest charges of history. Lee began to retreat on the 5th after suffering a loss of 23,000. The federals lost about 23,000.

Slang for 'to discharge'?

What fish?

Parcel Post Maps Free with a year's subscription to the Daily Gazette. Value of the map, $1.00. They are on hand at Baker's Drug Store and Gazette office or to Gazette patrons, also at Hill's corps, along Willoughby run, 125, or 350 by mail.

Preaching:—11:00 a. m. Subject: "Climbing Upward Versus Slipping Downward."

Preaching:—7:00 p. m. The Sunday evening sermon is the seventh and last of the series of sermons on "Marriage and the Home." The subject will be: "Home, the Earthly and the Heavenly."

Sunday school:—10:00 a. m. A class for everybody.

Christian Endeavor:—8:00 p. m. Subject: "Medical Missions."

The teachers' training class meets Monday evening.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening. The public are most cordially invited to all services.

First Congregational Church.
First Congregational Church—Corner of South Jackson and Dodge Sts. Rev. David Benton, A. M., minister.

Services at 10:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Subject of morning sermon by Dr. Benton: "A Candid Confession of Faith."

Musical numbers—Quartet—"My Soul Longeth"..... Mursden
Duet—"Oh Loving Voice".....

Miss Doran and Mr. Miller.
Vespel Lecture service:—4:30 p. m. Lecture by Dr. Benton: "The Characteristic Service Rendered by the Presbyterian Church to the Kingdom of God." This is the second of a series of lectures on the contribution which the great Protestant churches have made to civil and religious progress and betterment.

Quartet..... Selected
The Sunday school meets at 12:00 noon. Church service at 10:30 a. m. London.

Kindergarten meets in the morning at 10:30. Parents requested to send children under seven years.

The public are cordially invited to these services.

First Baptist Church.
First Baptist Church—Corner of Jackson and Pleasant streets. Rev. Joseph Chalmers Hazen, pastor.

Regular Sunday morning worship:—10:30. Sermon subject: "Faith and Doubt."
"Hallelujah Fairest Morning"..... Foulis
Solo—"Abide With Me"..... Ashford

Miss Lulu Brown, instructor of music at State Institute for the Blind.

Sunday school:—12:00 noon. A class for everyone. Music by the orchestra.

Young Peoples' Society:—8:30 p. m. Topic: "The Ideal Christian—His

We Want You to Know

That it will not pay you to take a dividend paying policy, with estimated values and estimated dividends. We know that our GUARANTEED POLICY with no dividends and no estimated value, but giving you a lower rate of premium IS THE BEST. The following comparison between a Dividend Policy on the Whole Life Plan in one of the leading companies and our no-dividend policy on the TWENTY PAYMENT PLAN will prove it to you. Notice the difference. The premium almost the same. The other policy you pay as long as you live. On our policy you only pay 20 years. OURS IS THE BEST.

WHOLE LIFE POLICY $1000.00 (Participating Plan)				TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY $1000.00
	35	45	55		35	45	55
Annual Premium Payable for Life.....	$ 28.11	$ 39.55	$ 60.72	Annual Premium payable for 20 years $	30.00	38.55	53.81
Guaranteed Values end of Tenth Year:				Guaranteed Values end of Tenth Year:
Cash or Loan Value .....	146.00	212.00	290.00	Cash or Loan Value .....	221.00	277.00	330.00
Paid-up Life Policy .....	289.00	348.00	401.00	Paid-up Life Policy .....	484.00	489.00	480.00
Guaranteed values end of fifteenth year:				Guaranteed values end of fifteenth year:
Cash or Loan Value .....	233.00	327.00	427.00	Cash or Loan Value .....	384.00	472.00	547.00
Paid-up Life Policy .....	420.00	490.00	550.00	Paid-up Life Policy .....	755.00	753.00	733.00
Guaranteed values end of twentieth year:				Guaranteed values end of twentieth year:
Cash or Loan Value .....	327.00	441.00	551.00	Cash or Loan Value .....	566.00	688.00	800.00
Paid-up Life Policy .....	537.00	610.00	668.00	Paid-up Life Policy .....	1000.00	1000.00	1000.00

Why buy a Whole Life Policy with above guarantees and "dividends" or "refunds" of uncertain amount, when you can secure a more liberal Twenty-Payment Life Policy on the ALL GUARANTEED plan at APPROXIMATELY THE SAME OR A LOWER RATE.

EVERY line in this policy is absolutely GUARANTEED. There is no speculation or disappointment.

C. P. BEERS

AGENT

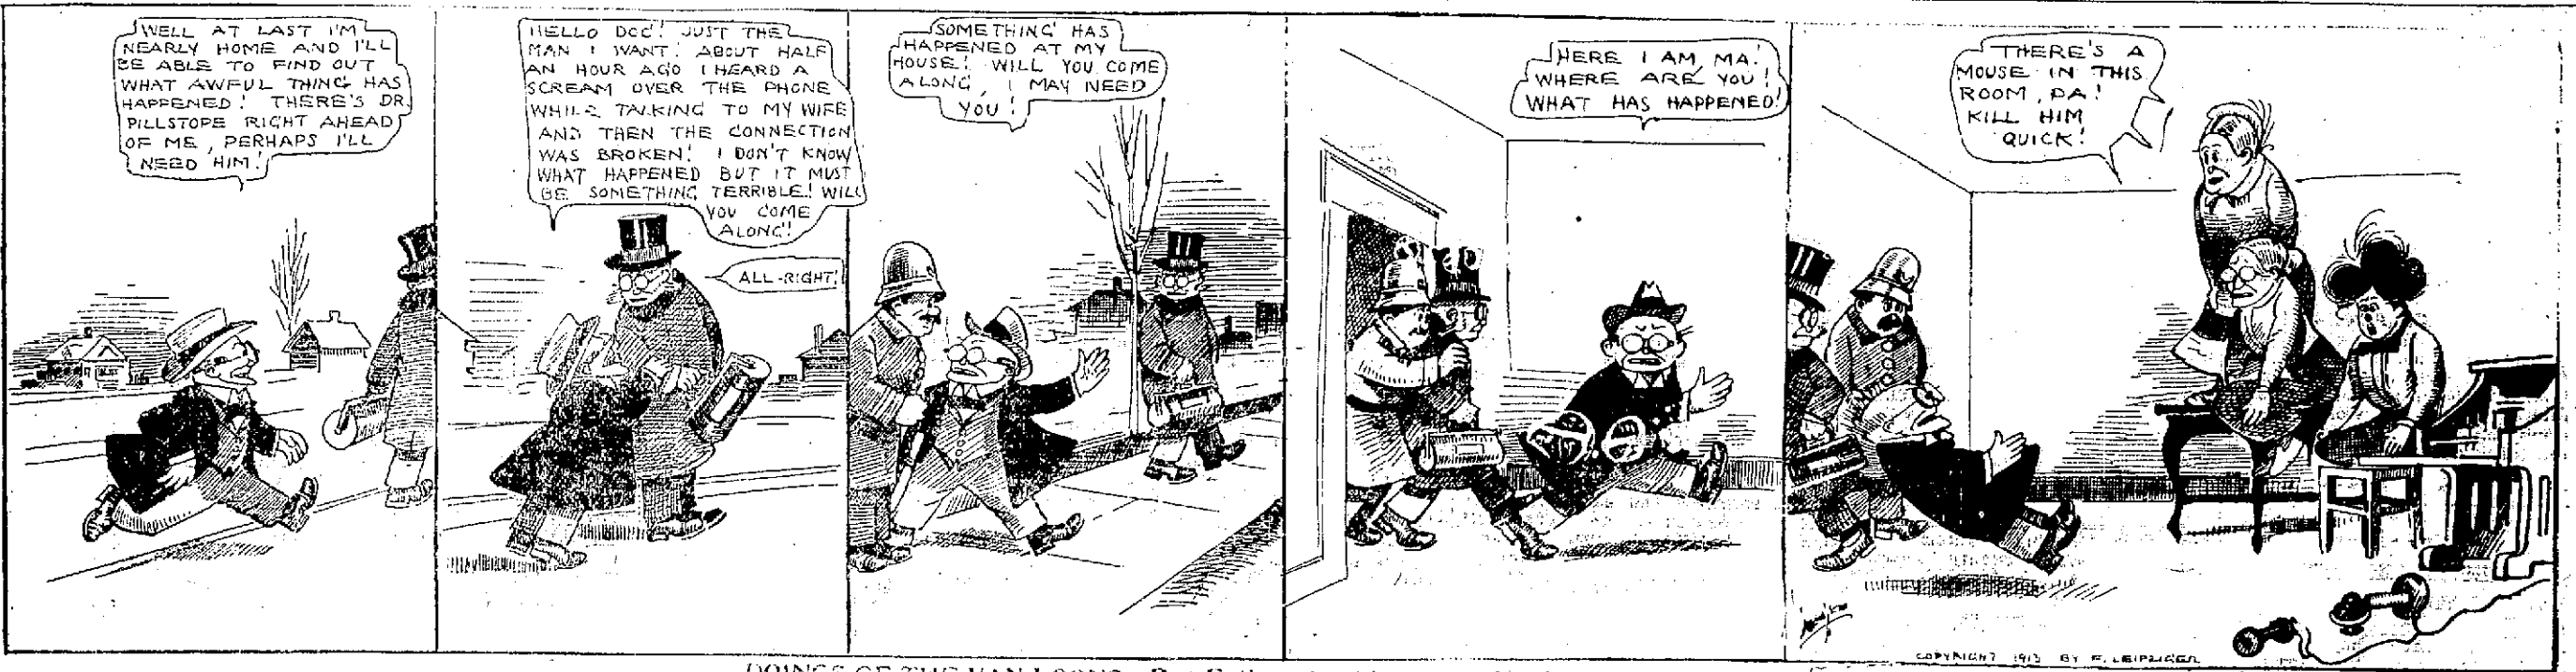

2nd Floor, Jackman Blk.

Both Phones.

When You Think of Insurance Think of C. P. BEERS.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—But Father should be glad that it was nothing worse.

The STOLEN SINGER

by MARTNA BELLINGER

Melanie's words, spoken in their long interview in the New York home, had contained an element of truth. There was a poignant sincerity in her saying, "You do not love me enough," which touched Aleck to the center of his being. He was not niggardly by nature; and had he given stintingly of his affection to this woman who was to him the best? His whole nature shrank from such a role, even while he dimly perceived that he had been guilty of acting it. If he had been small in his gift of love, it was because he had been the dupe of his theories; he had forsworn gallantry toward women, and had unwittingly cast aside warmth of affection also.

But such a condition was, after all, more apparent than real. In his heart Aleck knew that he did love Melanie "enough," however much that might be. He loved her enough to want, not only and not mainly, what she could give to him; but he wanted the happiness of caring for her, cherishing her, rewarding her faith with his own. She had not seen that, and it was his problem to make her see it. There was only one way. And so, in forgetting himself, forgetting his wants, his comforts, his studies and his masculine will—herein was the blossoming of Aleck's soul.

Melanie instinctively felt the subtle change, and knew in her heart that Aleck had won the day, though she still treated their engagement as an open question. Aleck would read to her in his simple, unaffected manner, sometimes with Madame Reynier and Mr. Chamberlain also for audience, sometimes to her alone. And since they lived keenly and loved, all books spoke to them of their life or their love. A line, a phrase, a thought, would ring out of the record, and each would be glad that the other had heard that thought; sometimes they would talk it all over. They learned to laugh at their own whimsical prejudices, and then insisted on them all the harder; they learned, each from the other, some bit of robust optimism, some happiness of vision, some further reach of thought.

After they had read, they would play at quarts, struggling sternly against each other; or Chamberlain would examine Melanie in nautical lore; or together, in the evening, they would trace the constellations in the heavens. During their first week they were in the edge of a storm for a night and a day; but they put into harbor where they were comfortable and safe, and merry as larks through it all.

So, day by day, Aleck hedged Melanie about with his love. Was she thoughtful? He let her take, as she would, his thoughts, the best he could give from his mature experience. Was she gay? He liked that even better, and delighted to cap her gaiety with his own queer, whimsical drolleries. Whatever her mood, he would not let her get far from him in spirit. It was not in her heart to keep him from her; but Aleck achieved the supermundane feat of making his influence felt most keenly when she was alone. She dwelt upon him in her thoughts more intensely than she herself knew; and that intenseness was only the reflection of his own thought for her.

They had been sailing a little more than a week, changing the low, placid Connecticut fields for the rougher northern shores, going sometimes farther out to sea, but delighting most in the sweet, pine-fringed coast of Maine. There were no more large cities to visit, only small villages where fishermen gathered after their week's haul or where slow, primitive boat-building was still carried on. Most of the inhabitants of the coast country appeared to be farmers as well as fishermen, even where the soil was least promising. The aspect of the shores was that of a limited but fairly prosperous agricultural community. Under the shadow of the hills were staid little homes, or fresh-painted smart cottages. Sometimes a bold rock-bank formed the shore for miles and miles, and the hills would vanish for a space. Here and there were headlands formed by mighty boulders, against which the waves endlessly dashed and as endlessly foamed back into the sea.

Such a headland loomed up on their starboard one evening when the sun was low; and as the plumes of spray from the incoming waves rose high in the air a rainbow formed itself in the fleeting mist. It was a fairy picture, repeating itself two or three times, no more.

"That's my symbol of hope," said Aleck quite impersonally, to anybody who chose to hear.

Mr. Chamberlain turned to Aleck with his ready courtesy. "Not the only one you have received, I hope, on this charming voyage."

Madame Reynier was ready with her pleasant word. "Aren't we all symbols for you—if not of hope, then of your success as a host? We've lost our aches and our pains, our nerves and our troubles; all gone overboard from the Sea Gull."

"You're all tremendously good to me, I know that," said Aleck, his slow words coming with great sincerity.

Melanie kept silence, but she remembered the rainbow.

The headland was the landward end of a small island, one part of which was thickly wooded. A large unused house stood in a clearing, evidently once a rather pretentious summer residence, though now there were many signs of dilapidation. The pier on the beach had been almost entirely beaten down by storms, and a small, flimsy slip had taken its place, running far down into the water. A thin line of smoke rose from the chimney of one of the outbuildings; and while they looked and listened the raucous cry of a peacock came to them over the still water. Presently Chamberlain suggested:

"I feel it in my bones that there'll be lobsters over there to be had for the asking. I heard your man say he wanted lobsters, Van; and I believe I'll row over there and see. I'm feeling uncommonly fit and need some exercise."

"All right, I'll go too," said Aleck. "I'll bet a bouquet that I beat you rowing over—Miss Reynier to furnish the bouquet!" was Chamberlain's next proposition. "Do you agree to that, my lady?"

"And pray, where should I get a bouquet?"

"Oh, the next time we get on land. And we won't put up with any old bouquet of juniper bushes and rocks, either. We want a good, old-fashioned round bouquet of garden posies, with mignonette round the edge and a rose in the middle; a sure-enough token of esteem—that kind of thing, you know. Is it a bargain, Miss Reynier?"

"Very well, it is a bargain," agreed Melanie; "but I shall choose bachelors' buttons!"

So they took the tender and got off, with a great show of exactness as to time and strictness of rules. Madame Reynier was to hold the watch, and Aleck was to wave a white handkerchief the minute they touched sand. Mr. Chamberlain was to give a like signal when they started back. The yacht slowed down and held her place as nearly as possible.

Chamberlain pulled a great oar, and was, in fact, far superior to Aleck in point of skill; but his stroke was not well adapted to the choppy waves inshore. He had learned it on the sleepy Cam, where the long, gliding blade counts best. The men stayed ashore a long time, disappearing entirely beyond the clump of trees that screened the outbuildings. When they reappeared, an old man was with them, following them down to the boat. Then the white handkerchief appeared, and the boat started on its return.

Aleck profited by Chamberlain's work, and made the boat leap forward by a shorter, almost jerky stroke. He came back easily with five minutes to spare.

"Good work!" said Mr. Chamberlain. "You have me beaten, and you'll get the bachelors' buttons," but you had the tide with you." "Nonsense! I had the lobsters extra!" asserted Aleck. "Well, if you had been born an Englishman, we'd make an oarsman out of you yet!"

"Huh!" said Aleck. But they had news to tell the ladies, and while they were having their dinner their thoughts were turned to another matter. The island, it appeared, had for some years been abandoned by its owner, and its only inhabitant was a gray and grizzly old man, known to the region as the hermit.

His fancy was to keep a light burning always by night in the landward window of his cabin, so as to warn sailors off the dangerous headland. There was no lighthouse in the vicinity, and by a kindly consent the people on the neighboring islands and on the mainland opposite encouraged his benevolent delusion, if delusion it might be called. They contrived to send him provisions at least once a week; and they had supplied him with a flag which, it was understood, he would fly in case he was in actual need. So, alone with his cow and his fowls, the old hermit spent his days, winter and summer, tending his lamp when the dark came on.

Aleck and Mr. Chamberlain had picked up some of this information at the last port which the Sea Gull made; but what was of new and real interest to them was the story which the old man told them of a castaway on the island a few days before.

"All hands had abandoned the yacht just before she went down, it appears. The owner was robbed by his own men and marooned on the hermit's island—that's the gist of it," said Aleck.

"The hermit said the man wouldn't cut off his table," went on Mr. Chamberlain; "but asked him for raw eggs and ate them outdoors. Said that except when he asked for eggs he never spoke without cursing. At least, the hermit couldn't understand what he said, so he thought it was cursing. And while the old man was talking," added Chamberlain resentfully, "that blooming peacock squawked like a demon."

"The yacht that went down, according to the man, was the Jeanne D'Arc," said Aleck, who had been grave enough from all their light-hearted talk. "I didn't tell you, Chamberlain, that my cousin, my old chum, went off quite unexpectedly on a boat called the Jeanne D'Arc. Where he went or what for, I don't know. Of course, it may have been another Jeanne D'Arc; it probably was. But it troubles me."

Melanie was instantly aroused. "Oh, I had an uncanny feeling when you first mentioned the Jeanne D'Arc!" she cried. "But could you not find out more? What became of the man that was marooned?"

"He got off the island a day or two ago," said Aleck. "The people that brought provisions to the old man took him to the mainland, to Charlesport."

"The beggar left without so much as thanking the old man for his eggs," added Chamberlain.

"We'll put into Charlesport tonight, if you don't mind," said Aleck. "If I can find the man that was marooned, I may be able to learn something about him. You can all go ashore, if you like. There's a big summer hotel near by, and it's a lovely country."

"We'll stay wherever it's most convenient for you to have us," said Melanie, looking at Aleck, for once, with more than a friendly interest in her eyes.

"And perhaps I can help you, Van; two heads, you know," said Chamberlain.

The village still rang, if so staid a community could be said to ring, with reports of the event of the week before. Doctor Thayer had been spinach-like, and Little Simon had been imaginative and voluble; and it would have been difficult to say which had teased the popular curiosity the more. Aleck found a tale ready for his ears about the launch and its three passengers, with many conflicting details. Some said that a great singer had been wrecked off Ram's Head, others that it was the captain and mate of the Jeanne D'Arc, others that it was a daughter of old Parson Thayer's sweet heart and two sailors that came ashore. Little or nothing was known about the island castaway. Aleck followed the only clue he could find, thinking to get at least some inkling of the truth.

(To be Continued.)

Read the ads and find out what bargains the merchants have to offer.

Proceedings of The Rock County Board of Supervisors

(Continued from page seven)
of tile at $15.00 Lake Shore road	45 00
Town of Harmony
To Robert McDowell, road dragging	19 00
To Paul Johnson, road dragging	18 50
Town of Bradford
To J. F. Maltress, rolling Racine road in Bradford	22 75
To J. A. Jones, repairs on Racine road, Avalon and Clinton road	416 50
To W. E. Miller, dragging and picking stone	3 00
To H. A. Long, repair work on county roads	9 60
To Will Munner, work on county roads	7 00
To G. A. Patterson, 70 gallons gasoline	8 75
Total orders drawn for care and repair of county roads	$1897 82
Orders drawn on County Highway Repair fund for supplies, repairs on rollers, and road machinery
To Fairbanks & Morse Co., for casting for old gasoline roller purchased 1910, roller No. 1	10 36
To Richard Green, moving roller from road to shed Avon, roller No. 1	15 00
To E. Kingsley, draw bar for engine, 15 ft. chain, Beloit, engine No. 2	6 75
To H. A. Long, repairs and labor, engine No. 1	26 25
To Dan & Townsend, work on roller No. 1	5 00
To P. M. Ellengson, for gasoline, oils, gun grease, roller No. 2	4 80
To Roy Cole, trying out new roller	17 50
To Alfred Bern, team and water, old engine back to Beloit	1 50
To G. F. Beedle, expense on moving old roller	2 00
To Ed E. Smith, storing roller No. 1	5 00
To Chas. A. Jackett, helping, new roller No. 1	3 50
To John Maltress, money advanced for supplies and repairs, roller No. 2	34 28
To Fairbanks, Morse & Co., supplies and repairs, engine No. 1 by Long	11 28
To Fairbanks, Morse & Co., repairs for engine No. 1	11 28
To Gordon Brown, supplies for engine No. 3 roller	2 10
To Fairbanks, Morse & Co., cast elbow for engine No. 3	11 10
To H. B. Moseley, freight on scarifier from Evansville to Beloit	10 25
To Keeler Lumber & Feed Co., 1-6x8x14 timber for loading old steam roller	1 68
To Fairbanks, Morse & Co., cast iron elbow, engine No. 3	5 00
To M. Ehrling, money advanced for freight on road drag	77
To E. P. Colton, freight on scarifier from Evansville to Beloit	7 88
To C. & N. W. Ry. freight on 2 road drags	82
To C. M. & St. P. freight on 1 road drag	45
To Fairbanks, Morse & Co., casting, engine No. 1, ordered by Long	10 18
To C. & N. W. Ry. Co., two castings, engine No. 1	90
To F. W. McKinney, repair on auto, roller running in dark without light	10 00
To S. W. Rotstein, iron pipe for drain, Lake Shore road, Clifton	2 30
To Chas. Boyington, supplies and help repair old roller 1910	7 50
To Austin Western Co., repairs rollers, No. 1 and 2, per bills	74 90
To Austin Western Co., repairs rollers, No. 1	143 88
To Capital City Cuirer Co., 24 drags	196 30
To J. S. Troon, repair work on roller	5 25
To H. B. Moseley, freight on scarifier	10 25
To E. H. Elfrandahl, freight on road drags	1 17
To Herman Long, care and repair of roller	21 65
Total orders drawn for care and repair of road machinery	$688 83
Town of Spring Valley, 1912 County Highway report
Amount available 1912 road fund	$2,803 65
Amount available 1911 road fund	58 00
Orfordville and Brookhead road commencing at west end of 1911 road thence west 3 1/2 miles to Jim Finley, contract price	453 43
for grading	$ 900 00
To Jim Finley, hauling 1800 1/2 yards stone at 70c	1,260 35
To Jim Finley, checking and leveling, 30 days	108 00
To H. A. Long, road 29 days, phone 26c	101 70
To Mercantile Company, for gasoline, 467 gal. at 17c	79 39
To Mercantile Company, for 5 gal. oil	2 25
Balance in 1912 road fund	$2,451 69
Balance in 1911 road fund	$ 351 96
Town of Rock, 1912 County Highway report	58 09
Amount available 1912 road fund	2,803 65
Amount available bridges	600 46
Amount 1911 road fund	439 00
Road No. 1, known as the Afton village road commencing at north end of county road during 1910 thence north one mile to J. M. Finley, contract price for grading	$ 374 00
To J. M. Finley for hauling 1263 1/2 yards stone at 44c	898 80
To Fred Rehfeld, work on Afton road	33 00
To H. A. Long, rolling and oil 3 1/2	95 85
To John Brinkman, gasoline and oil	81 18
To George Otis, labor	6 00
To Mrs. Gower, for 12 yards gravel-10c	7 20
To Town of Rock, for 398 1/2 yards of gravel	30 85
To C. H. Griffin, checking and leveling	112 50
Balance in 1912 road fund	$1,549 38
To H. B. Ratcliff, state aid bridge	$1,254 27
Balance in bridge fund	600 46
Orders drawn on 1911 road fund	000 00
To Dan Drew, to finish Happy Hollow road, for hauling 256 1/2 yards at 45c	$ 107 62
To Is. Eau Claire, gravel	16 25
To Is. Eau Claire, for dragging Happy Hollow road	4 00
To C. H. Griffin, checking Happy Hollow road	5 00
To finish Janesville Afton road	$ 132 87
To J. M. Finley, hauling stone and gravel	125 62
To A. Wiggins for labor and gravel	13 75
To P. Rehfeld	15 00
To A. Wiggins, 55 yards of gravel	5 50
To M. B. G., for labor	18 00
Balance in 1911 fund	$ 177 87
Town of Newark, County Highway report	$ 128 65
Amount available 1911 road fund	488 55
Orders drawn on 1911 road fund
To H. Royce, checking and leveling on Cleophas road	7 50
To J. T. Maltress rolling on Cleophas road	12 25
To Frank Maydun, for hauling gravel on Newark and Orford road	4 00
To Jens Stengrimson, hauling 24 yards of stone on Cleophas road at 65c	80 60
To Vaseline Oil Company, 85 gallons at 16c, gasoline	13 60
To Mrs. Ed. Smyth for gravel	69 10
To T. H. C. Hanson	17 00
To Jens Stengrimson	202 48
To H. Kelly	2 00
To B. C. Hanson, tending roller	13 65
To Roy Cole, engineer	8 50
Total orders	$ 430 68
Balance 1911 road fund	$ 57 87
Town of Plymouth 1912, State Aid Highway Report	$ 108 95
To balance 1911	$ 2,803 65
To Town, County and State Highway fund	2,803 65
To Town, County and State Highway fund	600 46
To contribution by Town, and County Bridge fund	99 54
Amount available 1912 road fund	$3,612 60
Road No. 1, known as the Town Line road beginning at the west end of County road and extending west about 3 1/2 miles
To Dan Drew, contract price for grading	$ 199 00
To Dan Drew for surfacing with gravel at 44 1/2c per yard	453 43
To John Martin, gravel 1110 1/2 yards at 10c	110 75
To H. S. Stevens, Supt. 35 1/2 days at $3.00	106 50
To H. T. Harper, Supt. 38 days at $3.00	114 00
Road No. 2, Hanover and Orford road 1 1/2 mile connecting two county roads	$ 983 68
To Dan Drew, contract price for grading	$ 299 00
To Dan Drew, extra price for grading	75 00
To Will Drew, extra price for grading	98 00
To Will Drew, 1760 yards gravel at 48c	731 00
To H. S. Stevens, Supt. 38 days at $3.00	114 00
To John Boller, 1015 yards gravel at 10c	101 50
To Dora Dettmer, 312 yards gravel at 10c	31 20
To H. S. Stevens, Supt. 38 days at $3.00	6 00
To H. T. Harper, Supt. 38 days at $3.00	25 50
To H. P. Ratcliff, five culverts	332 00
Total orders 1912 road fund	$1,814 30
Balance in 1912 road fund	2,797 98
Orders drawn on 1911 fund	5 67
To Geo. Hutton, moving and dragging 1911 road	4 00
To Mat Kennedy, labor 1911	60 00
To Ehrling, labor 1911	32 70
To M. L. Onsgard, labor 1911	4 80
Total orders 1911 paid	$ 161 50
Balance	$ 101 50
Orders drawn on 1912 bridge fund
To H. P. Ratcliff 16 ft. bridge Hanover & Orford	700 00
Balance 1912 bridge fund	None
Town of Porter
Fund available for 1912 work roads	$1,121 46
The Evansville Edgerton road commencing at Eagle Creamery thence one mile east, to O'Neill & Kiesow, contract price for grading less $30.00	150 00
To O'Neill & Kiesow, hauling 1111-1-9 yards gravel at 45c	500 00
To O'Neill & Kiesow, part payment hauling gravel	68 55
To Lee Alder, Austin Fessenden bridge	120 63
To Austin Fessenden, checking	45 00
Balance in 1912 fund	$ 884 18
Orders drawn on 1911 fund	$ 237 28
Town of Avon, amount available in 1912 road fund	73 76
Expended to finish Avon Village road
To Ed. Bright, for gasoline and oil	26 85
To J. T. Maltress, rolling stone	14 00
To Morace Hyland hauling stone	16 00
To Will Thompson hauling stone	16 91
Paid by Town to haul 100 yards stone	51 09
Deficit paid by Town	$ 51 09
Balance	$ 000 00
Town of Johnstown, County Highway report	$ 2,242 92
Amount available 1912 bridge fund	600 46
Amount available 1911 road fund	406 02
The middle road commencing at west end of County road thence west 1-2 mile, to R. F. Finley, hauling 630 yards gravel at 59c	401 20
Balance in 1912 road fund	$1,841 72
Road unfinished
To W. C. Kerman & Co., State Aid Bridge	600 00
Balance State Aid Bridge fund	46
Orders on 1912 fund, to Town of Johnstown	170 14
Balance in 1911 fund	235 88
Town of Lima, County Highway report
Amount available in 1912 road fund	$1,121 46
Amount available in 1912 bridge fund	600 46
The Milton, Whitewater road 240 rods, to J. M. Finley, contract price for grading	$ 820 00
To J. B. Werfall, two culverts	89 00
Balance in 1912 fund	221 46
To W. C. Kerman & Co., State Aid Bridge	536 00
Balance in 1912 bridge fund	64 46
Town of Bradford, County Highway report
Amount available 1912 road fund	$2,803 65
Amount available 1911 road fund	125 06
Avalon and Clinton road commencing at Center Town Line thence north 3/4 mile to Myers & Carr, contract price for grading	$ 345 00
To Myers & Carr, extra for grading	30 00
To Myers & Carr, hauling 694 1/2 yards of stone at

80c	555 60
To Myers & Carr, hauling 201 1/2 yards of gravel at 90c	181 12
To Robert Finster, hauling 496 yards of stone at 10c	49 60
To Roy Cole, 13 days rolling 24 1/2 days checking	45 50
To W. W. Dalton, 20 gal. oil at 20c	73 50
To H. Wheeler, 201 yards gravel at 10c	8 00
To E. G. Pease, 175 gal. gasoline at 13c	20 19
The Racine road commencing N E corner Sec. 9 thence 1/2 mile east to Myers & Carr, contract price for grading	20 67
To Myers & Carr, extra for grading	$1,329 09
To Myers & Carr, hauling 525 yards of stone at $1.23	645 75
To Myers & Carr, hauling 195 yards of gravel at $1.00	195 00
To Andrew Myers, checking	50 00
To Herman & Long, rolling stone 10c	24 71
To A. Dodge, 40 gal. gasoline	62 50
To Avalon Lumber Co., 5 gal. oil	6 80
To E. G. Pease, 110 gal. gasoline	2 00
To C. J. Stoney, hauling gasoline	16 50
To L. P. Eddy, 26 gal. gasoline	4 94
Balance 1912 road fund	$1,135 29
Orders drawn on 1911 fund	$ 339 39
To C. W. Irish	$ 2 28
To Town of Bradford for money advanced	60 00
To John A. Jones, repair Avalon, Clinton road	68 50
Balance 1911 fund, deficit	$ 130 78
Town of Center, County Highway report	$ 5 72
Amount available 1912 road fund	$1,582 19
Amount available 1911 road fund	382 14
Footville and Magnolia 1 1/2 mile, to M. L. O'Neill, contract price for grading	$ 150 00
To M. L. O'Neill, hauling gravel at 68c	1,150 50
To M. L. O'Neill, repair of roads	12 00
To Mrs. R. F. Finley, 1620 yards of gravel at 10c	162 00
Balance of 1912 road fund	$1,474 59
Orders drawn on 1911 fund	$ 207 69
Reimburse Town for money advanced	$ 381 00
Balance 1911 road fund	1 14
Town of Harmony, County Highway report
Amount available 1912 road fund	$2,803 65
Amount available 1911 road fund	43 37
Road No. 1, known as the Middle road 370 rods, to W. F. Hughes, contract price for grading	$ 242 62
To W. F. Hughes, hauling 1395 yards of gravel at 42 1/2c	592 87
To Ed. Arthur, 18 days checking at $3.00	54 00
Road No. 2, Milton Avenue road 512 rods, to W. F. Hughes, contract price for grading	$ 338 30
To W. F. Hughes, extra for grading	100 00
To E. J. Roach, 30 days checking	90 00

The Thriftiness of a Community Can Be Judged By Their Use of the Classified Page

THE RATE FOR ADVERTISEMENTS in these classified columns is 1/2-cent a word cash each insertion. No order for less than 25 cents. The charge rate is 1 cent per word. Address can be given care of Gazette if so desired.

WANTED

MISCELLANEOUS.

WHEN YOU THINK of insurance, think of C. P. Beers. 1-28-1f

WANTED—To rent or buy a modern 7 or 8 room house in good location, or to rent a modern flat having 3 bedrooms. Rock County phone 947. Mrs. J. C. Keller. 2-22-1f

WANTED—$6000 at 5 per cent and $5000 at 6 per cent. Good farm security for both loans. J. H. Burns & Son. 2-22-1f

WANTED—Table boarders. Home cooking, convenient to business section. Address "Meals" Gazette. 2-21-1f

WANTED—One or two young lady boarders. Pleasant home. Reasonable rates, references given. Address "M. V. C." Gazette. 2-21-1f

WANTED—Place to work in small family without children. Answer "Place" care of the Gazette. 2-20-1f

WANTED—Cleaning to do in offices and stores. Mrs. Ann Rogers, 233 Oakhill Ave. Bell phone 1736. 2-20-1f

WANTED—Sewing to do. Inquire 311 West Bluff street. 2-17-1f

WANTED—People who have carpenter work to do to call up 1259 Black. Wm. J. McGowan, lowest prices. 2-17-1f

WANTED—To make up Hair Combs, Puffs, etc. Mrs. Hammond, 121 W. Milwaukee street, up stairs. New phone 1237. 2-17-1f

WANTED TO BUY—Good six or seven room house in Second or Third ward, $2500 to $3000. State price, terms and full particulars or no attention given. Address "House" care Gazette. 2-13-1f

HARNESS OILING and Repairing. Best work at lowest prices. T. R. Costigan, Corn Exchange. 1-24-1f

WANTED--FEMALE HELP

WANTED—Girl at Janesville Steam Laundry. 2-22-1f

WANTED—Young lady to take charge of interurban tickets. Apply in person at the Myers Hotel. 2-21-1f

WANTED—Two women for pressing. Six girls for stitching and general work. Steady employment. Good wages. Lewis Knitting Co. 2-19-1f

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Rock Co. phone 922 Black. 2-19-1f

WANTED—Immediately kitchen girl good wages. Girls for private houses and hotels. Mrs. McCarthy, 522 W. Milwaukee St. Both phones. 2-24-1f

WANTED--MALE HELP

WANTED — Handymen machinists who have had some experience on machine tools. State experience; steady work and opportunity for good wages and advancement. Apply X. Y. Z., this paper. 2-17-1f.

WANTED—Vacuum Cleaner Agents. Exclusive new design $1.50 wheel operated, bellows type cleaner. Without clumsy box or dirty dust bag. Big profits. Write, Doty Company, Dayton, Ohio. 2-22-1f

WANTED — Ambitious Salesmen, neat appearance, call on Merchants in their territory; elegant sidekick, convenient to carry; good commissions, prompt remittance. Belmont Mfg. Co., Cincinnati, O. 2-22-1f

WANTED—One to four hundred dollars per month paid salesmen selling our Paints and specialties. Twenty-five years the standard of quality. The Carrara Paint Co., Cleveland, O. 2-22-1f

SALESMEN WANTED—$100 to $400 per month selling our oils, greases and paints. Do not be satisfied, get our proposition. Salary or commission. Inland Oil Works Company, Cleveland, Ohio. 2-22-1f

WANTED—Man to work on farm by month or year. Taylor farm, Milton avenue, New phone. 2-21-1f

WANTED—Are You the Man? We can give one reliable and energetic person a splendid opportunity to exchange his spare time for cash, or make use of all of his time to represent us in Beloit, Janesville and Racine. We want him to show our excellent line of Art Calendars and Advertising Goods to banks and business houses of all kinds. Our product comes as near to being self-selling as originality and beauty can make it. We have excellent mediums to meet the advertising needs of every business and they can be sold in connection with any other line, or for us exclusively. Applications solicited from city salesmen, good insurance or real estate agents, or others who have spare time to show line to every business concern. Employment to begin at once. We pay liberal commissions and ask no deposit or bond for the safety of our sample outfit. We have a clean-cut proposition business proposition to offer to a clean-cut salesman. We have been widely and favorably known for thirty years, and do business honorably. We have a paid up capital of $200,000.00. If interested enclose this advertisement and write to Sales Manager, Merchants Publishing Company, Kalamazoo, Michigan. 2-22-1f

WANTED—Energetic young man, experienced, all branches printing trade, as assistant to Supt. The W. T. Raleigh Medical Co., Freeport, N. H. 2-21-1f

WANTED—Salesmen to sell lubricating oils, house and barn paint and specialties. By working hard and intelligently you can earn big money. Champion Refining Co., Cleveland, O. 1-25-3mo-Sat

WANTED—Janitor for office building. References required. Address D. J. Gazette. 2-19-1f

WANTED—To hire man and wife to work on farm. J. E. Kennedy, Janesville, Wis., Sutherland Block. 2-18-1f

WANTED—Machine Foreman for night turn-about twenty machines, mostly lathe 12" to 36" swing, steady work for competent man and changes good for advancement. Apply "X. Y. Z." this paper. 2-17-1f

WANTED—500 men 20 to 40 years old wanted at once for Electric Railway Motormen and Conductors: $60 to $100 a month; no experience necessary; fine opportunity; no strike; write immediately for application blank. Address "Railroad" care of Gazette. 2-13-1f

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—House in Third ward, E. D. McGowan. 2-22-1f

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms. Inquire after 6:30 p. m., 1020 N. Bluff street. 2-22-1f

FOR RENT—First class heated furnished rooms for light house keeping. 25 East St. No. New phone 794 White. 2-22-1f

FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms, modern conveniences, close in, private entrance. 115 So. Second St. Old phone 973. 2-22-1f

FOR RENT—Strictly modern house close in, also new house on Ringold street. Joseph Fisher, Hayes Block. 2-22-1f

FOR RENT—40 acre well improved farm good buildings, high state of cultivation. Two miles from Koshkonong Station. Inquire Nolan Bros., Grocery or Matt Haas, Koshkonong. 2-20-1f e-o-d

FOR RENT—When you rent a store, get on the right side of the street. Get on the interurban line, get in the block having no school, and yet only one block from the busiest corner in the city. Then you'll get the fine trade and succeed in Janesville. I have that kind of a store to rent at No. 58 So. Main St., R. Treat. 2-21-1f

FOR RENT—Store at 37 So. Main St. E. R. Winslow, 24 N. Main St. 2-20-1f

FOR RENT—Desirable seven room house, gas, city and soft water. 126 North street, New phone 881 White. 2-20-1f

FOR RENT—Modern house on 5th avenue. Inquire 515 5th avenue. 2-19-1f

FOR RENT—Strictly modern house close in. Also new house on Ringold street. Joseph Fisher, Hayes Block. 2-20-1f

FOR RENT—For cash or on shares, a very good 210 acre farm, all good soil and good buildings. J. E. Kennedy, Janesville, Wis., Sutherland Block. 2-20-1f

FOR RENT—Modern store with living room in rear. Also barn on W. Milw. St. Inquire T. E. Macklin, 317 Dodge street. 2-15-1f

FOR RENT—Furnished flat of 4 rooms modern, two blocks from depot. Phone 1222 white, 163 Linn. 1-25-1f

FOR SALE

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE—Base burner coal stove at 521 Prairie avenue. Old phone 1377. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—At a sacrifice to avoid storing, five pieces of old mahogany furniture. S. Gazette. 2-21-1f

FOR SALE—Kiln dried Maple clippings $2.50 per load. Fine kindling $1.50 per load. Schuller & McKee Lumber Co. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—At a bargain, one Pander's Torpedo roadster. Alderman & Drummond. 2-21-1f

FOR SALE—Steel range, cost $15, price $10. Roll-top black walnut desk, 41 in. four drawers, two shelves below. Cost $18, price $7. 18 in. gas log, $2.00. 441 Madison St. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—Dining table and chairs, ice box, laundry stove, kitchen table, Morris chair rocker, gas lamp, oil stove, dishes. Call afternoons at 621 South Jackson street, Old phone 752. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—Kiln dried Maple Clippings $2.50 per load. Pine kindling $1.50 per load. Schuller & McKee Lumber Co. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—Complete furnishings for a summer cottage. Cheap if taken at once. Nolan Bros. 2-19-1f

FOR SALE—Nearly new mahogany Kimball Piano. Cheap for quick cash. H. Horton, 329 Dodge St. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—Good live plumbing business in town of 50,000 inhabitants, including stock, tools, and automobile. Address "Plumber" 514 W. Bluff street, Rockford, Ill. 2-18-1f

FOR SALE—Scratch tablets. Big size 5 cents, Gazette Office. 2-18-1f

FOR SALE—About 40 strong packing boxes, all sizes from 50 inches long and smaller. Some boxes 3 1/2 ft. square, all 1 inch lumber. Will make good repair lumber. Prices 20 and 25 cents each. Gazette Office. 2-18-1f

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING welds any kind of metal. Automobile parts and crank cases a specialty. F. L. Burton, 111 No. Jackson, both phones. 2-17-1f

THE NEW GAZETTE PARCELS POST MAPS of the United States giving all units and the zones from our Unit No. 2263, the most correct map published, are ready for delivery at the Gazette. By paying up back subscriptions and paying for one year in advance for the Daily Gazette the map will be sent free. The map is regularly sold at $1.00. Gazette patrons may have it at 25 cents or by mail at 35 cents. 2-13-1f

FOR SALE—One 18 H. P. Fuller & Johnson Engine, Gasoline, Nitscher Implement Co. 2-17-1f

FOR SALE—One 6 H. P. Stover Gasoline Engine, Nitscher Implement Co. 2-17-1f

FOR SALE—One No. 6 700 lb. Sharpless Cream Separator. $45.00. Nitscher Implement Co. 2-17-1f

FOR SALE—Engraved cards, Wedding invitations and Announcements engraved and embossed. Stationery produced in the very latest and newest letter designs. We have connections with several engraving houses which give us very prompt service. Call Phone Rock Co. 27, Bell 774 for Printing Department of the Gazette. 2-13-1f

FOR SALE—One 14-18 Sandwich Hay Press. One 16-18 Sandwich Hay Press. Nitscher Implement Co. 2-17-1f

FOR SALE—One 16 H. P. Nichols & Shepard Steam Engine. Nitscher Implement Co. 2-17-1f

FOR SALE—Heavy wrapping paper for laying under carpets. Gazette office. 2-27-1f

FOR SALE—Cabbage, doz. 30c; onions, bu. 75c. Will deliver. J. F. Newman, both phones. 1-30-30t

ON ACCOUNT OF ILL HEALTH we will sell our property in Footville, restaurant and confectionery store. Wish to sell before April 1st. Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, Footville, Wis. 1-27-26t

QUALITY CANDIES AT RAZOOK'S. 27-1f

FOR SALE—Second hand Stoddard-Dayton, fine condition, snap, $350.00. Alderman & Drummond. 1-35-1f

FOR SALE—At St. Joseph's Convent, a new set of Rosary beads, Medallions, Statues, Crucifixes and Prayer Books at reasonable prices. 12-6-1f

FOR SALE—Lot of strong packing boxes at Gazette office. 1-10-1f

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE—6-room house on St. Mary's avenue, 1-2 block off street car line. Modern hardwood finish throughout. Humphrey & Bauer, Hayes Block. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—8-room house, modern on St. Mary's avenue, one block off street car line. Hardwood finish throughout. Humphrey & Bauer, Hayes Block. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—7-room house on Yuba street. Furnace, electric light, gas, hardwood floors. Humphrey & Bauer, Hayes Block. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—20 acres of good land within city limits. Good location but no buildings. Will sell at a price that will make you take notice. Address "Honest Man" care of Gazette. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—Farm Homes in the New South. It is our new 50-page book about the "Highlands" of South Mississippi. The book is priced 25 cents. A copy to those not land seekers. Sent without charge to all looking for farm homes. Write today for copy mailed postage prepaid. Cummings & Company, (Established 1869) 50 N. Dearborn St., Chicago. W. L. Twining, Manager Farm Dept. 2-22-1f

FOR SALE—A good mixed stock and grain farm of 640 acres in Edmunds Co., So. Dakota. Price $36 per acre. Also a first class meat market at County seat. All complete $4000. For more information write to Chas. Rehfeld, De Smet, So. Dakota. 2-15-1f

FAIRMS—Highly improved farms for sale. Cheap and on easy terms. In the wheat and clover belt. Wood, Clark and MacArthur Counties. Also large track of good hardwood cut over land. Cheap. I can place you and please you. C. A. Githens, Box 362, Marshfield, Wis. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—94 acres Town of Fulton, Rock County, Wisconsin, good 8-room house; 6 acre tobacco shed; barn and granary; 20 acres of good pasture and timber land; balance under plow; running stream. Price $95 an acre. Owner will consider a small house and lot as part part, cashing price. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—At a bargain price, 50 acres of nice level land in Rock County, all tillage except about 2 acres bordering on a creek. The buildings are fair. J. E. Kennedy, Janesville, Wis., Sutherland Bldg. 2-21-1f

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE—The estate of Anna Kehoe, deceased, situated in Section 7, Town of Harmony, Rock County, Wisconsin, 4 miles north of Janesville, containing one hundred and fifteen (115) acres of land, more or less, with fair buildings and good well will be offered for sale on the premises Thursday, March 6th, 1913 at 2 o'clock P. M. to the highest bidder. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Terms of sale, cash. B. J. Kehoe, Administrator. 2-21-1f

FOR SALE—At a bargain. Eight room modern house including bath, furnace, hard and soft water, gas and electric lights, barn and auto shed. Call at Schoeff's Meat Market, or 626 Fifth Ave. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—House and lot, City of Janesville, at a price less than cost to build. House in excellent repair and well located. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—11 acres just outside of City of Janesville at a price that is right; good set of buildings excellent repair. Party will accept a balance and lot and give good terms for balance. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—30 acres, Wood County excellent timber land; well located. Value $30.00 an acre. Party will exchange for other property. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—Four lots, City of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin. Party will sell or exchange for other property; value $1000. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE OR RENT—A farm of 155 acres in town of Center. Inquire of A. Covell, Evansville, Wis. 2-10-1f

FOR SALE—130 acres, Town of Porters, Rock County, Wisconsin, good set of buildings; located about one-half mile from Fellows Station, owner will exchange equity for other property. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—Cheese factory and residence, best location in state, must sell on account of ill health of wife. Worth $5000, will take $3500 for immediate sale. Also a number of improved farms for sale. James Murray, Elroy, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—130 acres, $110 per acre, Town of Johnston, Rock County, Wisconsin, new buildings just completed; will accept a house and lot as part purchase price and give good terms for balance. Address E. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wisconsin. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—Choice lot on So. Jackson street. Talk quick. Wm. Taylor. 2-10-1f

FOR SALE—120 acre dairy farm, Clark County; 40 acres under plow, 45 acres cleared and 35 acres wood land. Practically all tillable land, price $65 an acre. Will exchange. Address B. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—Choice lot on So. Jackson street. Talk quick. Wm. Taylor. 2-10-1f

FOR SALE—120 acre dairy farm, Clark County; 40 acres under plow, 45 acres cleared and 35 acres wood land. Practically all tillable land, price $65 an acre. Will exchange. Address B. H. Peterson, Janesville, Wis. 2-14-1f

FOR SALE—4 Rhode Island Red Cockerels, one library table. E. N. Fredendall. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—LIVE STOCK

2,000 FARMERS READ THESE WANTED ADS.

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

LOST

LOST—Small black pocketbook containing money. Finder please return to Gazette Office. Reward. 2-22-1f

LOST—German Lutheran prayer book containing Western Ave. and Apollo theatre. Please return to Gazette. 2-21-1f

MISCELLANEOUS

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

FOR SALE—One 1-year old Shetland pony mare; broke. New phone, W. C. Huginn. 2-20-1f

MONEY TO LOAN on real estate security. F. L. Clemons, 205 Jackson Bldg. 51-1f

MONEY TO LOAN—A. M. Fisher, Jackson Bldg. 2-20-1f

HARDWARE

If it is good hardware McNamara has it.

SNOW SHOVELS

25c, 40c and 45c.

PREMO BROTHERS

21 N. Main St.

For Sale!

One large second hand safe, cheap.

E. T. FISH

Bell phone 105. Rock Co. 202.

J. E. KENNEDY

Real Estate, Loans and Fire Insurance, Western Farm Lands a Specialty.

SUTHERLAND BLOCK, Janesville, Wis.

Humphrey & Bauer

Real Estate, Loans Fire Insurance, Collections and Rentals.

421 Hayes Bldg.

Piano Tuning

RALPH R. BENNETT,

1047 Park Ave. Beloit, Wis.

PLAYER PIANO EXPERT

Leave orders at Baker's Drug Store.

THE

Reliable Drug Co

Employs courteous clerks who are interested in the wants of their customers. Come in and let us serve you.

We offer for a few days 160 acres on section 10 La Prairie.

SCOTT & JONES

Hayes Block

Over thirty different styles of trunks in stock. Any rupture fitted to your satisfaction or money refunded.

Private rooms for sitting. Shoulder braces, crutches, suspensories, elastic stockings, surgical rubber goods.